REPORT OF BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

The report of the Board of Church Extension was presented by their Corresponding Secretary, Geo. W. Muckley. (A copy of this report can be had by addressing Geo. W. Muckley, Water Works Bldg., Kansas City, Mo.)

G. A. Hoffmann, Statistical Secretary, presented the following report:

STATISTICAL REPORT.

The success of any cause which has for its object the growth in numbers and the good of mankind, depends upon two things: First, the vital truths which it contains. Second, the power that these truths have in controlling the lives of those who have accepted them. When the advocates of such truths are living representatives of the cause they plead, and men of strong conviction who are ready on all occasions to present them earnestly and with force, these truths become invincible. The one need that then remains is to properly organize, discipline, and lead these enlisted forces on to further conquests.

The ministers among the Disciples of Christ present the gospel in the most forceful and heart-searching manner. There have been, according to reports for the year closing September 30, 1904, 94,649 converts who were baptized and added to our churches. It is a great commendation to our evangelistic and progressive spirit to win this immense army to Christ. Now, if there were no spiritual deaths or losses by removals, there should be a net gain of 80,000. But our gains are not one-half of this; we are lacking in the power to hold, organize, discipline and assimilate these great numbers. This great loss can only be accounted for by the lack of pastoral care. This is especially true in our weaker churches, and an appalling laxness in transferring our membership when removals occur. The older denominations have at least two advantages of the Disciples in this respect: Their membership is largely recruited from their children or Sunday-school. In the denominations the Sunday-school is the nursery of the church. When they enter the church they are trained for their work. On the other hand, a large number of our membership were grown men and women when they were converted from the world. They have had no training, and we have no special agency in the church to properly train these raw recruits for a consistent and conscientious church life. On account of the large and tempting harvest, many of our churches also delay the threshing season, and much of the grain is greatly injured before it is gathered into the garner of the church. It must not be considered, however, that our work in gathering so many to Christ whom we can not account for at the close of the year, is a partial failure. The mother who has raised her ten children in poverty may not be able to settle them around her in comfortable homesteads, but they may have made homes for themselves in other communities, and may be living honorable lives and shaping the lives and thoughts of society there. Thus that which may at first seem to retard our rapid growth, may be the Lord's method of taking the fruit-trees from the orchard and planting them in the forest of human creeds, where all may be changed into the fruitfulness and harmony of the loving, sympathetic, fruitful New Testament Church.

Notwithstanding, our gains give encouragement to every disciple of our Lord. The number of churches, communicants, Bible-schools, enrollment in Bible-schools, ministers, and gains for the year are as follows:

	Total Number.	Gain.
Churches	11,162	177
Communicants	1,233,984	33,143
Bible-schools	8,626	167
Enrollment in Bible-schools	836,971	15,971
Ministers	6,631	118

The gain of 13 per cent. in the offerings to our National Missionary Societies was quite large last year. This could scarcely be reached every year.

and yet the gain is commendable. The reports show a gain in these offerings, including the offerings for State Missions, of $59,246, or 11 per cent. The amounts contributed to the various boards are as follows:

Foreign Christian Missionary Society	$211,319
Christian Woman's Board of Missions	167,085
American Christian Missionary Society	85,245
Church Extension	68,986
State and District Missions	208,082
Miscellaneous Missions	30,000
Total	$770,717

In the offerings to schools and other benevolences there has been quite a healthy increase. The amount contributed to our schools is almost double what it was during former years. There seems to be an awakening on the question of education among us. This enthusiasm extends to our own colleges, as well as doing mission work among many students attending State universities. It is a great work to put the Bible into the hands of the young men attending the State schools of the nation, but the ministers of the Disciples of Christ can be educated, disciplined and developed only in our own colleges. There will be notable exceptions, of course, but this is the rule. Our National Benevolent Association, St. Louis, shows remarkable vitality and growth in receipts. These benevolences show the following:

Building and Endowment of Schools	$453,286
National Benevolent Association	77,540
Ministerial Relief	11,562
Other Benevolences	10,000
Total	$551,388

One of the grand features of our college work is the fact that last year 831 young men were studying for the Christian ministry, while the number this year is 997, a gain of 166, or twenty per cent. This growth in finances for our schools and this splendid gain in young men studying for the Christian ministry for our pulpits and the evangelistic fields should continue. A great forward movement is needed in the work of our colleges.

There has been but little change in the work of the local church. The stronger and more able churches have, as a rule, efficient pastors, and are making good progress, but many of the weaker churches are suffering more or less for the lack of proper pastoral care. These churches are unable to secure the men they need. It would be a great blessing to the churches of Christ, as well as our young men, if our college professors would impress upon the young men studying for the ministry more vigorously the need of the village church and the benefits a young minister derives in laboring for them. The labors of the young men are always most fruitful and most highly appreciated in the country churches.

On account of a lack of much needed work, in many of our smaller churches, the advancement in local church work has not been as great as in some former years. The work in the larger churches is constantly improving, however. We make the following report for the year:

LOCAL CHURCH WORK.

Ministerial Support	$4,310,000
Incidental Church Expenses	920,000
Church Buildings	590,000
Church and Bible-school Literature	350,000
Total	$6,170,000
Total for all purposes	$7,493,105

This is a gain of $358,040 over last year, or a gain of five per cent. This is a very good and commendable gain. It shows that we have contributed $6.25 per member to our missionary, benevolent, college and local church work. This shows a gain per member of one hundred per cent. in the last twelve years. This is a great gain in the growth of giving. A substantial year's work has been done, and while a few are not altogether satisfied with the reports your secretary presents from year to year, you will kindly allow your secretary to say that we try to deal as nearly as possible in facts. A large part of this report is composed of actual figures for which actual reports have been secured. In the few cases where we were compelled to make estimates, the most conservative figures are taken.

Fraternally submitted,

G. A. HOFFMANN,
Statistical Secretary.

The report of the Acting Board of the Society was laid before the Convention in printed form as follows, and briefly summarized by the Corresponding Secretary, Benjamin Lyon Smith:

Nailed to the Mast

FIFTY-FOURTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE ACTING BOARD OF MANAGERS.

Your Acting Board of Managers desires first, to make grateful recognition of the goodness of our Lord for bringing us safely through another year; for the greatest year's work in the history of the organized missionary work among us; for his kind providence in protecting the lives of our missionaries, not one of them having died during the year; for the growing liberality of the churches, and for the fact that forty-three churches among us have already decided to support their own home missionary under the Board of Home Missions.

Our God has signally blessed the administration of this work and given to it an encouraging measure of success.

Taken in all, the achievements of the past two years have brought the Home Mission cause to the highest point ever reached among our people. This is due, first of all, to the divine favor that has blessed the efforts put forth; yet much is also due to the increasing interest, the earnest co-operation, the liberal support that has been extended to the Board and its work.

OUR DEAD.

Before filing our report, we wish to stop just a moment to pay respect to the noble souls who have dropped out of our ranks during the year. With the note of gladness is mingled the note of sadness at the loss of valuable friends and supporters of this great work.

With heartfelt sorrow and a sense of personal bereavement, we record the death of the beloved George Darsie, of Kentucky—the friend of every good work; the lover of men; the lover of God. In the death of Bro. Darsie every department of church enterprise has experienced a loss.

A whole brotherhood, not Iowa alone, notes and mourns the loss of Gov. Francis M. Drake, the most princely giver we have ever had in our brotherhood. He is to be held in everlasting remembrance in this Convention by the Francis M. Drake Memorial Fund, which he established.

M. L. Darland, a pioneer of both Iowa and Indian Territory.

Indiana tells of the death of A. J. Frank and Aaron H. Moore, faithful ministers of the Word.

Nebraska notes the departure of O. C. Atwater, a cultured man, known in many States. He preached during the last year as occasion offered, and gave half his pay to missions.

Missouri mourns the departure of Anthony Hardman, S. B. McCarmon, A. C. Hitch, among the ministers, and Prof. A. J. Youngblood, of Christian University, a most lovable man, and Mrs. D. R. Dungan, who shared all the vicissitudes of her husband's life, as he laid with R. C. Barrow the foundations of our cause in Nebraska, as well as the victories of his later life. Missouri tells also of the departure of George Plattenburg, a true, strong and faithful minister.

Georgia and Missouri both unite in mourning the early death of the beloved A. B. Phillips, pastor of the church at Augusta and former pastor in Kansas City. He was devoted to every good work of the brotherhood.

Kansas tells of the death of Miss Maud Griffith, of the First Church of Topeka—a leader of our young people, and a true lover of our Lord.

Ohio notes the going home of J. Harrison Jones, the pioneer preacher. He died at Alliance, O., in his ninety-first year. He was the associate of the early pioneers, and laid with them the foundations of our work in that great State.

Mrs. F. M. Green, wife of the former Corresponding Secretary of the Society, passed to her eternal reward on May 19.

Mrs. Alice D. Pike, wife of our minister, Grant E. Pike; she was a true helpmeet to her husband in all this work.

Ohio also mourns the departure of J. B. Knowles, a minister of beautiful character and unblemished reputation; a tireless worker and a peacemaker. He died in September, in his sixty-ninth year.

Colorado presents to the brotherhood the name of Mrs. Sarah J Corbin. of Ft. Collins. Many have wrought for the prosperity of the Ft. Collins Church, but she was the pioneer of the entire movement, and the church is her monument.

With devout recognition of divine favor and appreciation of the continued confidence of the enlarging constituency of the Society, your Acting Board of Managers submits its fifty-fourth Annual Report.

ENLARGEMENT.

The year has been marked by some distinct enlargements, which we feel will be for the good of the work. The keynote of the year has been enlargement. Last year our income swept over the $100,000, and in that fact we found the inspiration and motive to greatly enlarge our plans. We made a larger number of appropriations than ever before.

Our first enlargement is in the number of missionaries under appointment. We have assisted more missionaries than ever before; the total being 353 as against 339 last year. One hundred and twenty were assisted by direct appropriations from our treasury, and 233 by our appropriations to the various State Boards of Missions. These laborers report a total of 165 churches organized during the year; with a total of 16,861 additions to the churches. Of these 8,578 were by confession of faith and the remaining 8,283 by commendation or statement.

SUMMARY OF WORK BY STATE BOARDS.

Our various State Boards of Missions report 198 churches organized, 13,390 additions by confession of faith and baptism; otherwise, 10,894: unclassified, 875; making a total of 25,159 by our State Boards of Missions..

GRAND TOTAL.

The grand total of National and State Boards is:

Number of churches organized	225
Number of additions by confession of faith and baptism..	15,470
Number of additions otherwise	12,748
Number of additions unclassified	875
Grand total of additions by Home Missions	29,093

This is a wonderful harvest of souls, and shows America to be the ripest field in the world for simple New Testament Christianity.

(For the list of new churches organized, see Appendix C.)

FINANCIAL SURVEY.

COMPARATIVE TABLE OF GROWTH IN GIVING.

From Churches	$34,881.88	$39,761.27	$48,662.00	$47,951.41
From Bible-schools	3,674.54	4,647.72	6,897.13	8,505.05
From C. E. Societies	912.93	1,119.92	858.45	1,842.56
From L. A. and Other Societies	437.70	293.00	707.95	586.75
From Individuals	4,406.76	4,307.95	5,500.66	5,097.05
From Other Sources, Interest Permanent Funds	47,402.87	32,801.07	39,619.91	21,773.14
Total	$91,716.68	$82,930.93	$102,246.10	$85,755.96

Our second enlargement was the change of Mr. Ranshaw's work from Assistant Secretary to Field Secretary. Last January your Board, realizing the necessity of presenting this work to the churches more directly, changed the work of Geo. B. Ranshaw from Assistant Secretary to Field Secretary. His report is as follows:

REPORT OF FIELD SECRETARY RANSHAW.

The time of the Field Secretary has been almost wholly occupied in visiting conventions —State, District and County; in attending rallies and ministerial associations; and in "campaigning" among the churches in the interests of Home Missions.

I have traveled more than 19,000 miles, attended nine State conventions, eight county and district conventions, visited and addressed 129 congregations, visited three colleges, delivered 165 addresses and sermons, besides visiting personally many pastors and church officials in the interests of the work.

Without exception the cause has been warmly welcomed everywhere. Personal contact with the work and the workers invariably stimulates interest by imparting knowledge communicable in no other way so well. The larger religious bodies, recognizing the importance of personal work among the churches are laying increasing emphasis upon it by keeping constantly in the field corps of well-qualified men, for the presentation of the progress and requirements of the missionary work done by their several boards in America. If I may presume to make a suggestion, I would say that we shall not begin to be a missionary people until we lay more stress upon the value of personal presentation of the work of missions by the men in intimate touch with the work at headquarters. A missionary appeal, to have any weight at all, must be buttressed by facts—the freshest and strongest facts obtainable only by closest contact and intimate acquaintance with the field and the workers. The pressure of local requirements is frequently so great that the busy pastor has little time in which to present adequately and in detail the facts and claims of Home Missions, which are certain to move our people to quick and generous support, when properly set forth. Often the multiplicity of claims tends to confusion where the missionary conceptions are nebulous and the various causes not sufficiently explained. A personal representative, whose heart has felt the burden of ever-increasing need, who, from personal contact with both, knows the crying demand and the almost limitless source of supply, probably knows the avenues of approach to the hearts of a willing and waiting people, and can best bring the masses of our churches and workers into fellowship with the plans and purposes of a brotherhood. The preacher must always be the medium of contact. The Field Agent neither supplants nor supercedes the preacher, but supplements and supports his faithful labors. He can contribute the element of personal knowledge so essential to the completeness of the otherwise perfect presentation of the work by the pastor. He is the pastor's assistant and should be welcomed for his work's sake.

The great brotherhood of the M. E. Church (North) has six field secretaries, besides their two assistant corresponding secretaries. The Congregational Church, twenty-three; the General Synod of the Lutheran Church has two field secretaries, and the Presbyterian Church (North), two assistant secretaries. So that if we compare results at all it would be well to compare also the agencies employed by others.

The work afield has wrought in me a very strong conviction concerning four most important facts, namely:

First—The brethren in the States wherein we are numerically strong, have no adequate conception of the trials and struggles and discouragements of our brethren in the States in which we are weak.

Second—The brethren in the weaker States are doing relatively many times more for the extension of the kingdom than the brethren in the older States.

Third—According to present demands, to say nothing at all of the most inviting opportunities passing by continually, the American Christian Missionary Society ought to have at its disposal not less than $300,000, with an annual increase according to the growing demands.

Fourth—A vast campaign of education is the need of the hour. Our people are a munificent people. But unless they know the need they can not be expected to act. Field work, therefore, is growing increasingly necessary. Missionary literature is in greater demand, and the facts of Home Missions are called for beyond our capacity to supply. The necessity of sowing literature broadcast and of meeting face to face the men enlisted and the men we seek to enlist, is apparent to every casual student of Home Missions.

It is my earnest prayer that our people may appreciate the necessities of the hour, and plan wisely and broadly for the future.

Submitted in the spirit of service,

GEO. B. RANSHAW.

Our third enlargement was the creation of

OUR YOUNG PEOPLE'S DEPARTMENT.

During the year we have created a Young People's Department, and put it in charge of Miss Sarah Bird Dorman.

Miss Dorman had served for sometime as bookkeeper, and had charge of the working force in the office. Being found to be effective and successful, she has been promoted to have charge of the Young People's Department.

This includes the Sunday-school work, especially Boys' and Girls' Rally Day, and the Christian Endeavor societies and their especial work in Porto Rico.

The following is Miss Dorman's report:

During the year just closing, special attention has been given our Christian Endeavor societies in the effort to enlist them in our Home Mission work.

Porto Rico was made their special field. Numerous appeals were sent out in behalf of this island mission, and we are glad to report an increased interest in this growing work.

Last year but 197 societies contributed towards the Porto Rican work, and the total amount was only $858.45; while this year 298 societies have been enlisted, an increase of 101; and the total amount contributed is $1,842.56, an increase of $984.11.

This certainly proves that our young people have but to be informed in regard to the great need in the home land, and they will give liberally.

Specal Objects.

Shares in the salaries of the native helpers are assigned on application from Christian Endeavor societies. It has been found that this personal touch with the missionaries deepens the interest among the young people in their special field.

Programs.

The effort to provide programs for the Christian Endeavor topics assigned by the United Society of Christian Endeavor has been abundantly rewarded, there being double the number of programs sent out in August that there were in March. Supplies are sent free to those who apply.

Study Classes.

We would urge the forming of Mission Study Classes in every Christian Endeavor society. We believe that it is only through a knowledge of the mission fields that the great need will be borne in upon the hearts of our young people. When we know the facts, we can not help giving to spread the gospel of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ throughout the length and breadth of this fair land of ours.

A Suggestion.

At the last State Convention in New York, the following resolution was adopted: "Resolved, That the societies undertake at once the Porto Rico work, as recommended by the American Christian Missionary Society."

Will not other States adopt a like resolution, and join hands with us in helping to win Porto Rico for Christ and his church?

The Future.

We suggest that our young people strive for the same amount as last year, but with a determination that with the help of God they will realize it.

"Five thousand dollars from our Endeavorers for Porto Rico by Sept. 30, 1905," shall be our motto. We have no doubt this amount will be promptly and gladly given. If all of our societies will enter into this new work, we will go beyond the mark set and thus enable the Home Board to place more workers on this island, whre the need is so urgent.

May that part of the Christian Endeavor pledge which says, "I promise Him that I will strive to do whatever He would like to have me do," be the incentive to more and better work for Jesus in the home land during the year upon which we are now entering.

We believe this department for the presentation of Home Missions to our young people was never more needed than to-day and never more hopeful. But we need the hearty co-operation of all who believe that the work for and among the young people is one of the most important and rewarding forms of service. Will you help?

"Be not weary in well-doing, for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not."

Sarah Bird Dorman,
Sup't. Y. P. Dep't.

Our fourth enlargement is in the increase in

BOYS' AND GIRLS' RALLY DAY.

It has been felt that the presentation of Home Missions in the Sunday-schools is imperative. If we would have a truly home missionary church, we must begin presenting the claims of Home Missions in the Sunday-school—the church of to-morrow.

Boys' and Girls' Rally Day for America, the Lord's Day before Thanksgiving Day in November, is the day when all the Sunday-schools in the brotherhood are asked to consider the cause of winning America to Christ, our King.

It was earnestly desired that we reach $15,000 during the past year, but that amount has not been raised. However, there was a good increase in receipts, the gain over last year being $1,607.92. The number of contributing schools is 885, which is an increase of 199 over last year.

The growth of Boys' and Girls Rally Day for the past six years is as follows:

1900	2,778.87	1903	6,897.13
1901	3,674.54	1904	8,505.05

We continue the same motto, "Fifteen thousand dollars from our Sunday-schools for American Missions, November, 1904," and we feel sure there will be no difficulty in reaching this amount.

As 50 per cent. of the proceeds of Rally Day is returned to the State Board, whence it comes, the children are helping to spread the gospel and establish churches and Sunday-schools in their own States as well as in other parts of our home land.

A splendid exercise, "Columbia's Rally Day," has been prepared by J. Breckenridge Ellis, of Missouri. This is sent to the schools free of cost. It is hoped that many more schools will observe the day each year, until all our schools will feel that the year is not complete unless Boys' and Girls' Rally Day for America has been observed.

This is also Decision Day, when the children and young people in our schools are asked to decide to accept Jesus as their Saviour and crown him King in their hearts and lives. "Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth."

We earnestly solicit the hearty support of pastors, superintendents and teachers in the universal observance of this Rally Day.

The following supplies will be furnished, free of cost, to any school ordering:

Exercise, "Columbia's Rally Day," J. Breckenridge Ellis.
Individual Collection Boxes.
Collection Envelopes.
Copies "OUR HOME FIELD."

The American Christian Missionary Society is offering a splendid map of Palestine, handsomely printed in linen to any school pledging by vote to observe Boys' and Girls' Rally Day for America, annually, for five successive years.

This condition can be met by every school in the brotherhood, and we want every school to have one of these splendid maps.

Our fifth enlargement is in

OUR OFFICES.

We found ourselves overcrowded in the small space of our former office; we had a room with only one window. In this room were crowded our bookkeeper, three stenographers and three mailing clerks, and it was with difficulty that we did our work. In March the Board rented three rooms, on the south side of the same floor of the Y. M. C. A. Building, giving us plenty of room and an abundance of light. We now have more comfortable quarters for the work.

Our sixth enlargement is in

OUR MISSIONARY EDUCATIONAL WORK.

If the proverbial statement about the truthfulness of figures can be a criterion in our literature department, there is reason to be'ieve that the interest in Home Missions is rapidly rising in our churches. The increasing demand for the printed page, and for definite information about different parts of the work, leads us to believe that our young people, especially, are thinking more about the fields, their needs and our obligations to them.

Yet there are thousands of churches where our literature has not yet come; in too many it would not be welcome. But we are pressing forward year by year, not only trying to meet demands, but to create them, and we earnestly hope for the day when there will be a home missionary committee in each congregation to be eyes and ears to learn of the great home-field, and a voice to make these great facts known to the church.

By the courtesy of the Standard Publishing Co., we have published a booklet on "Scattered Disciples," being the articles published in the Standard by A. McLean and B. B. Tyler; with editorials showing what scattered disciples have done to establish the cause in their communities. We are sending this booklet far and wide to show others what they can do, and inspire them to lay the foundations of churches, even though it be "the church that is in the house."

We had printed 25,000 copies of the tract "Our Position," by Isaac Errett, and the same number of copies of the leaflet "The World's Need of the Christian Church," by J. H. Garrison, for free distribution at the World's Fair, as "bread cast upon the waters."

OUR PUBLICATIONS.

The AMERICAN HOME MISSIONARY has continued its regular monthly visits to our preachers and subscribers; it is winning its way into the hearts of our people.

DEAR BRO. SMITH:—The August number of the AMERICAN HOME MISSIONARY came to-day, and was eagerly devoured with a consuming relish. I actually read every word in it, and re-read with increased interest and profit Bro. Martin's masterly presentation of the money problem, in its important bearing upon our ultimate success. It should be printed in pamphlet form and distributed gratuitously, broadcast among all Christians. I am going to preach a sermon along that line. I realize that the trouble lies largely with the preacher. He should and must be an aggressive, broad-visioned leader, in order to achieve the greatest good to the cause. It will prove an eye-opener to many who are unconsciously reveling in luxury to an absolute disregard of the full measure of their obligation to God.

Then the thrillingly pathetic, yet wholesomely inspiring, graphic description of the continuous successes heroically wrought by Bros. Haddock and Stanley in Louisiana. This is a natural pronunciamento where normal conditions are restored by a sincere enunciation of the principles of primitive Christianity. These victories should fan into superb activity the latent energies and dormant powers of the entire brotherhood. These brethren may receive a meager reward here in petty remunerations and scant appreciations, but when they go sweeping through the gates into heaven with a rich harvest of golden sheaves, a crown of immortal life radiant with precious gems, all will be well then.

Georgia is just teeming with similar pregnant possibilities. Scores of prosperous cities and multitudes of thriving towns, where our great plea has never been heard, with patient, persistent, judicious efforts, would yield a marvelous harvest. Covington, with her twin sister Oxford, where we have twenty or more capable members and not an organization, and, so far as I know, never a sermon by our people. Newman, the third wealthiest city in the South to its population, and no organization. Hopeville, Gainsville, Monticello, and myriads of others where our plea is absolutely unknown. A wise evangelist with a good singer could create splendid organizations in these important centers every four to six weeks with a tent. I know from experience that it can be done. Then there is that vast Appalachian range that sweeps the borders of several of our States, in which can be found the best posterity of those sturdy Scotch-Irish aborigines. They are honest, thrifty and frugal, and withal overzealous in their defense of the faith of their fathers. This section is sparsely settled, and unfortunate in school and railroad facilities. Illiteracy among the white voters ranges from 10.1 to 23.7 per cent. In consideration of all these undeniable facts, our more favored brethren should rally to the call of your Board with a most liberal offering for this year. Instead of $200,000, you should have $300,000.

Bro. Martin, of Chicago, will begin our campaign in Rome on the fourth Sunday in August. We fondly anticipate a great meeting. He went to Sumter, S. C., with fourteen members and added 126. We are under lasting obligations to your Board for the appropriation of $100 to this meeting. We hope to report a hundred-fold harvest. ERNEST MOBLEY.

ROME, Ga., Aug. 17, 1904.

OUR HOME FIELD is an eight-page quarterly folio which we send to our preachers, teachers, elders and Christian Endeavor workers, at the nominal price of ten cents per year. It is full of home missionary matter, and we earnestly and heartily commend it.

The YEAR BOOK is published annually, giving the names and addresses of all our ministers; a list of evangelists; a list of singing evangelists; the list of our church papers; the list of colleges, the announcements of our missionary societies and other matters of general interest. It is the December number of the AMERICAN HOME MISSIONARY, and this alone is well worth the subscription price.

We have continued the publication of our home missionary leaflets, which a friend has described as rifle balls in effectiveness. The list is as follows:

OUR WORLD'S FAIR EXHIBIT.

There was inaugurated at the Detroit Convention a plan to build a pavilion at the World's Fair to show the work and plea of the Christian Church. You, who are attending this Convention, will doubtless visit that pavilion. We are the only religious people maintaining an exhibition on the World's Fair grounds.

The secular papers have made note of this work, commented favorably upon it, at the same time telling the public something of our brotherhood.

W. T. Moore spoke in the highest terms of it as a great opportunity and saying it would have richly repaid to have kept some well-known man there to talk to the multitudes who have visited the pavilion, telling of our own people and our work and aims.

The young ladies, Miss Jessie B. Nesbitt and Miss Mary E. Gowans, have done nobly in this line of work. Thousands of copies of Isaac Errett's booklet on "Our Position" and J. H. Garrison's booklet "The World's Need of the Christian Church," as well as much missionary literature, have been gratuitously distributed.

Many have learned of the existence and plea of our people for the first time. One, an Egyptian, has been very thoughtful and interested in his inquiries. After reading our literature, he sought an interview with Bro. John H. Brandt, and he expressed himself as convinced of the Scripturalness of our plea, and his determination to return to Egypt and plan a Christian Church. The American Christian Missionary Society is one of the contributors to that building. We hope every one will see our exhibit there. It was planned by Geo. B. Ranshaw, and we regard it as very creditable.

ENLARGEMENT OF OFFERINGS.

We gratefully acknowledge our helpers in this great work: the 1,976 churches that have made offerings; 885 Sunday-schools are enrolled as helping us this year; this is a growing list, and we hope to make the number 2,000 schools at an early date; 298 Christian Endeavor societies are our helpers this year, a gain of 101 over the previous record.

OUR CHURCH PAPERS.

We acknowledge again, and with renewed thanks, the continued help and support which our church papers are giving to this work—their columns have been freely open to us to present its claims upon the brotherhood.

We know that this is their work and duty—the building up of the cause of New Testament Christianity—they in their corner and we in ours, but we wish to gratefully acknowledge their help.

We wish to give grateful recognition to our individual givers. Thomas W. Phillips supported John A. Joyce in Western Pennsylvania as his own missionary, under our Board. Howard C. Rash supported Frank L. Van Vorhis in Weatherford, O. T. Mrs. S. M. Cooper supported J. O. Shelburne as missionary in Cincinnati. Hundreds of others came to our help, as the published list of contributors will show. We thank God for these friends of Home Missions.

Having lengthened our cords and strengthened our stakes, we expected to gain in results of work. Our expectations have not been disappointed.

Our greatest enlargement has been in the number of missionaries employed and in the results of their work.

The heroic pioneer missionary who has ever been conspicuous in our country's growth, is yet at the front.

You are represented in the newer States by noble men and women, who have entirely eliminated self and self-interest from their calculations, having no other desire than to build up the cause they love so well.

It is no uncommon thing to have missionaries put their last dollar into the upbuilding of the work under their care; men who work for meager salaries; walking from ten to twenty miles to meet their appointments. In sight of greener pastures, they as undershepherds "go to the desert and find their sheep." In sight of large churches and largely increased salaries, they prefer to work hard for low pay that they may plant the church in the needy mission fields.

May God bless and adequately reward our home missionaries. They are the truest heroes of the church to-day.

OUR MISSIONARIES.

The whole number of missionaries under appointment during the year exceeds that of any other year in our history, the total being 353 names; 123 of these were supported by appropriations from our treasury assisting the State Boards of Missions in thirty-two States. It is six times the number supported ten years ago.

Only those familiar with the details of correspondence and bookkeeping at the Mission Rooms can have any just conception of the amount of work involved in proper attention to this large missionary force, operating in thirty-five States and Territories.

LIST AND LABOR REPORTS OF MISSIONARIES.

(See Appendix.)

NEVER SO MUCH WITH SUCH LIMITED MEANS.

Not in the records of our work is to be found the record of so much work being done with such limited means.

The total shows that we have organized 165 churches last year, with only $76,144.80 of spendable money; assisted in the support of 353 home missionaries; these missionaries baptized 8,578 souls into Christ, received 8,283 others into the churches, making a total of 16,861 additions to our churches, a record for which we should be very grateful to our Lord.

The story of these earnest men and their work can only be briefly told.

OUR MISSIONARIES AND THEIR WORK.

On the beautiful Island of Prince Edward is our most northeastern mission. The church at Charlottetown, of which R. W. Stevenson is the missionary. His report is as follows:

R. W. Stevenson, Charlottetown, P. E. I.

"This is the capital of the Province, but we live and labor among a very conservative people—with strong and well-equipped churches having some of their ablest ministers in the Dominion of Canada. Besides this, the division which took place here some six years ago is not yet forgotten. Added to this we have a very heavy debt on the church, which makes the work difficult. Strangers do not care to face a debt of such magnitude. We have preached regularly during the past year. Our audiences have been good. We have had eight or nine additions; the work in the Sunday-school has been encouraging; we have paid the interest and $200 on the church debt. The church is very thankful for the help given by the American Christian Missionary Society. This help has made it possible to sustain the work in this important center of the Province. We trust that assistance may be forthcoming and as liberal as it is possible for the year to come. The church raised for all purposes over $1,000 last year."

Our most eastern mission is the church at Pictou, Nova Scotia. F. J. M. Appleman and wife are the devoted missionaries. It is the only immersionist church in that city. It is in the midst of the granite of a Scotch Calvinism, which can not understand why it was foreordained that we should be permitted to bear our testimony to a simple gospel with no creed but the one divine creed, "Jesus the Christ, the Son of God," and who are intolerant of our coming into that field. Bro. Appleman's report is:

F. J. M. Appleman, Pictou, N. S.

"By favor of the American Christian Missionary Society, Evangelist W. J. Wright held with us a three weeks' meeting immediately following the convention at this place one year ago. He was assisted by Miss Florence Robertson, singer. That such good preaching and singing should produce no more visible results (one confession and baptism), only shows how conservative is the field. However, there is but little doubt that patient and persistent labor will at last win the victory. It takes but a short season to produce a crop of buckwheat, but good, hard wheat must be wintered over. Great patience should be exercised toward the conservative East. If the West had no East on which to draw for recruits, her progress would be less rapid. If it were the West that furnished recruits for the East, their relative progress might be inverted. The reservoirs of springs far up the mountain-side may not be large, owing to the constant drain upon them, but if it were not for these same springs, the river in the valley would run dry. If the little church at Pictou could have retained all the members she has gained since her organization, she would now be self-supporting. Since we came two years ago, the church has lost about as much financial support by the removal of its members as she has gained by converts. But if we can not deepen the water in our reservoir, we can send a pure stream into the valley. Do not be discouraged with our slow growth, nor once think of neglecting us. It is our generosity that keeps our reservoir at low-water mark. If our brethren are wise, they will invest more and more in missions in the East.

"The whole number of our additions for the year is five, by confession and baptism. Meetings have been regularly held except on two Lord's Days, when I was away at conventions. The congregation has responded nobly to all appeals. We have raised $969.50 for all purposes.

"Have tried to exercise as much care as possible over the neighboring congregation of River John. Its condition is far from prosperous. Raised in that field $22 for missions—$11 for the M. C. M. S. and $11 for the A. C. M. S.

"The church here greatly appreciates the continued support of the American Board. That support is needed to keep the work growing."

R. E. Stevenson, Halifax, N. S.

We have a Sunday-school of about seventy, which maintained a fine interest and which more than paid its way, having raised over $90, a part of which it was able to give to the support of church work.

The interest in the cause has been sustained during the year in spite of many drawbacks. During the year we lost by death two of our older men and one elderly woman, all of whom were helpers in every way. We lost by removal two of our most active young men, one of whom—George Henry, a bright young man—is now in Lexington, Ky., studying for the ministry. Three whole families also left the city for other places; thus we have lost their presence and support. You can well imagine how we feel these depletions in our ranks, yet with the blessing of God the work goes forward.

In view of these things, you can see that we are not able to forego help from the Society. Our Maritime Society at the annual convention had planned to make a serious reduction in our grant, but at my earnest solicitation only reduced us $10, making our expected grant $80 for this year.

In the matter of baptisms this year, you will see that no progress was made, but five came to us from the Baptist Church. This is important to my mind. Our plea is commanding the attention of the religious people, and I believe we will win.

I take this opportunity of thanking the Society for timely and substantial aid given in the past, and shall content myself by letting the facts set forth, speak to you as to your future interest in us.

F. C. Ford, Montreal, Can.

The past year has been a trying one for the small but loyal band of Disciples in the city of Montreal. Owing to the severity of the winter and much sickness, our attendance and work were much hindered, but during the spring and summer the attendance improved.

We are only able to report two additions for the year—one by baptism and one from the Baptists. Our losses were five by removal from the city. By a hard struggle the church managed to meet all obligations, raising for all purposes $560.31.

The condition here is a critical one, and calls for prompt help from our brotherhood. A strong evangelistic effort must be made and our Church Extension Secretary should be urged to visit Montreal and help the church there to take steps to secure a church building.

Bro. W. S. Houchins takes charge of the work in October, and in order to insure success to his labor, the two suggestions just made should be attended to. Until efforts worthy of our great brotherhood are made, the progress will be very slow in this Roman Catholic city.

The mission church is thankful for the aid received from the American Christian Missionary Society, and will gladly work for the time when it will be self-supporting. The church can not raise more than they are raising at present, and are compelled to ask for the same grant for the coming year from the American Christian Missionary Society.

M. P. Hayden, Rat Portage, Ont.

Situated on the Lake of the Woods, on the Canadian Pacific Railway, near the western boundary of Ontario, Rat Portage mission church is the frontier out-station of our brotherhood in this part of the world. To the east we have no church for 250 miles; 100 miles to the south is the church in Burriss Colony, near Rainy River; 125 miles west is the church in Winnipeg; while to the north there is no church of Christians only between Rat Portage and the North Pole.

In a new country, and with our plea little known, this church is doing pioneer work for our cause, similar to the work done in Ohio Indiana and Kentucky three-fourths of a century ago. We have to contend against Romanism, with its traditions and assumptions; sectarianism, with its errors and opposition; and worldliness, with its indifference and temptations. With these conditions, progress so slow and difficult, but situated at the gateway of western Canada, the importance of maintaining our cause here can scarcely be overestimated, for we are fighting a battle for our cause for the country west of us, as well as for the region about us.

During the year ending August 31, there were eight baptisms. Our plea was brought before the Ministerial Association of the town in an address on "The Reunion of Christendom." The brave and faithful band of Disciples in Rat Portage needs the sympathy and help of the brotherhood to put our cause upon a firm and permanent basis. A house of worship is imperatively demanded in the near future. The continued aid of the American Christian Missionary Society to the work here is most earnestly requested.

Alex. McMillan, Winnipeg, Man.

The work in Winnipeg prospers. Our membership is now fifty-one, a gain of fifteen during the year. Resident membership is forty-three. The attendance at our meetings is increasing, and the general interest is deeper than at any previous time during our nearly two years of existence. Financially we have done very well, meeting all expenses and completing improvements on our property without any increase of debt. The Board of Church Extension has now taken our debt—$2,000—and we expect to meet payments to them promptly. Our property is worth $4,500. During the year we raised $40 for Foreign Missions, $42 for general Home Missions, and $18 for Church Extension, besides offerings for our western Canada missions. The Western Canada Convention will meet with us next July.

We have received aid during the year from the American Christian Missionary Society to the extent of $500.

J. H. Hardin, Evangelist in New England.

J. H. Hardin evangelized in New England under the joint support of this Society, the Christian Woman's Board of Missions, and the New England Missionary Society, spending full time from our last report to March 20, 1904. It was the intention of these three missionary organizations that Bro. Hardin should continue as permanent superintendent of their operations in New England, and he was duly elected to this position; but it becoming apparent to him that the state of his wife's health required his presence at home more than this work would permit, he reluctantly asked to be relieved, and retired from the field March 20 last. During the months he was engaged he held meetings at West Rupert and West Pawlett, Vt., Everett and Springfield, Mass., and Portland, Me.; assisted in a meeting at Brockton, Mass., and visited and helped to care for the churches at several other points. Before closing his work, he spent some time in securing funds from the New England churches for the support of their part of the work. During this time he delivered 127 sermons and addresses; had thirty-six additions, one of them being A. T. June, of Portland, Me., from the Congregational ministry; organized one congregation, and did all in his power to encourage and lead forward our weak and scattered churches in that needy field.

After leaving New England, Bro. Hardin spent from March 27 to July 1 in the employ of our Board, visiting churches, conventions, etc., in the interest of the May Offering. His labors were devoted to Kentucky, Illinois, Missouri and one point in Indiana. It is believed that this canvass was fruitful in helping to induce a number of our churches to support their own home missionaries, and in securing their full apportionments from many of the churches visited.

NEW YORK.

Joseph Keevil, Brooklyn.

John Lem. Keevil closed his work at the Humboldt Street Church, Oct. 4, 1903, and I accepted a call to this church at that time, but could not take up the work until the 28th of November, 1903.

During the past year we have met all our current expenses, paying the pastor every week. We have spent $50 on repairs on the church, and paid $400, the last payment of a $900 mortgage on the last lot bought. This reduces our total indebtedness to $1,550.

The church closes this year in peace. Our location, the Seventeenth Ward of Brooklyn, has a very large population—over 80,000 souls. There are at least 40,000 within walking distance from the church. Quite a large per cent. are Protestants.

To do the work before us, we must be especially aggressive along evangelistic lines, and to do this we need men to hold the meetings that would be impossible for the church herself to secure. I especially ask our Board to consider this and give us a very strong evangelist for a meeting, it being in our judgment the wisest and most inexpensive way to bring the church to self-support. Our present struggle to clear off the debt now on us, to make it possible to enlarge our building, we ask your help until we can accomplish the difficult task.

We thank you for the help in the past, hoping you will be able to continue it for a short time yet.

W. G. Oram, Brooklyn.

The Third Church of Christ, Brooklyn, N. Y., is located on Avenue "D" and E. Fifteenth Street, in a new and rapidly growing part of Brooklyn: only twenty-eight minutes from the New York end of Brooklyn Bridge and the business section of New York City.

Our new church building, now nearing completion, is near the center of a restricted section, ten blocks east and west, and six blocks north and south. The property restrictions are so severe that no inferior dwellings, livery-stables or saloons can be erected within these limits. It is built up almost entirely of detached houses of nearly a uniform type, ranging in price from $7,500 to $12,000, and are nearly all owned by the occupants, who, as a rule, are young business men having offices in New York.

This section also is very rapidly building up. On E. Fifteenth Street, the street on which our new building is located, forty-four new homes have been completed or are in process of construction since March 30, 1904, and 201 new homes were put up in those sixty blocks this year. It is a very pronounced Protestant section, there being very few Roman Catholic families or foreigners to be found. There is no religious prejudice against us, and certainly no field in the East or West offers such natural possibilities as this. The doors of opportunity are wide open.

Under the supervision of the American Christian Missionary Society, and the joint support of the American Christian Missionary Society, the New York Missionary Society and the City Evangelization Board of Greater New York, we began work in this field Nov. 1, 1903. On November 29, in a store building on Canarsie Lane, the Third Church of Christ, Brooklyn, was organized, with eighteen charter members. Since that date we have had ten additions.

It has never been my experience to work with a more earnest and self-sacrificing band of Christians, as you will somewhat understand from the fact that during the year we have raised from all sources—for local support (including support from missionary boards and for building purposes—about $3,459. And also from the fact that during the first year we have erected a new church building, costing about $6,000, which we are arranging to dedicate, with Benj. L. Smith as speaker, on October 2. We will then have a church property valued at $9,600, which would not have been possible had we not secured a $4,000 loan from the Church Extension Society.

You must realize what a great undertaking this is for twenty-eight members; but we dare not do anything small in this community. We should have $50,000 to put into a church building in this community, if we would do this work as it should be done. And all of this means that we must have increased support from the American Christian Missionary Society, the New York Christian Missionary Society and City Evangelization Board (the New York Christian Missionary Society having already increased its support for the coming year).

C. C. Crawford, Elmira.

We have had ten additions, still our membership is one less than last year. This is due to the fact that we have revised the list and cut off the names of some who were lost to the church. The membership now is 155.

I have preached eighty-eight sermons and delivered a number of addresses, and made about 400 pastoral calls. To baptize converts into a houseless church is like putting eggs into a bottomless basket; there is nothing to hold them. The same can be said of bringing new scholars into a houseless Sunday-school. You can not hold them. The Elmira brethren can see the force of that statement, as they have had eight years' experience with a houseless church and Sunday-school and know how difficult it is to secure and hold members in either. They are deserving of great credit for their untiring devotion to the cause they love, and now that a church building is in sight they have good reason to rejoice. Last November the trustees of the church took out a number of contracts with the Security Building Co., of Rochester. They are now ready to "anticipate the maturity" of these contracts and secure the money for the building. We expect to break ground in a few weeks. The plans are completed and will soon be in the hands of the contractors for bids. They provide for a complete outfit, auditorium, Sunday-school room, classrooms, prayer-meeting room, robing-rooms, dining-room and kitchen, and parsonage; all under one roof, and for a moderate sum. We hope to have the building enclosed before the cold weather, so that we can meet in the basement during the winter months. We expect to dedicate June 25, 1905, immediately after which we hope to have the pleasure of entertaining the convention of the New York Christian Missionary Society.

C. C. Waite, Upper Troy. The church now has a membership of 100. Fifteen have been added since the last report, twelve of these by baptism. The meeting held during the winter by the State evangelist helped the church in many ways, and resulted in a far more kindly attitude toward us on the part of the community. The year has been full of struggles and sacrifices, but progress has been steady. We believe the church has passed the experimental stage and now has an assured future. Many people outside of the membership give time and money to the work. The mother church has been generous with her aid.

Contributions by the church, $1,057.19; by the Bible-school, $153; by the C. E. Society, $78.36; total contributions for all purposes, $1,288.55.

The church appreciates the help of our brethren through our Board of Home Missions, and hopes to show her gratitude by soon becoming self-supporting.

M. H. Garrard, Rowland Street, Syracuse. Early in May of 1903, the Central Church of Christ procured the use of a chapel situated on Rowland Street, in which was organized a mission Sunday-school, Sunday, June 21, 1903, with an attendance of fifty-three, and within a few weeks the enrollment exceeded 100. So promising did the work seem, that the Central Church bought the property in September, 1903, and beginning Friday evening, September 18, services were conducted every Friday evening, by William D. Ryan, pastor of the Central Church.

The organization of the new church was effected Sunday evening, Apr. 24, 1904, the pastor and members of the Central Church joining in the services. The church was organized with twenty-six members, and up to the present date there have been six additions, making a total membership of thirty-two, and at present we have a very promising Sunday-school.

In July, 1904, a pastor was obtained, Bro. M. H. Garrard. Under his guidance we expect to push forward with new vigor towards the growth of God's kingdom on earth, in that part of the city.

NEW JERSEY.

Miner Lee Bates, East Orange. We can make no such dazzling report as that of last year. The first third of the year was spent in bitterest dissension, and the work had been practically at a standstill for six months before. We are again perfectly united. Seventeen have been added to our roll, seven of them by baptism. All financial obligations are being promptly met. Every one is optimistic. We believe the outlook for the coming year is much the most promising we have ever had.

WEST VIRGINIA.

G. Culberson, Chester. Began here November last; about twenty members, just barely organized. Little resource, but good prospects for enlargement. Was enabled to stay only by the help of the American Christian Missionary Society. Much of my time has been as a supply only, since I am still in school. Have preached regularly, except one month, two and three sermons each Lord's Day. Poor house facility; meeting from place to place, yet interest was undying, and we gained much prestige. Our membership now is forty-five, with some twenty more who will enlist when our church is complete. Have met all current expenses, and observed every "special day" except Children's Day. Have bought and paid for a church lot, and have a $2,000 house half finished outside. With the completion of the church, the enlistment of our "doubting brethren," and a good, rousing meeting this fall, our permanency and prestige will be positively settled.

I have done much outside work, of course, which does not properly appear here. In every way, I assure you, the investment here is a wholesome one. We have raised about $1,500 for all purposes during the year.

J. C. Reynolds, Evangelist of the Elkhorn District.

My instructions from the Board were: "First revive the old churches and get them in working shape." This, to a great measure, has been my work, and I have been blessed in the work beyond my expectations. Meetings have been held at Duhring, Ada, Willowton, Cedar Point, Pleasant Hill schoolhouse, New Zion (Baptist Church), Athens, Narrows, Welch, Goodwyn's Chapel, resulting in eighty-eight baptisms—106 additions in all. Amount of money collected on the field, $225. Organized two new churches—Cedar Point and Bramwell. Raised money to complete house and dedicated the same at Cedar Point. Have raised the money and paid for lot at Bramwell, and will begin building soon. Secured lot at Athens (the seat of one of our State normals). Have half the money raised and building has been begun. Will dedicate another new house of worship at Godfrey, fourth Sunday in October. Work has begun on a house of worship at Ada. Ada and Athens will be pushed to completion as fast as possible.

I have preached the gospel, raised money for district work, drawn my own church plans and helped to superintend the work, organized churches, reorganized the old ones, and for the first time in the history of the district we are getting uniformity and organization out of chaos. If time and means will permit, will take up Williamson during the year. All that we have been able to accomplish has been made possible by the American Christian Missionary Society coming to our aid and helping to maintain the evangelist in the field. I do not know of a more fruitful or needy field in America. Fifty new operations will start up in our field during the coming year. We must be in position to enter these new places and get in on the ground floor. We ask the American Christian Missionary Society to continue to stand by us and help us to take this field for Christ.

J. J. Tisdall, Morgantown.

This has been our most successful year. The church is in good, healthy condition. We acknowledge gladly that we have been taken as the special mission of the Washington (Pa.) Church, and are grateful for the interest they have shown in us.

The church is not wealthy, and we urgently plead for a continuance of your support. Three young law students have decided to go to Bethany and fit themselves for the ministry. Preaching to the students is like preaching to a procession; they pass on, the local congregation is not much strengthened, but they go everywhere preaching the Word.

Bruce Kershner, Colliers.

I began preaching for the congregation at Colliers, W. Va., in connection with that of Holliday's Cove in the same State, in December, 1903, and continued in that field until the close of the following June. My engagement with these congregations provided for one sermon at each every week, the morning and evening services alternating between the places.

When I entered upon the work I found in the congregation at Colliers a membership numbering thirty, and while there baptized one. They have a Bible-school with an enrollment of thirty-five. An auxiliary of the Christian Women's Board of Missions was organized some time in May. The membership of the congregation is enthusiastic, but the fact that many members live in the country interferes a great deal with the work. They have a nice house of worship, free from debt, and are in a condition to prosper. Their greatest need is that of a competent pastor who can do enough of personal work on the field to keep the members who can not regularly attend the services, in line with that of the congregation. This can be done by a student, if it is properly managed.

J. D. Hull, Parkersburg. By the grace of God, the consecration of the brethren and the help of the American Christian Missionary Society, we are enabled to make the best report since coming to Parkersburg. Notwithstanding the "anti-ism," long-standing difficulties, heavy church debt and poorly arranged house, we can report more additions to the church by fifty than last year. The church debt has been reduced and missionary offerings made. One hundred and ten persons have been received during the year, as follows: By confession and baptism, 56; by letters, 10; by statement, 26; reclaimed, 15; from the denominations, 3; total, 110. Sixty of this number came during the meeting held by Bro. H. F. Lutz.

At Friendly there were two confessions and two by statement in a two weeks' meeting in January. At Otto P. O., Roane County, during August vacation of five days, I baptized three persons, making five members in all at this place. During our two years' work here under the Home Board, 170 persons have been received, and over $1,000 paid on indebtedness.

P. P. Hasselvander, Martinsburg. My annual report for the year ending Aug. 31, 1904, is: I report 300 days. Lost in sickness and otherwise, about sixty-five; though I received my regular salary. We have had twenty-eight baptisms and four otherwise. We raised $659.57, including all money raised by the Sunday-school, C. W. B. M., congregation, etc. This is good for this people. We expect a strong congregation at Martinsburg in a few years. Everything is favorable. My work has been largely "new ground" work, but much of the seed sown has matured I have tried to make this church earnestly missionary.

EASTERN PENNSYLVANIA.

E. E. Cowperthwait, Wilkesbarre. Wilkesbarre is strategic, touching 250,000 souls in this valley by electric car. We came to this work in His name, determined by divine aid to plant the cause of primitive Christianity.

This city is dominated by Romanism. The Lutherans and Presbyterians are strong, the Methodists and the Episcopalians next. It is the hardest, most conservative field we ever entered. The moral and religious activities are at very low ebb. The denominations are more active in opposition to us than to Romanism. The masses, with any religious belief, have membership somewhere, and indifference and wickedness reign with the rest. The foreign mission field is at our door.

Owing to a mismanaged and badly located attempt to establish a work here and its failure in past years, we are regarded in the light of an experiment—this with a much scattered membership, a part of which can only attend one service on Lord's Day and pay car fare; some who support the work can not attend at all, because of distance and duties; some too poor to pay car fare. We are at great disadvantage.

Our place of worship—Y. M. C. A. lecture hall—is central, within one minute's walk of all cars; comfortable, modern conveniences, cheap of rent ($17 per month). Though well advertised, we fail to get the number of auditors desired. The congregations, with few exceptions, are virtually different at morning and evening services.

Perfect harmony prevails; as a whole, we never saw a better little congregation, specializing; a part are simply splendid. They have surpassed many older and doubly strong congregations in every way, particularly in missionary spirit. To God the praise, to these devoted ones the glory. Personally we have done our best under the conditions.

It will be a slow, expensive battle for a time to develop this work; every inch must be fought; we must demonstrate the fact we are here to stay. It will prove a wise investment for the cause in coming years.

The splendid work and church building of Plymouth, captained by Bro. L. O. Knipp, when finished, will give prestige to our cause. Bro. C. A. Frick's work at Westmoor, a neat, modern little church and parsonage, will also help. Both congregations are just across the river. We shall need your assistance and that of the State Board another year. My judgment is, stand by this young congregation, and you will not regret it in days to come.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

Chas. E. Smith, Charleston.

My labors here began May 1, 1904, before which it is impossible to get accurate information at present. Charleston people are very conservative, willing to hear, slow to act, but when won are very tenacious. Prior ill feelings caused considerable lethargy at first, but that has yielded nicely to treatment. The Bible-school has increased 25 per cent., church attendance 40 per cent., prayer-meetings often exceed half the membership, and an enthusiastic Y. P. S. C. E. has just been organized.

We have a neat church building, owing about $2,160 on house and lot; $460 in bills, due November 1st ($300 now in sight for this); $1,700 to Church Extension. We trust to pay November bills on time and begin repaying Church Extension next June. Current receipts average $85 and expense $82 per month. Membership increased from seventy-five to eighty-two—three baptisms, two reclaimed, two by transfer. We are few, but have the virility of youth; people all poor, but generally good givers—some absolutely heroic. Many remark the enterprise and friendliness of our church people. Interest in our meetings is growing.

We need a good, short evangelistic meeting to follow our State Convention here in November. Also the full support from the American Christian Missionary Society for just one more year. Surely then we can stand a regular reduction. If reduced before, our cause will be crippled here. Much sacrifice on the part of both minister and people maintains the cause. We thank our brethren for aid.

FLORIDA.

J. P. Rowlison, Tampa.

When I went to Tampa as your missionary, the membership there was forty enrolled when work was begun. Thirty-eight were added, letters granted to seven; net gain, thirty-one. Present enrollment, seventy-one.

A lot, costing $3,200, was purchased in July, 1893, the Extension Board paying $3,000. This lot is to be sold at once for $5,000. An option is held on a lot, 53 x 126, for $1,375, more desirable for church purposes than the one we have been using.

The church has promptly paid its quota on preacher's salary, $33.33 per month. Has paid $25 for Foreign Missions, $25 for Home Missions, and $25 for Florida Missions.

By request of your Board, the Tampa pastor was loaned for a meeting in July. St. Petersburg, Fla., was the place chosen for the meeting. For some years a feeble organization had been kept up there, having such preaching as they could get from winter tourists and other transient preachers. At the close of the meeting, $400 had been raised for pastor's salary, and a parsonage provided rent free. The State Board of Missions promised $100, and Bro. J. F. Montgomery, of Tampa, was called to the pastorate for full time. He is now on the field at work.

Our position in Tampa is assured, and plans are on foot for the erection of a neat chapel as soon as the sale of our present property is consummated. During August the pastor has made a tour through parts of Kentucky, Indiana and Ohio, which has resulted in interesting many in Tampa's building enterprise. It is hoped that a mission station may be opened in the Spanish-Cuban district of the city within a twelvemonth. To maintain such a station it would require $50, besides the necessary building. Tampa is rapidly growing, and we pray to be able to keep pace with her growth.

ALABAMA.

Claude E. Hill, Mobile.

I shall give you facts covering the whole period of my labor here beginning June, 1903, a period of one year and three months. Seventy-five persons have been added to the membership, twenty-three of whom were by confession of faith and baptism. Our total membership now is 112, almost all of whom are residents. The attendance upon the services is very good, except during the past months. We have a good Christian Endeavor society, with fifteen active members. Our Sunday-school has an enrollment of about one hundred; we began with eleven. We have a splendid ladies' aid society. Our prayer-meetings are good and are well attended. From the beginning our income has met all our expenses, and we were able to close our church year, June 1, with $300 in the treasury, which was made a part of our building fund.

We are becoming known in the city, and we hold the respect of all who know us. During my absence on my vacation the general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. preached each Sunday morning. Our greatest need is a suitable house of worship. Our chapel is small, unsuited to our needs, wholly out of keeping with the city, and does not properly represent us. We can never become self-supporting until we have a respectable house of worship. All our work and influence will be crippled and restricted until we build. Our people here realize this and are making heroic sacrifices in this direction. We have now in cash and good subscriptions $3,500. We need $2,500 more before we can begin our house. Just where it will come from we do not know, but we are working on and praying, and believe that somehow God will send it to us. Our people here are poor, but rich in faith and good works. It is a delight to work with them. We will grow rapidly and become a strong church if once we can get a good house of worship. And we believe this will come.

On behalf of the faithful ones in Mobile, faithful in every sense of the word, I wish to thank you and the Board for the generous help given, and to beg its continuance. Mobile is already a great city, and is rapidly developing. Now is our opportunity here, as in all the cities in the South. They are being re-born, and now is our time to strike. We have contributed to all our various missionary enterprises, and the little church in Mobile may always be counted upon to do its part in everything that looks to the extension of the kingdom of Christ. May the Lord abundantly bless you and all our workers.

GEORGIA.

R. Lin Cave, Atlanta. I am glad to say the work at West End Christian Church has been quite encouraging. The Sunday-school has more than doubled, the prayer-meetings have increased, and the Lord's Day services have grown a good deal in numbers and interest. Some sixty-five have been added to the church membership, and we have lost only six by removal. About forty of the additions came during a meeting held by my son, Robert Lord Cave, of Clarksville, Tenn. His ministry was of a high type, and did us great good in and out of the church. We have raised for all purposes $1,853.75, nearly twice the amount of former years. All the offerings for general church work have been taken. We are more and more co-operative and missionary in spirit, and the future is full of hope. Your Board and yourself have the grateful thanks of the church and myself for the generous aid given, and we bless God for his goodness to us all and will try to be more faithful.

LOUISIANA.

W. O. Stephens, Crowley. At Crowley we raised for our church debt, during this year, about $900, and kept all our current expenses notwithstanding the unprecedented hard times which have befallen the Rice Belt. I do not remember the number of additions, but a reference to my reports will show. I had a strong desire to remain at Crowley, at least until the first of January, for I believe I could have wiped out her entire indebtedness by that time. A church with $6,000 of property, free from debt and almost self-supporting, in three years' time, would not have been a bad record for Louisiana.

I consider the work at this place (Baton Rouge) the most difficult as well as the most important of all our efforts. The congregation, through its zeal, has plunged itself into an indebtedness of about $6,500, but they will have one of the most beautiful houses of worship in the State, and I have been told that if they desired to sell, they could do so at a profit. But we are not thinking of selling; we are going to bear our responsibilities like men, and solve our problems as they arise. We expect to have our house of worship completed by December 1, and then we are going to begin a steady advance "all along the line."

We beg from our Boards a continuation of the sympathetic and liberal spirit which has marked their attitude toward our efforts in the past, and we promise to do all within our power to continue to merit their confidence.

ARKANSAS.

C. W. Freeman, Eureka Springs. The church is in good condition. I served as missionary from Feb. 1 to Aug. 1, 1904. We had six additions during that time. We have a Sunday-school, and are trying hard to hold forth the Word of Life to the thousands of visitors as well as the residents of Eureka Springs.

TEXAS.

W. H. Drummet, Mineral Wells. There have been eighty additions since Sept. 1, 1903, about one-half of whom have moved away, and we were not fortunate enough to have material to fill their places. Our membership is now 135, but only about 100 can be counted on.

Our finance has been our burden, and is still an unsolved problem. To add to our problem, our seat notes changed hands, and the New York firm must have the money or the seats. Every spare dollar has been turned into that direction, even my salary for the past three months.

Our Sunday-school raised $116 up to Anniversary Day, April 26, and is now in a special effort to raise $150 more. We have collected on pledges about $800, $500 of which was paid on local indebtedness incurred on finishing the building and old accounts, and $350 paid on seats. To help the church meet these obligations, I have dated lectures for a dozen towns.

I have taken the Sunday-school to the cotton-field. I know this sounds a little like blue Elijah, but it's a condition, not a theory, this time. Whether I shall be able to rally them back in line, remains to be seen.

Just a word to the point: this church must be helped, or it will go under, and I for one propose to do my best, if I have to take the field and preach for nothing. This church is a monument of mercy and blessing to hundreds every year. The fight is on to save the morals of the town. She is on a boom in every direction. The Chatauqua and eight conventions will be here next year. The great lake is finished, and depot and hotels are going up and streetcar lines in prospect. Property has nearly doubled in value, and a great throug of people is looked for nevt year. This is but a modest forecast of possibilities.

E. M. Waits, El Paso. This year has brought us an abundant blessing from God's bounteous hand. When we came to El Paso fourteen months ago, we were working in a small chapel with a debt of $11,000. To-day finds us with the handsomest church property in the city, valued at $25,000, centrally located and destined to wield an extensive influence in the Southwest. We sold our old property for $18,000, paid our debts, and now have a house splendidly located and furnished with a debt of between $7,000 and $8,000, which we hope to provide for on dedication day and by old subscriptions falling due.

We have had no evangelistic effort. We have had fifty-seven additions during the year—fifteen by confession and baptism. Our missionary opportunities have been doubled, while we have a promising mission among the Mexicans, over which Bro. Martin presides.

Geo. Munro, Galveston. The church at Galveston, Tex., has had additions during this missionary year as follows: By letter, six; by statement, six; by baptism, two. There have been some losses by death, removal and lapsing, and at present the faithful, effective resident membership may be placed at seventy-five. By a freer count, a total of about ninety-five might be made out.

This year has been somewhat of a disappointment in respect to the number of people moving into the city. The sea wall is completed, but the grade raising is just commenced, and so people otherwise disposed to come here prefer to remain away until the unpleasantness connected with the grade raising is over. A large increase of population is confidently expected when the grade raising is finished. There is a very manifest hopefulness in regard to the future of Galveston. Facilities for handling commerce are being improved and enlarged continually. The Government is still spending money deepening and defending the harbor.

This church deserves great praise for its faithfulness and liberality. The amount undertaken for current expenses is large for the membership, considering their resources. The church raises its appropriation for Home and Foreign Missions; so does the Sunday-school; and both have responded to other calls. The auxiliary of the C. W. B. M. is flourishing. The Ladies' Aid Society is doing good work. The Christian Endeavor Society is doing good work. The Christian Endeavor Society never misses a meeting, and contributes regularly to the church.

During the year, excepting in the very hot months, there has been constant and energetic work in all departments. A Sunday-school rally contest was carried on for several months. Special services were held for one month.

On account of the grade raising, the church building will have to be raised next year, which will be a very expensive operation.

The church highly appreciates the assistance received from the American Christian Missionary Society, expresses its hearty thanks for the long-continued and generous support, solicits aid for the coming year, and prays the rich blessing of the Lord upon the officers of the Board.

S. K. Hallam, Denton.

I have spent eight months in the employ of the American Christian Missionary Society, at Denton, Tex., from Jan. 1 to Aug. 31, 1904. Have preached sixty times here in my regular work and five times at other points in the county. Have had twenty-one additions to the congregation, the last five of them by baptism. Have received on salary from my own congregation, $484.05, and from the American Christian Missionary Society, $75, and $15.50 missions. Have solicited and collected about $5,000 on our new church building, which will cost, completed, $10,000. Have superintended the work of building and purchased the material. This is a school town, with 1,000 to 1,500 students, and the encouragement given by your aid and the help of the Church Extension Board has enabled us to equip ourselves with the best house of worship in the city. We expect to dedicate free from debt, except amount owing our Extension Board, the last Lord's Day in October. The Lord bless you in your work for his glory. We are grateful for help received.

NEW MEXICO.

H. M. Bandy, Albuquerque.

Albuquerque is a city of 20,000 inhabitants; 7,000 of these are Mexicans; the remaining 13,000 are from every nation, the larger part from the older States. About one-third of the 13,000 are sick people: the people are coming and going all the time. This is a great sanitarium, and the opportunity of ministering to these people while they are ill, and have time and inclination to think about spiritual and eternal things, is very great. It is ministering to strangers: we can claim the promise, "I was sick, and ye visited me." It is like preaching to a procession and must be a work of faith. "Cast thy bread upon the waters; for thou shalt find it after many days."

We must furnish a church house for our sick brethren who come to this country. Our growth will be small, for the entire membership changes about every three years. These people feel that they are strangers and pilgrims, and are ill, and many have come at great expense and do not feel able to assume a heavy burden in supporting the church work. We can do a great work in presenting the plea for a simple New Testament faith to the floating population, many of whom, like those of old, may go everywhere preaching the Word. The good accomplished at Albuquerque can not be measured by visible results. We ask your prayers and a continuance of the support of our brethren in this work.

UTAH.

T. W. Pinkerton, Salt Lake City.

Mormonism, as shown by the pending Congressional investigation of Senator Smoot's right to a seat, maintains, through its leading representatives, a despotic hold upon its adherents, threatening with financial ruin and social ostracism any who leave its fold. The entire system is radically antagonistic to Christianity. The results of missionary work among the Mormons have not been large, yet some progress has been made, and, however difficult the work, both the dictate of Christian duty and Christian patriotism unite in demanding that large efforts should be made in evangelizing these people.

Bro. T. W. Pinkerton reports as follows:

"The church has met all its current financial obligations promptly, gave $128 to Foreign Missions, $120 to Home Missions, and has paid between $2,000 and $3,000 on its debt. The Sunday-school has given, during the year, $52 to Foreign Missions and $20 to Home Missions. The church, as a whole, is self-sacrificing and liberal. There have been thirty-four additions to the church during the year, a net gain of twenty-one.

"I despair of making the brotherhood understand conditions here. The denominations think it worth their while to put scores of men and women and thousands of dollars into this State, while we are content with one man and the expenditure of a few hundred. I tell you frankly that the policy is one of folly. This is not intended as a reflection upon the Board of Home Missions. They are powerless to do more.

"The church here in Salt Lake is grateful for all that has been done for them, and in testimony of their appreciation have responded to every call made upon them for our benevolences. If there is any place on earth where the pure gospel of Christ is needed, it is here in Utah. I have reason to believe that it is possible to establish the cause in several points in the State, if we have men and money.

"Before any large thing shall be accomplished here in Salt Lake City, we must have a better house. This is an old song, but there are no false notes in it."

OREGON.

N. H. Brooks, Pendleton.

The church at Pendleton, under the leadership of N. H. Brooks, has come to self-support. Pendleton is the commercial center of all Eastern Oregon, and a church there means a great deal for our people in the eastern part of the State. The church was helped to self-support by a splendid meeting held by S. M. Martin, which put it firmly upon its feet, and has given it an impetus which lasts to this day..

O. H. King, La Grande. Beside filling my home pulpit, I have preached regularly during the summer at two points seven and a half and nine miles out, and during the eleven months visited one point twenty-six miles and another thirty-six miles away.

We still owe the Church Extension Board $480 and a local bank about $190, but we are raising money among ourselves to pay out. The American Christian Missionary Society, the Church Extension Board and the Oregon Convention have stood by us grandly in our battle. April 1, 1900, our property was worth $335 net. Now we have the finest location in town and can seat 400 people in our chapel, which contains two large and three small rooms and a basement. Our property is worth $4,200.

La Grande is now the county-seat of Union County, and has 4,000 or more population. There are nine church houses and nineteen saloons. The Mormons are strong and have begun a $30,000 tabernacle. We could use a first-class evangelist six weeks, but with our debt and in the poverty of our members we dare not engage one now.

WASHINGTON.

L. F. Stephens and wife, Evangelists Report of work done in Washington, Idaho and Montana (mostly in Washington), from Sept. 1, 1903, to Sept. 1, 1904: Sermons preached, 278; churches built, 1; churches dedicated, 3; additions by confession and baptism, 197; by letter and statement, 100; total additions, 297. Amount of money raised for all purposes, about $4,500.

This report indicates what can be done in the great Northwest. "Truly the field is ripe unto the harvest." Now is the time to take this field for Christ. It is impossible to do the work that is ready to be done with the men and means in hand, while the faithful ministers are doing all they can; there ought to be as many more to fill the places that are calling for help, and the American Board ought to expend three times as much money in this field as is being spent. Shall we ignore these splendid opportunities, or will we rally to the call and firmly establish the work?

Ralph C. Sargent, Pullman. Began work Oct. 15, 1903, with ninety-seven members, in a building seating 175. Audiences filled, then crowded the house. Held my own meeting January 10 to February 10, with ninety-one additions. Total membership at present, 210; seventy out of 113 by baptism (about twenty of these were students). Have met current expenses promptly and raised in all departments about $158 for missionary work.

Our prospects are most flattering. The city's population is 2,500. The location of the State Agricultural College and School of Science at this point, with its Faculty of fifty-five and great equipment and endowment, adds a student body of 700. A steady growth and an intellectual atmosphere are assured. Last March lots were purchased more centrally located than the present, house plans prepared, excavation completed and work begun on the foundation of a $10,000 building. Four thousand dollars has been pledged to this and nearly one-half paid. A hopeful spirit of unity and enthusiasm possesses the church, which is composed almost wholly of poor people. Competent observers pronounce this the most important point in the Inland Empire, save Spokane.

J. W. Allen, Spokane. During the year ending August 31 we have had seventy-one additions to the church, nineteen of these by primary obedience. All these came at our regular Sunday services; we have held no protracted meeting. We have a Sunday-school with an average attendance of 200, a C. E. with thirty-five members, and a Junior C. E. with fifty members. We take the offerings for missions, Home and Foreign; observe Children's Day, Boys' and Girls' Rally Day, et. Present membership of church, 183. Outlook most encouraging.

W. L. McCollough, Clarkston. Clarkston is situated just across Snake River from Lewiston, Ida. Seven years ago the land on which Clarkston is situated was practically valueless, being sand and sagebrush, but having been put under an irrigation ditch, it now "blossoms as the rose" and is worth to-day $1,000 per acre. Although being located about four hundred miles from the ocean, we have an altitude of only 680 feet, making a climate that grows nearly all of the California fruits. This land is eagerly sought for permanent homes. Clarkston and Lewiston are destined to be one large city. The growth now is wonderful. Practically speaking, we had no church until a year and a half ago. At that time the brethren moved a small house, which had been built a mile and a half out of town, to a good central location, remodeled and enlarged it, and now we have a church property worth about $2,500. Have just paid $125 on the indebtedness of the property. We yet owe $175, which we expect to pay this fall. In this year and a half the membership has increased from about twenty to 100 members. Our members are not rich, but faithful and earnest. The financial burden is heavy on a few, but with the help of the Board we will make ends meet. We are working in perfect harmony and the future is very hopeful. Our Sunday-school numbers at present eighty, but will soon increase to more than 100; C. E. Society, thirty-five members; Junior C. E., thirty-five members. C. W. B. M. lately organized with five members. We are now preparing to observe Boys' and Girls' Rally Day. We have taken offerings for Foreign Missions, Home Missions, Church Extension, and State work; also Children's Day and the birthday box. Under existing circumstances we consider this report as creditable, but by the help of the brethren and the blessing of God we expect to make a better report next year.

O. J. Gist, Davenport. The church at Davenport is under the care of O. J. Gist. It has 136 members; a net gain of 30 during the year. The church is in harmony and peace, and is prosperous.

ARIZONA.

W. H. Bagby, Phoenix. We have assisted W. H. Bagby as minister of the church at Phœnix, Ariz., leading this little band toward self-support. The church at Phœnix bears a large burden in looking after the sick who resort there in large numbers. A year since they built a new meeting-house, and the cause is growing slowly but surely in that city.

Bro. Bagby has resigned, and his successor has not yet been found.

We should go to Prescott and assist the band of Disciples there. They are loyal and are patiently calling for help. It is a splendid opening for us if we were able to go to their assistance

CALIFORNIA.

P. C. Macfarlane, Alameda. Our one great need is a suitable building in which to preach, and house our Sunday-school. We are pressing toward this, and when next you journey coastward you will see it. Our word for you this year is a word of cheer. May God bless and encourage the work of the American Christian Missionary Society, its noble officers, and the great brotherhood which sustains it.

E. W. Darst, Berkeley. This has been a year of growth in all departments. Our missionary offerings have been small, owing to the financial strain of building. Our house is now being plastered, and we hope to dedicate on October 30. It will cost us about $13,000. We have about $3,000 to raise yet above our $5,000 Church Extension mortgage. It taxes our financial strength, but we will get it somehow. The prospects for our cause in Berkeley are bright, and we expect great things when we get into our church home.

I hope you may have a great Convention. We expect you here next year.

H. J. Loken, Richmond. Since the latter part of September, 1903, when I entered this field, the membership of the church has increased from twenty-three to seventy-six, a net increase of fifty-three. Nine of these, however, have either moved away or are away on visits, and have as yet not taken out their letters, leaving a total of sixty-three. There were in all thirteen baptisms. The rest of our additions are from other churches. Our Sunday-school has an enrollment of ninety scholars. Our average Sunday morning audience is from forty to fifty, and on Sunday evening 125 to 150. Our house of worship has a seating capacity of 150, and the entire church property is valued at $1,500. This is in brief the results of the year, as far as cold facts can show. But what is far more important, we have grown in spirit and capacity for work. We started a weak and despised little flock, and we have gained the respect of the best people in the community.

As for our needs, they are not many, but intense. We need a larger house of worship. We could easily increase our Sunday-school two or three times its present number if we had room to receive the children, and we are hampered very much because the classes are too closely huddled together. Moreover, our Sunday evening services could easily be one-third larger in attendance, if we had the room to seat the people. As it is, we are standing still until we can get a larger auditorium. Our people are, as a whole, poor and not able to raise the money required. We ask a continuance of your help.

R. N. Davis, Santa Cruz. The results of this year's work have not been all we had hoped, and we shall strive hard to get greater and better next year. The spirituality of the church is better than ever before. Harmony and love prevail. Conditions are most favorable for a forward move along all lines.

We have paid in three years $600, and interest on our church debt, leaving only $400, which amount we hope to raise in full this month. The church is not strong financially for its numbers, but is improving. After one more year we will be able to carry the work ourselves, as the debt will be out of the way. In the name of the church, I thank your Board most heartily for the timely help you have rendered.

OKLAHOMA.

W. H. Trainum, Alva. The church at Alva numbers 118 members. We have received thirty new members during the past year. The Christian Endeavor Society numbers twenty members; the Bible-school has an enrollment of 120. The church has a small indebtedness of $137. We raised, last year, for preaching, $377.16; for Foreign Missions, $5; for Home Missions, $7.40. Our church property is valued at $1,400. Alva is the location of the Territorial Normal School. We have a fine opportunity to meet the teachers of the State. Please help us.

C. H. White, Perry. The outlook in Oklahoma was never so bright. New church houses are going up all over the Territory and new congregations are being organized, and all this has been made possible largely through the aid of the Home Missionary Society. I found the work at Perry eighteen months ago in a very bad condition. Discouraged, disorganized, and building badly needing repairs. The condition now is better. Building in good repairs, finances systematized, and all departments in good condition. We observed all missionary offerings. We thank you very kindly for the help rendered. May God's richest blessings abundantly rest upon you and the work being done by the Home Missionary Society.

Jas. McIntire, Guthrie. As Living Link evangelist for eastern Oklahoma, my territory includes chiefly the counties of Logan, Lincoln, Pawnee and Payne. In these four counties there are thirty organizations, and also several groups where work is being done by ladies' aid societies and in union Sunday-schools. I have visited twenty-one churches, and kept in touch by correspondence with sixteen others.

I spent about one week with each of six churches, settling old difficulties and preparing for meetings. Eleven meetings have been held in my territory by other evangelists. My wife and I have held three meetings, baptizing thirty people, and receiving thirty-one others by letter and three from denominations. We organized the church at Potter with forty-six members. Helped to locate four ministers, each to divide his time between two churches. Four church buildings have been erected, largely through the inspiration of Cor. Sec. J. M. Monroe, and the faithfulness of a few members in the local field. Seven congregations expect to build during the coming year.

The greatest need in this field is to provide for preaching and pastoral work in the small town and country churches. Several men could find employment here on salaries of from $500 to $700 per year, and their labors would yield large results. We should not give less attention to the organization and building of new churches, but we should give a great deal more attention to feeding and caring for the churches we already have, "taking heed unto ourselves, and to all the flock, in the which the Holy Spirit hath made us bishops to feed the church of the Lord." Experience is teaching many Oklahoma churches the wisdom of Paul's words, "for it seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us," and in the selection of all their ministers, officers and evangelists, they are becoming more careful to choose "men of good report, full of the Spirit and of wisdom."

J. W. Hull, Graves. Perhaps one of the greatest needs of western Oklahoma is consecrated laborers. The saying of Jesus was perhaps never more applicable than here: "Say not ye there are yet four months, and then cometh harvest. Behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest. And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit [converts to Christ] unto life eternal" (John iv. 35, 36).

I have proven the above quotation. One year ago last April I came from Iowa to Thomas, O. T., where I held my first revival, but, owing to the inclement conditions of the weather, the meeting, which was held in a tent, was not a success in the ingathering of souls, but I "received wages," as Jesus said. But the meeting at Thomas was a stepping-stone to better or more ripe harvest-fields.

From Thomas I went to Custer City, where I found a "field white already to harvest," and there I pitched my tent and sounded forth the word of life

Though the elders did not see how a dollar could be pledged for the meeting, yet after I had preached a week they were able to raise me $15 per week for my services, and had in a five weeks' meeting an ingathering of fifty-five precious souls, proving again the precious words of Jesus.

When I came to the Territory there was not a dollar pledged for my support. But the watchful eye of Bro. J. M. Monroe saw I was in earnest and also in need, and he proved, as he always does, a friend and counselor.

H. T. Morrison, Lawton. The church at Lawton was started in the summer of 1901, during the opening of that part of Oklahoma for settlement, when, as yet, Lawton was only a city in tents. In the summer of 1903 T. T. Roberts held a meeting of two weeks, which resulted in nine additions to the church. From the close of this meeting to May 21, when the present pastor, H. T. Morrison, was called to serve the church, they were entirely without preaching and pastoral care. During the greater part of its existence this young organization, which started out with bright prospects, has had to contend with extreme difficulties within as well as those without, which have to be expected in a great new Western city such as Lawton.

The membership is now about 130. There have been some eighteen accessions to the membership during the present year. The Sunday-school and audiences have grown right along during the hot summer months. The church owns the best and most commodious house of worship in the city. All it lacks of completion is a set of pews, which will be arranged for this fall. The property as it now stands is worth not less than $4,500. They are in debt to the Church Extension Board $1,000. All that is now needed to make the church at Lawton one of the best in the Territory is a permanent pastorate and steady, straightforward pulling upon the part of those who compose the present membership.

F. D. Wharton, Newkirk As to conditions of our work in Newkirk, we are having a healthy growth; two years ago I could find but thirty-two members; we swelled the number last year to seventy-six; this year we have an enrollment of 104. Some of the most prominent professional men of our city have come to us from the denominations.

As to needs—we need one or more members of the National Home Board. I will suggest the Corresponding Secretary to make us a visit, and better acquaint our people with the desire, purpose and success of the National Home Board. We have the most willing people on earth, but they need missionary education in order to have missionary spirit and missionary zeal. We have had thirty-nine additions during the year, have raised $1,367 for all purposes, and are hopeful of the future.

R. S. Smedley, Oklahoma. The missionary year just past, commencing Sept. 1, 1903, and ending Aug. 31, 1904, has been freighted with consecration to the Master's service, work, great blessings and grand results.

We have worked in Dewey, Woodward, Blaine, Woods, Cleveland and Garfield Counties during the year. In Garfield and Blaine we have only looked after feeble congregations as an evangelist. In Dewey County we assisted the brethren to build three churches. In Woodward we organized four congregations and built two churches. In Cleveland County we planted two congregations. In Woods County we planted two congregations and built four churches. Summary during the year: Organized 8 congregations; built 9 churches; preached 217 times; added to the church 186—149 by statement and letter and 37 by baptism; have traveled 4,342 miles—3,260 with team and 1,082 by railroad.

My judgment, from actual experience in field work, is that the most efficient way to work is with a team and tent. The great possibilities for Oklahoma are undeveloped yet. Large areas of country are practically unworked. The work has been largely on railroads. New roads are building, with new towns which need attention.

The western half of Oklahoma is, practically speaking, an unworked field. We have brethren all through the country, and they are crying, "Come over and help us."

The needs of Oklahoma are, first, money in the hands of the Missionary Board, with which they can equip and pay workers. Second, experienced, consecrated men who think more of the Master and soul-saving than they do of dollars. Oklahoma for Christ and our plea means more money, and more consecrated workers organizing and caring for weak congregations and housing the disciples.

WYOMING.

W. W. Mower, Wyoming. Under the assistance of our Board of Home Missions, I labored ten months with the church at New Castle, and the region around about. During the year we organized one church; and maintained three mission stations. I preached 128 sermons and we had fifty-seven additions by baptism. I am hoping earnestly that the Board can come to the help of the work at Laramie; it needs help, oh, so much!

F. E. Blanchard, Sheridan. Following is a brief report of the work done here since Oct. 15, 1903: We arrived on this field, Oct. 17, 1903. We found the new church building nearing completion, and a heavy debt against the building and the church feeling discouraged. The first work, therefore, was the dedication of the building, and Bro. W. H. Harris, of Princeton, Ida., came to assist in the dedication. The dedication services were held on November 8, and Bro. Harris proved himself a master in the work.

There have been, in all, 46 additions to the church, as follows: By baptism, 12; from the denominations, 12; by letter and statement, 22; dismissed by letter, 3, and by withdrawal of fellowship, 1.

There has been raised on the field, $2,899.98, as follows: Pastor's salary, $638.40; incidental and other expenses, $473.59; on church building, $1,700.30; missionary offerings, $87.69. This does not include pledges that are unpaid nor does it include money collected on pledges made before the beginning of the present pastorate, of which there was considerable that has been collected during the year.

God has certainly blessed us in all good things, and to his name be all the praise. Before us we feel "there is opened up a door, great and effectual." Pray for us that we have faith to enter.

K. H. Sickafoose, Ten Sleep District My report for the year is not encouraging. Have preached regularly each Lord's Day, but under the most trying conditions of my life. It seems hard to get people to act, or take a stand for the right and truth. If the work could be sustained, I believe that a permanent work could be established at Ten Sleep and at Hyattville. We ask a continuance of your help.

IDAHO.

J. A. Pine, Lewiston. The church at Lewiston has been prosperous. Over 200 persons have been members, but on account of so many changes there are about 100 resident members. All departments of the work are in good condition. An addition was made to the building last year that was greatly needed. We now have a neat, up-to-date building in every way. We have a good foundation for a large church in the near future. Our people are heroic, persistent, liberal.

We are getting a stronger hold on the people of Lewiston every year. The people are generous, intelligent and ready to listen. It is a splendid investment of missionary funds to plant the Church of Christ in Lewiston for Lewiston's sake, as a natural center of almost every interest in that part of the State. It is a splendid investment because Lewiston Church is helping so much to establish the cause in Idaho. The recording secretary of the North Idaho Missionary Board said to the writer the other day, "The future success of the North Idaho missionary work depends largely on the spirit of leadership at Lewiston." There are no more deserving fields than Lewiston to receive help from the American Christian Missionary Society. They are struggling hard to self-support, and hope to become so in another year. They will make the last payment soon on the $500 loan from the Extension Board.

SOUTH DAKOTA.

E. A. Orr, Sioux Falls. The church at Sioux Falls numbers 123 members, but many of these are absent. The church is discouraged During the year I preached 103 sermons; we had eight additions. The field is a hard one, but by faithful work and prudent management the church can be established. .

MINNESOTA.

A. D. Harmon, St. Paul. The year has been one of signal success for the First Church, St. Paul. We erected our building at a cost of $23,000, and have a commodious, tasty home.

It is but fair to say that the work of this church could not have been done but for the initiating and sustaining counsel and support of the Home Board. When the Home Board began to help this work it was weak, poor, homeless and discouraged. It is now doing a sustained and aggressive work for primitive Christianity. We acknowledge our debt of gratitude to the Home Board, and both gladly and voluntarily relinquish her from further support.

Our efforts the past year have been spent, for the most part, on the new building, but aside from this we have received into our fellowship 32 members—10 by baptism, 21 by letter, 1 reclaimed. We begin a campaign for souls the first of October, with Bro. James Small as evangelist. We believe a great victory is now ours in St. Paul.

C. R. Neel, St. Paul. I have been with the Central Church about three months, and I am now just getting hold of things. The church as an organization is about five years old. One year ago they dedicated a building worth $8,000; with the land, is worth $10,000. There is $5,500 still unpaid; $3,000 borrowed from Church Extension.

We have about 70 members, 125 in Sunday-school, 35 in C. E., 45 Juniors. The church is not properly officered, but we hope to correct that soon. The field is a good one from the point of view of need.

Our State evangelist held a meeting just before I came, with twenty-four additions. Aside from this, the additions have been few the past few years.

We need what most churches need in our condition—workers and money.

Fred Kline, Minneapolis.

The Grand Avenue Church of Christ gladly submits the following report of its work and condition:

We are three years old, a child of the Home Missionary Society, and gratefully acknowledge the help received, without which this work would have been impossible.

Our present membership is 160. During the year we have received fifty new members. Our Sunday-school has 150 members, and is thoroughly equipped. We have a good Endeavor society, and are about to organize an Intermediate Endeavor from our Juniors.

We made liberal offerings to all our missions, as follows: Foreign Missions, $28; American Missions, $22.71; Minnesota State work, $32.06; Church Extension, $6.30; other benevolence, $14.17. We owe $1,600 on our building. Our prospects are bright.

A. J. Marshall, N. W. Minn. Evangelist.

A. Jay Marshall has been the special missionary of the Central Christian Church of Cincinnati. His work has covered a large district, and he has helped many bands of disciples, especially at Leaf River, Frazee, Batavia and Beimerville. There have been 37 additions by his labor of whom 12 were by baptism.

MICHIGAN.

J. Frank Green, Mt. Pleasant.

The following is an account of victories won on this field of battle:

The population is 5,000. Mt. Pleasant is an educational center. The Central State Normal is located here with 782 matriculates last year. Also, an Indian school, controlled by the Government; 300 students

Nine churches. As to membership the Catholics stand first, the Methodists second, and the Church of Christ third. We have a good building centrally located, worth $3,000. During the past year extensive improvements have been made on our property. We have also paid during the year more than $100 indebtedness, which had been contracted and left unpaid. We are so shaping affairs that a large payment may be made this fall to the Church Extension Board on its loan.

Since the 15th of November, 1903, there have been twenty-three additions to the membership. Two letters have been granted. All missionary offerings have been taken and all former records broken. An Endeavor society of forty members has been organized. It is alive and active. We have a good Sunday-school, not a large one; about fifty members. Average attendance at mid-week prayer-meeting, 25.

H. A. Buzzell, Battle Creek.

The following is the first report of the Grace Temple Institutional Church of Christ at Battle Creek, Mich., which came to us from the Baptist body during the year:

"Six years last March a few of us were organized, in God's name, as an independent Baptist church. Our struggle was without help from any missionary society. Our beginnings were marked with revival and sacrifice. In two years we dedicated the Temple, but not until last year was it fully equipped for modern institutional work.

"This past year we have quietly entered into fellowship with the Christian Churches, bringing with us the most practical church building in the city, valued at some $15,000, and a debt of only about $4,500, a membership of seventy, and a Sunday-school enrollment of over 300. We have experienced the glad joy of Christian sympathy and financial assistance; some twenty-five disciples of the city joined us in the new movement, and twenty-five followed the Lord into the baptismal water. Our hearts are filled with new hope, and the future is bright with promise. Surely God is giving us the victory. With many thanks we send our greetings to the National Convention, and pledge our hearty support of all the mission work of the churches. If we have found favor and are deemed worthy, $300 would be thankfully accepted toward our church expenses this coming year."

Special Missionary.

W. H. Kindred, now of Adrian, Mich., was the special missionary of the Ionia Church under our Board.

The report of my work under the Ionia Church and the American Christian Missionary Society, from July 12, 1903, to July 12, 1904: Meeting at Belding—Eighty-four added—53 baptisms; 112 added during the year there. Church completed. Fifteen hundred dollars debt.

St. John's—Nineteen days, 4 added—2 baptisms. Was stormed out in this meeting by winter weather.

Battle Creek—Eighty-four added—59 baptisms, 27 days.

Kalamazoo—Twenty-seven added—19 baptisms; 22 days.

Total accessions, 227. Received on salary, $650. Total sermons, 161. I ceased my labors at Belding and began as pastor here on July 10.

TENNESSEE.

J. W. Eastman, Cleveland.

I can not report as many additions as I should like, but the anti faction of the church has put in their time in actively neutralizing our work.

We are rapidly completing the repairs on the church and do not yet know the cost. But it is all guaranteed. We have built a baptistery, added a new roof, new paper, new carpet, and redressed woodwork, making the church very comfortable and permanent. Repairs will cost about $200. I gave $50 of my salary to help along.

W. M. Taylor, Chattanooga.

My work for the Home Board during the past year has been varied. Have held six meetings for weak, struggling congregations; canvassed in the interest of our Porto Rican missions; kept up correspondence with the workers on the field, thus helping them all I could, and served as missionary pastor of the Highland Park Church in Chattanooga. I have delivered 216 sermons and addresses, baptized 28 souls into Christ, and have received 34 into the fellowship by letter, statement and from denominations, making in all 62 additions. Have organized one new church and located two preachers.

Have done what I could in the face of the most intense opposition and cruel criticisms from our brethren, who, through a misunderstanding, oppose very bitterly the co-operation of the churches through the missionary societies. Besides this, every soul gained or church organized represents a most terrible conflict with those who are puffed up with denominational pride. Home Missions, in the South, is of necessity a pioneer work. However, about the only opposition among the denominations comes from the "clergy." The people in the pews are getting tired of sectarianism and are willing to hear us.

With proper equipment, most any one of our evangelists can enter any important town in the South, where we have no church, and establish one in a few weeks. Our brethren who have opposed so bitterly our co-operation through the medium of our missionary societies are beginning to see the paralyzing effect of the negative spirit upon their congregations, and reaction shall soon begin, and now our Home Board should employ the many preachers among us who are so well suited to work in our rural mission districts, but who for lack of support must labor with their hands. In this manner can be demonstrated Scriptural economy, and efficiency of the co-operation through the Home Board, by covering the field at their door which they have neglected so long, thus convincing them that their opposition is unfounded and putting them to shame for their neglect until they fall in line of duty. Then we shall have solved the problem of Christian unity among ourselves, and these wealthy, inactive churches will be enlisted for active service and liberal donations to all missions.

STUDENT VOLUNTEER MOVEMENT.

We united with the Kentucky State Board of Missions in supporting the volunteer movement among the students of the Bible College of Kentucky University, to go to the mountains of eastern Kentucky and evangelize. The results were 714 days' service; 778 sermons preached; 269 persons baptized, with 182 added otherwise, making a total of 451 added to the churches. Eighty-seven churches were helped by this campaign; and four churches were organized.

It is a great work, and we earnestly hope this volunteer movement for Home Missions will spread through all our colleges.

OUR WORK AMONG FOREIGN POPULATIONS.

Since the preparation of the above table nearly 4,000,000 foreigners have landed on our shores. The increase has been largely from Austria-Hungary, Italy and Russia, as appears from the last (at this writing) monthly bulletin published by the Government. This shows that of the 33,917 persons entering the United States as immigrants in February, 1904, 6,820 were from Austria-Hungary, 9,435 from Italy, and 7,009 from the Russian Empire—more than 68 per cent. of the entire immigration.

We have a small, hopeful work among the foreign populations, of which we are very proud.

OUR WORK AMONG THE GERMANS.

Wm. Kraft, Cleveland, O.

With the Ohio State Board of Missions, we are supporting Wm. Kraft as missionary among the Germans of Cleveland. His report is as follows:

"Birch Street Mission, Cleveland, O., has a membership of thirty-four, seventeen of these by baptism, the rest by letter or statement. During the season we were called to mourn the loss of a promising young brother. All the different departments of church work, the Bible-school, Christian Endeavor and prayer-meeting are in good working condition. The outlook for evangelistic effort this fall seems flattering, and we hope to accomplish such results as will please Him 'whose we are and whom we serve.' There is one thing we regret has kept us from placing the work on descending scale, as we had fondly hoped to be able to do. The backward spring has kept several of the workers from earning a livelihood, and minimized their ability to perform. Another drawback is in our Bible-school being in the afternoon, and the parks and other attractions prove a detriment to the attendance. We hope to be able to remedy these necessary evils ere long, and to do better work for the Master. We have labored conscientiously and tried hard to do the work assigned."

OUR SCANDINAVIAN WORK.

Our Scandinavian work is under the care of Julius Stone. His report is as follows:

CHIPPEWA FALLS, Wis., Sept. 8, 1904.

Dear Brother in Christ:—According to your request, I send the following for the Annual Report, covering time from January 1 to August 31: The Scandinavian field is comparatively a new and a very hard one. We have three churches with thirty-three members in good standing, of which Chippewa Falls has twenty-five, Seymour five and Eggan three.

There are several new points at which the work seems promising. At Woodville there is a large number of brethren who are baptized and have our faith, but are not organized. I have hope, however, of soon planting a church there. Since my engagement with the State Board I have visited Eggan, Seymour, Woodville, Glenwood, Wilson, Knapp, Hersey, Cider Falls, Menominee and Eau Claire, but giving most of my time to the work at Chippewa Falls Church. At Eau Claire we once had a church, but it disbanded several years ago. I am trying to revive the work there. This is a new field and a hard one as you know, but little has been done outside of Chippewa Falls before the National Board recognized our need and helped us.

The needs in the Scandinavian field are many. There are nearly as many Scandinavians in the United States as there are in the old countries. We have no literature to set forth our principles. It would do a great deal of good if we could have some of the tracts and other publications of our brethren translated into either Norwegian or Swedish. A small periodical would be a great help if we could only contrive to have one printed. We also need more faithful workers—men of sound principles and loyal to apostolic doctrine. May the Lord bless you in your work, may he open the eyes of our people to the greatness of our home mission fields.

Your brother in Christ, JULIUS STONE.

OUR MEXICAN WORK.

Our work among the Mexicans is doing very well, only it needs to be greatly enlarged. Ygnacio Quintero reports as follows:

Concerning the work of Bro. Quintero, Bro. Lee Adams reports:

"I desire to give you a report on Bro. Quintero's work here, but it's really a pretty hard undertaking. What I report is made up from my own knowledge, from what I see in the papers, and, of course, mostly from what Bro. Quintero reports to me himself. He says he has baptized fifty-two in a little over six months, all but five coming from the Roman Catholics, and has eight more candidates for baptism. A number of these were at Sabinal, and about twenty across in Old Mexico at a place called Fuente. He left at this place one of the members, Patricio Camacho, to preach for and hold the congregation together.

"He goes to Sabinal once a month, or tries to do so. He succeeded in building a good, cheap church house there, and had a lot given to them. This was mostly done by the members of the American church at that place. He held a camp-meeting there in July, and called to his assistance Bro. Filipo Jimenez, from Saltillo, Mex. Bro. Jimenez is a very able and capable man, I think from what I can learn, and has a nice little congregation at Saltilla, and preaches without any outside support whatever. He has among his members Prof. Jose McCardenas, principal of the State Normal School at Saltillo. Professor Cardenas has a son now teaching at Buffalo, N. Y.

"Quintero sends a great many papers to his friends over this country and Mexico, to all those places above mentioned, to El Paso, Laredo, San Marcos and California. I have seen a letter from Santa Barbara, Cal., where Candelario Castillo has organized a Mexican church with the assistance of the American church. Castillo is a friend of Quintero's, and Bro. Quintero sends him twenty-five papers each week. I saw a letter from the American Christian minister at El Paso, which said Quintero's paper had encouraged him to start the work among the Mexicans of his town. I saw later in the Christian Courier, of Dallas, that the Texas Board had undertaken the Mexican work at El Paso, I suppose from the interest of Bro. E. M. Waits, minister of the American church. Quintero also tells me that he has a friend in Mexico City who stands very high, and who at one time preached for the Episcopal Church, who has assured Quintero that any time he was ready to start the work in Mexico City he would be with him, and I think he said he would be glad to take the pulpit. Quintero's work has been very far-reaching, and I hope will produce much good. He says at least three places in Texas need missionaries very badly now—Sabinal, San Marcos and Laredo. The lamps and chairs are still in Laredo that Quintero paid for himself—$30. It might be interesting for you to know, too, that of the $10 his church contributed to the Home Board, $9 was his individual contribution.

"About his church here: I do not think it has grown in numbers quite as rapidly as it should, but perhaps that is because the members are not as faithful as they should be. He is, however, getting some very good young men about him. One, Eusibio Rias, who is now twenty-one, speaks good English and Spanish, has a fair education, is going to a business college, and has taught the public Mexican school at Sabinal; he is a very excellent young man. He supplies the pulpit here when Quintero goes to Sabinal sometimes. I think there ought to be a place provided for this young man as missionary among his people. I have known him about two years, and he is all right. I think if he could be sent to one of our colleges about two years, he could be put in a condition to do much good among his people. Could not this be announced?

"The Baptist missionary here, Bro. Quintero tells me, who has a mission on the same street with Quintero, has in three and one-half years baptized but two members—one man and one woman. Quintero says we need three missionaries in Texas very badly, and he thinks they should be Mexican. I think so, too, because they are very clannish. If one good, level-headed American, who was just and understood the Mexican character pretty well, could be put over the whole here at home, I think it would be a good idea, perhaps. Quintero tells me if these three additional men could be put at or near the points suggested, that he would try to hold a camp-meeting in the vicinity of each once a year, and he thought this would do much good."

Concerning Bro. Felipe Jimenez, Bro. Quintero writes:

"Bro. Felipe B. Jimenez, of Saltillo, Mexico, writes me and says his works in that beautiful capital are doing well; that he baptized four last month. Bro. Patricio Camacho, of Fuente, Mexico, writes me also and tells me that the work of the Christian Church there is also doing well under his care. To the mission at Sabinal I paid a two days' visit the beginning of the last month, and they are doing well, too. From Laredo, Gonzalez, San Marcos, and many other points, I am called every week to organize missions. The fact that the Christian Church is so rapidly being known among the Mexican people, and all this movement, is due to El Evangelista Christiano, my paper, for in it is found the choice of the New Testament and God's word, as it is with no earthly additions; besides (not that I praise myself), my willingness to push the propagation of the great work of redemption. I should say, if God grants and my purse justifies it, I will meet you at the Convention at St. Louis. I bid you good-by, praying God for abundant blessings for you. Amen."

OUR WORK IN THE CITIES.

For the last few years we have made earnest efforts to assist our brethren in the cities, to plant and nourish new churches. We are assisting in Portland, Me., and Portland, Ore.; in Brooklyn and Baltimore; in Philadelphia, Washington, Greater Pittsburg, Harrisburg, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago, St. Louis, St. Paul and Minneapolis, Seattle, San Francisco, Galveston, San Antonio, Dallas and Houston, New Orleans, Mobile, Tampa, Charleston, Atlanta and others.

This work is helped as city evangelization, and is producing results over which we may rejoice. Without the fostering help of the Home Board, this work could not be done; by this help we shall soon have additional self-supporting congregations in all these cities.

We should enter one hundred other cities. In Boston we have only one church; New York City is a vast field where every dollar of our income could be expended and hardly make an impression.

CHICAGO.

The following statement of Chicago work is made to cover the Illinois missionary year from Aug. 1, 1903, to July 31, 1904:

RECEIPTS.		EXPENDITURES.
From the A. C. M. S.....	$2,140.71	Salary Supplement	$2,007.75
Illinois C. W. B. M.	1,500.00	Missionary Service	1,066.16
Chicago Churches	864.39	Chicago Building Aid.....	860.10
Chicago Convocation	312.55	Rent and other Help	595.00
Personal Account	338.00	General Expense Acct.....	546.14
Total	$5,155.65	Amount	$5,075.15

Eight churches are assisted in the payment of pastor's salary, and four others have been supplemented in expense accounts. The following churches are receiving help: Blue Island, Chicago Heights, Douglas Park, Evanston, Garfield Boulevard, Harvey, Laflin Street, Logan Square, Northwest, South Chicago, South Side, West End.

Two churches have been organized during the year—one at the western limits of the city, known as "West End," and one at Logan Square, which is the continuation of Maplewood mission work removed to this new locality. Also a new work has been opened at Blue Island, with N. G. Buckley in charge.

Three churches—the Englewood, Jackson Boulevard and Metropolitan—and the Cook County Endeavor Union, have organized for "Living Link" work in Chicago, under the American Christian Missionary Society. It is the guaranty of permanent support for an equal number of good mission points.

Nine evangelistic meetings were held for mission churches receiving aid from this Society, which total a service of 187 days; 214 sermons; 102 conversions and 51 others—153 additions. The number of accessions resulting from organization and meetings, 229.

Evanston and Garfield Boulevard purchased property during the year valued respectively at $7,000 and $5,000. We now have eight churches of the mission class, which are serviceably housed.

The Chicago work has shown substantial growth in the last year, and compared with the statistical report for previous year, represents a gain of 385 in church membership, 14 in Sunday-school, 103 in Christian Endeavor, 74 in the Juniors. There is also an increase of two resident preachers and eight university students.

A. LARRABEE, Supt.

JULY 31, 1904

The church at Chicago Heights is the special mission of the church at Englewood, Chicago. Harry E. Tucker is their missionary. His report is as follows:

Harry E. Tucker, Chicago Heights,

"The field is one of exceptional advantages, as many of our people are seeing. The people here have never heard our plea, and so it is necessary to teach them and deal patiently with them. They love the Word and many are expressing themselves so. We have had nineteen additions all but one are either heads of families or out of their 'teens.' Considering our disadvantages, inasmuch as we have no building as the older churches here have, we are indeed a marvel to sectarianism. Many more would gladly affiliate themselves with us, but hesitate on the ground that as we have no building perhaps we will not be permanent; this is one great hindrance to the work here that we must soon overcome. We are fortunate, however, to be able to meet in the City Hall.

"Our people are having engendered into their lives the thought that while they are young in church work they must give to missions. We have given $119.50 to all missionary purposes this year. Brief summary: Calls, 356; sermons, 96; weddings, 6; funerals, 5. The work is more hopeful and a deeper interest manifested than ever before.

The church at Indiana Harbor is the special mission of the church at Valparaiso, Ind., of which J. H. O. Smith is pastor. The work was planted by Cecil J. Sharp, and afterward taken by A. L. Martin.

Cecil J. Sharp, Hammond, Ind. Our field is Indiana's share of Chicago. Twelve years ago this was comprised of about 6,000 people. Now, on account of the unusual commercial facilities, there are 40,000 in the four adjoining corporations of Hammond, Whiting, East Chicago and Indiana Harbor. Chicago's natural and most pronounced growth is southeast, following the great railroads east, the splendid harbor facilities of southern Lake Michigan, and the dock facilities of the Calumet River. Here, in a few years, is to be Indiana's largest city. The field is in nowise churched by any evangelical body. The only place open to the thousands of young people who come to work in the factories are the saloons. We need churches—institutional churches.

Since Aug 31, 1903, $1,500 has been raised in Hammond, the remainder of old debts paid, and seventy-nine added to the church. The church has been organized at Indiana Harbor with twenty members, building erected, and Bro. A. L. Martin and wife secured to take charge of the work. They have been at work since July 1, and are paving the way for a substantial and permanent work.

In the whole field in the past year there has been raised and expended $1,900 besides $300 expended by the National Home Board and $300 borrowed from the State Board, which latter was to assist in building. Indiana Harbor is a new town, two and one-half years old, with about 4,000 population, and we are practically the first organized evangelical body with a church home.

We yet have no church in Whiting, where there are 5,000 people and not one resident evangelical minister on the ground. Bro. Martin will hold a meeting in the town hall or tent there this fall. We have twenty or more members there now who will be organized into a church. East Chicago has 7,000 people with no Church of Christ, and only two small evangelical churches of any kind. We hope to have the church established in Whiting and be ready to enter East Chicago next year. These four adjoining cities are soon to be incorporated into one city. I have never seen a place where people were as responsive to the simple gospel as here. We need harvest hands.

A. L. Martin, Indiana Harbor, Ind. Since coming here on June 1, a Sunday-school of twenty-five has been opened, mid-week prayer-meeting started, and the work more thoroughly organized. We built a new building. Bro. T. J. Legg dedicated the building September 4. Raised about $450 in good pledges and cash. I also secured some $250 in cash and pledges. We owe, besides what has been pledged, about $300, which we can handle very nicely in time. In cash and pledges we have provided about $800, including funds raised prior to my coming here. There have been seven additions since June here and at Hammond, where I preach morning and evening during Bro. Sharp's vacation. The work looks more promising than heretofore.

G. E. Ireland, Carondelet, St. Louis. This church is still in its beginnings. Not having had the advantage of a strong and enthusiastic start, as when a company of members is detailed from a large congregation, its first years of existence have been a constant struggle upwards.

The location, in the south part of the city, is in a pleasant residential neighborhood. That it is desirable and even strategic (the only church of our brotherhood in a district of the city containing 50,000 people) is shown by the fact that recently the Methodist Centenary Fund donated about $3,000 to the M. E. Church, three blocks from us, to pay off their mortgage, and that a princely giver has just contributed $14,000 toward a $21,000 M. E. Church one block from us. St. Louis is eminently a Catholic city, and this part of it is emphatically so. The Lutherans, too, are very strong all around us. These large churches and the German element that prevails, necessarily make the field harder to cultivate.

Financially, our membership possesses unusually slender means. It is made up of wage-earners and the families of wage-earners, where wages have to be earned very largely by including Sunday labor. This tells on the spirituality, the attendance and the consequent progress. From a membership of forty three years ago, after including seventy additions and deducting many removals, we now number ninety. The past year's growth seems slower than usual: every department of work is affected by World's Fair influences.

Have lately succeeded, by the generous help of other brethren and by much giving out of our own impoverishment, in renovating and partly remodeling the building at a cost of about $1,000. It now presents a neat and attractive front, and within is very pleasant and convenient. The building is valued at about $4,000, on which there is still a mortgage of $2,000.

Although able to raise but small offerings, we are in sympathy with all our missionary enterprises, and aim to give to almost all of them. We are desirous of having the church deeply imbued with the missionary spirit in the days of its youth, so that when older and wealthier there shall be neither friction nor loss of time in introducing missionary effort; the spirit will always have been with the church.

The transient character of the population makes our work largely like "preaching to a procession." Working men, in various occupations, come for awhile under our influence—and are gone.

Although we can not be a "Living Link" with distant points by the annual gift of $300 or $500, we are linked to the mission field by having a mission of our own. Our "Sunday-school and Service" is held on Sunday afternoons in the offices of the Bellefontaine Car Sheds of the St. Louis Transit (street car) Company, which are kindly lent us for the purpose. The service comprises three-quarters of an hour Sunday-school and one-half an hour songs and "Sermonette." Shortly after this mission started it began to strengthen our home church.

We gratefully acknowledge liberal and continued assistance from the City Board, the State Board and the National Board.

G. A. Hoffmann,
St. Louis, Mo.

Our church at Maplewood has made quite an advance movement this year, both in additions and in building a new house of worship. Our members belong largely to that class who work for wages, live in the suburbs of the city, pay for homes on monthly installments, and are compelled to live economically. We have had fifty-four additions; raised, as report shows, $2,093.37 for church work, missions and building. Carried on a good Bible-school which raised $110 in addition to above church funds, while we continue to pay our church building pledges, of which $1,350 are still unpaid. We need the help of your Board to reap the promising harvest now in view.

Orilas G. White, Baltimore, Md. I succeeded Flournoy Payne, Nov. 15, 1904. I found forty-four members when I came here; one of our best workers died. Twenty-two have been added; membership now sixty-five. The Christian Endeavor Society has twenty active and four associate members. They are enthusiastic. They plan their meetings, and get results.

We began the morning school January 1 with thirty pupils. Nearly 100 have been enrolled, with seventy-two as the largest attendance. The school subscribed for twenty-five copies of the Standard.

The Women's Circle has done good work in managing the ground rent fund. Our financial burden has been very heavy. We pay $202.50 rent for the ground and $78 interest on debt on building. Other expenses are heavy, and the burden has been almost too great. According to our books, we have raised 50 per cent. more money than last year. We have not resorted to suppers or shows. This money was given direct. We have had seventy-three contributors, about fifty regular. Our financial secretary passes upon all bills, which are paid by the treasurer by check, when due, upon voucher of the financial secretary. A statement of account is posted every three months.

The board, consisting of seven deacons, meets every month, and conducts all business. Our services are orderly, by intention and plan. We know that God has blessed us, and are entering the new year with great expectation and hope. The church is united and happy. We wish to thank the Secretary and Board for their kindness and aid.

David Wetzel, Baltimore, Md. Having been in Baltimore only about four months, and those during the summer, when church work is almost at a standstill in the city, I can not report much advancement in the Fulton Avenue Christian Church. We have had but one baptism. Both before taking up the work and since, the church has been asked to grant a number of letters, but all to a disturbing element. I think that now we are down to bed-rock and can begin to build upon a firm foundation. We are planning for a vigorous campaign this fall. We are all hopeful that the work can be built up.

We are in the best field in the city. It is a new locality, where the majority are buying their own homes. The possibilities are unlimited. The needs are heart-rending. This, the sixth city in size in the United States, knows but little of the ideals of primitive Christianity, as taught by our people. Out of a population of 509,000, we have but five churches, and three of these are missions. The total membership does not number much more than a thousand.

Our membership is small—poor in this world's goods, but rich in faith and hope. We need and must have a continuance of your support. Give it to us for a few years until we establish ourselves, and we will more than return it with compound interest, and give you a good report of many souls saved.

J. O. Shelburne, Cincinnati, O. I give you below an outline of the work done by me, as city superintendent of missions, beginning Dec. 1, 1903, to Sept. 1, 1904, in the city of Cincinnati. The month of December was spent in a canvass of the churches in the interest of the work; I visited every church in the county.

Fairmount.—I commenced a meeting on January 3 (Sunday) at this place; the weather was something terrible, and continued so throughout the entire meeting; still, our audiences grew night after night until the house was filled, the first time in the history of the work. I visited nearly every home in the place. We had added to the list of saved seven. I preached twenty-five sermons. We have installed a pastor for all his time at this place, Bro. Sebastian.

Lockland.—Closed meeting at Fairmount on Sunday night, January 24, Commenced at Lockland on Monday, the 25th. From a small congregation the first night we soon grew to a house packed. I visited a great deal in this meeting. We had the largest average attendance in the history of the work at that place. We had seven added to the list of the saved. I preached twenty-nine sermons. This work was in a desperate condition. The pastor was about to leave the field, the salary being less than a living, and other troubles. I raised his salary $100, raised money to meet other debts, and more than enough to pay pastor's salary. This meeting saved this work.

Columbia.—I spent a week in canvassing the field at Columbia, to see what the outlook was at that place. I found about sixty members at and around Columbia. I think about thirty that would work in a meeting.

Carthage.—Commenced the first Sunday in March; continued over four Sundays. Largest congregations in the history of Bro. Fillmore's pastorate. We had more visible results. Bro. Fillmore, like Bro. Loucks at Lockland, was about to leave the field. We saved this work. We had thirty-six additions. I preached twenty-nine sermons in the church and six in shops.

Walnut Hills.—I commenced the first of April to look over this field. I made a house-to-house canvass. I found sixty members of the church north of Dexter Street; about forty of these were very anxious for a new work. I also found an old church, that could be obtained for five dollars a month for services.

Pleasant Ridge.—I spent about two weeks at this place, preaching in a hall. We have a Sunday-school of fifty members. I added to the church one member. It was my idea to organize this work, and so arranged, but for some reason the brethren decided not to do so just yet. I preached fourteen sermons.

Norwood.—I commenced at this place the last Sunday in May. We had a fine meeting; our congregation fine; it was very warm, still the people came and we had the results. I preached twenty-four sermons in the church and six out of the church, in shops, etc. We had twenty-two added to the list of saved. I understand that quite a number took membership after the meeting. I am told that the church is in a better condition than ever before.

Elmwood Place.—Commenced July 1. We used a tent for this work. Our congregations were good from the beginning. I think, if followed up, we will in time have a very good small work at this place. I preached thirty-eight sermons; 18 confessions, and added otherwise twenty-four. We had a charter roll of forty-two members.

Columbia.—Commenced August 14, with a tent. We had a large mob the first night. The boys liked to have made us throw up the sponge; still we held out, and succeeded in making them perform this part. We commenced to have converts from the first night, and have had them nearly every night, sometimes as high as ten in a service. I have preached eighteen sermons, and had forty-four confessions.

I hope you will find the report as near what you want as the work will justify. I have done my best; worked very hard. I want to thank the Board for its kindness to me in this matter.

J. M. Taylor, Washington, D. C. Our crying need at the H Street Church is a new building. With it, our work is an assured success; without it, it will of course be a failure. This report also includes sermons preached, additions received, etc., outside of this field, since the first day of January, 1904, to Aug. 31, 1904: Sermons preached, 137; additions by baptism, 47; by letter and statement, 54; total, 101; organized 1 church at Alexandria (per A. A. Rittenour, clerk); dedicated 2 churches.

Amounts contributed by the church from Jan. 1, 1904, to Aug. 31, 1904: For regular expenses, $683.45; for missionary purposes, $183.50; Building Fund, interest, etc., $251.41; total, $1,118.36. Amounts raised by Sunday-school, 263.85; by Ladies' Aid, $91.45; by C. W. B. M., $27.71; by C. E., $3.85; by C. E., Junior and Intermediate, $6.76; total, $393.62.

E. S. Muckley, Portland, Ore. I have been connected with the work here since Jan. 1, 1904. During this time the church has raised $1,400.36 for running expenses, besides keeping the interest at six per cent. paid on our $9,000 debt. There have been twelve baptisms, one of whom took fellowship with another congregation, three by statement and thirty-seven by letter. Special attention has been given to revising the church roll. Our membership is a little less than 400. Deducting non-resident members, it will be about 350. About fifty-five members of the First Church formed themselves into the new Central Church since January. We have a good, live, working congregation, including a good band of young people. The missionary offerings of this year have been large increases of former years.

Our church debt is a handicap. We have a $9,000 debt on a $15,000 building. But we are making the effort of our lives to get $4,000 of this debt paid by 1905, to enable us to get the $5,000 appropriated by the Extension Board. We hope to succeed. Beginning with 1905, we will be self-supporting. The work all round is promising.

H. J. Kirschstein is the missionary supported by the George Bates Memorial Fund. His work is in Omaha, Neb. His report is as follows:

H. J. Kirschstein, Omaha, Neb. Up to August 31 I have been with the North Side Church eight months, and prospects for a good congregation in this part of our city are growing brighter. During these eight months there have been seventeen additions and the church—including all departments—has raised in cash $785.20. From January 1 to April 1 I preached Sunday afternoons at Irvington, a suburb of Omaha, and am expected to take up that work again in October.

Aside from carrying on the regular church work, there are three things we are striving to do: 1. To place the church on, what I call, a paying basis. 2. To pay up all our old debts. 3. To secure a new location and church home. If we, as a people, are to be heard and respected in Omaha, we must get out of our present location. We will close a deal for two good lots October 1, and hope to pay for them this year.

In the following cities, each having 100,000 inhabitants by the census of 1900, we have no congregation: Fall River, Mass.; Jersey City, N. J.; New Haven, Conn.; Paterson, N. J.; Providence, R. I.

List of cities between 40,000 and 100,000 inhabitants where we have no congregations that are simply Christian: Albany, N. Y.; Cambridge, Mass.; Camden, N. J.; Elizabeth, N. J.; Hartford, Conn.; Hoboken, N. J.; Holyoke, Mass.; Lawrence, Mass.; Lowell, Mass.; Lynn, Mass.; Manchester, N. H.; New Bedford, Mass.; Somerville, Mass.; Trenton, N. J.; Utica, N. Y.; Waterbury. Conn.; Wilmington, Del.; Yonkers, N. Y.

There is a vast field for city evangelization, and we must remember that we have not evangelized any one city in the whole land. Only in Des Moines, Ia., and in Kansas City, Mo., can we be said to have a predominant place.

In Chicago there is room for 300 churches; we have but twenty-five, and these are small and weak, and half of them struggling for their lives.

"And he beheld the city and wept over it."

PORTO RICO.

Shortly after the National Convention last year, E. M. Pardee and wife sailed for Porto Rico to engage in mission work there, taking up the work that W. M. Taylor, on account of ill health, had been compelled to lay down.

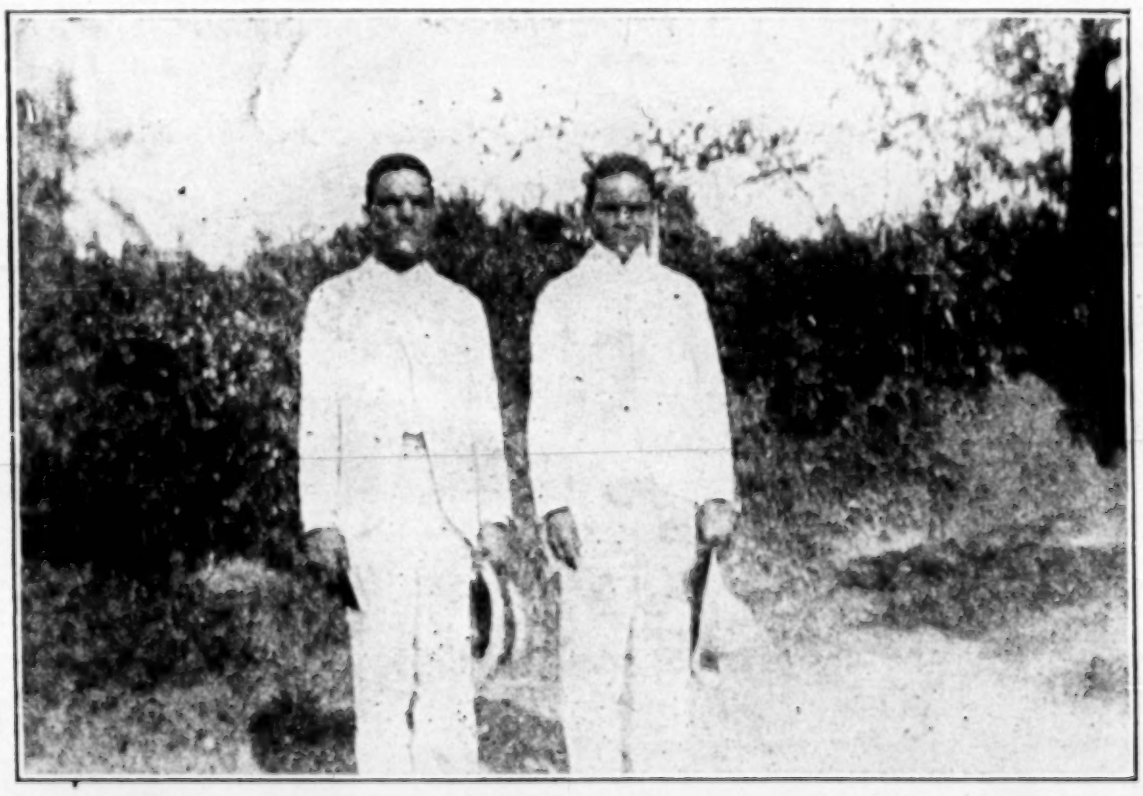
DR. W. A. ALTON.

Acquiring the language has taken much of Bro. Pardee's time. But notwithstanding this drawback, he has, with the aid of the native helpers, been able to accomplish great good on the island. Many souls have been won to Christ through his efforts, and to-day the work there is in excellent condition.

Owing to the urgent demand for workers, Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Alton, of Elmwood, Neb., will sail for Porto Rico immediately after this Convention. With this increase in force, we shall hope for even greater results at the close of this, our new missionary year.

Dr. Alton has already begun his campaign for Porto Rico by presenting the cause to the Endeavorers of Nebraska. He has succeeded in enlisting their sympathies, and has secured pledges to be paid within the next year.

During the past twelve months, we have lost two of our noblest and most self-sacrificing native helpers, the twin brothers, Jose and Jacinto Matias.



JOSE AND JACINTO MATIAS.

This is a great loss to our work, but we believe that He doeth all things well, and we bow in submission, saying, "Thy will be done."

The native helpers now aiding Bro. Pardee in his labors on the island are Manuel Lebron, Maximiliano Ramos, Eladio Belfort and Ramon Sosa. Mission stations are located in San Juan, Bayamon, Mayaguez, Candelaria, Gutierres, Toa Baja and Comorio. Another, recently added to the corps of workers, is Sister Damasa Cintron, of Bayamon, who is employed in visiting the women and children in their homes.

The Porto Rico Mission is one of the most important in the home land. These people are willing, yea, anxious, to accept the blessings of the gospel when presented to them intelligently. Here we find one of the most productive fields occupying the attention of the Home Board. The need is very great, both of workers and of money.

In a recent letter Bro. Pardee says: "We came very near losing the towns of Toa Baja and Dorado by not having any one to put in those places, for the Methodist Episcopalians wanted to open missions in those places, and would have done so if we had not decided positively to locate Bro. Ramos in Toa Baja and allow him to work Dorado also. The Methodist Episcopalians were courteous, at least, in giving us the field, if we would take it. So Bro. Ramos and I went to Toa Baja, and found a good house, well located, for $17 per month. This I contracted for from Sept. 1 to Feb. 28, 1905, believing that at the end of that time I could secure as good a house for $12 or $15 per month. This can be seated and arranged for services for about $50, with the exception of a baptistery, which can be made for $30. I shall spend a week with Bro. Ramos at Toa Baja, opening up the work in as good a condition as possible. I have on hand enough money to move Bro. Ramos and family, purchase seats and get the mission started, but not enough to make a baptistery.

E. M. PARDEE.

"One thing which, we all agree, means more to our Spanish work than anything else that 'ever came our way,' is the conversion of Francisco Castra, of Humacao. I have often heard of the wonderful results he has been having, and if he could only be retained in Porto Rico, he would accomplish five times what Dr. Alton and I can. Bro. Erwin agrees with me in this statement. Can we not beg his concession? While he desires to return to Cuba to teach in a college, yet we can not afford to lose such a man from our forces, even though it means sending me back to the States. If he could not be persuaded to live here permanently, do you not think he might remain long enough to spend a month with each of our missions 'toning' them up, and instructing them more perfectly, and acting as general missionary? You perhaps know that he had an offer of $1,000 to preach for the Baptists in Cuba, but refused because of their close communion, preferring to come to Porto Rico on $800

"Shall we not heed the Macedonian cry, and with hearts eager to do the Master's will, say, 'Here am I, send me'? Or not being able to go, shall we be willing to contribute largely of our means to enable others to go?

"With gratitude for the blessings of the past year, and with great hope for the future, we lay hold of the promise and press forward."

Thus far your Superintendent has busied himself principally in learning the language and in becoming acquainted with the work. I am now preaching regularly every Lord's Day morning in Spanish, having preached thirteen sermons in the past six months. I have visited each of our missions and am perfecting plans of work for each place.

The work is hopeful because it is the Lord's work. Suitable buildings attractively furnished and well-directed effort will bring large results. These conditions are prevailing in the majority of our missions, and during the coming year, with the hearty co-operation of the American Christian Missionary Society we can make it possible to do much more effective work in the remainder of our missions.

May the Lord give us grace to pray and to labor for large results during the year before us, is our earnest prayer.

Very fraternally yours,

E. M. PARDEE.

OUR GENERAL EVANGELISTS.

John A. Stevens has served as general evangelist in the Southwest, under support of our Board. His wife has assisted him in the music and otherwise. His report is as follows:

John A. Stevens, and wife, Genl. Evangelists.

With pleasure I send you our report for this year. Seven out of the thirteen places visited were preacherless and dead, and five of them have no organization at all. One more organization will be effected before the General Convention. The East Dallas Christian Church, organized by the writer last November, under the direction of the American Christian Missionary Society, became a Living Link church and selected the writer as its Living Link evangelist, and his wife as a co-helper. In other words, in our work this year a living church has been organized which took up the entire burden of our supplemental salary on the first of May and made the Southwestern evangelist of the American Christian Missionary Society self-supporting in his own field. Aside from the $236.90 paid by the American Christian Missionary Society before the East Dallas Church became a Living Link church, May 1, 1904, the American Christian Missionary Society has been to no expense in reaching the results reported below. The Acting Board has simply taken $236.90 of the Evangelistic Fund and added to it the wise management of the Board and reached the results reported below.

I only mention this to show the value of the experienced judgment of the Board. Every dollar that the American Christian Missionary Society has paid us this year has gone forth and hunted up and turned over to the Lord's cause, sixty-one other dollars. I think that 6,100 per cent. interest would be as much as any contributor should expect his money to bring in any one year. Nine chances to one, there will be a dozen other reports that will duplicate or excel this one:

Days' service	365
Sermons preached	353
Baptisms secured	137
Accessions by letter	10
Other accessions secured	175
Total accessions from all sources	322
Churches organized (Dallas, New Orleans and Collinsville and Center Point, Tex.)	4
Houses built or purchased (Dallas, New Orleans and Cooper, Tex.)	3
Value of property purchased and secured	$12,100.00
Amount raised outside of salary and buildings	1,233.00
Amount received in the field on salary	996.00
Total amount raised for all purposes during year	14,329.00

Sunday-school and Y. P. S. C. E. work is hard to report, and we will let that go in unreported.

O. P. Spiegel has served since April as general evangelist in the South. Mrs. Spiegel is his helper in music and otherwise. His report is a note of triumph:

O. P. Spiegel, Gen. Evangelist.

Our evangelists have been more successful this year throughout the South than ever before. I began as your evangelist April 1. April 1 to September 15, five and one-half months, I am able to report the following results: Sermons, 258; baptisms, 103; from other bodies, 43, or a total increase of 146. This has been done at a cost to the Home Board of about $250. Mrs. Spiegel is my musician and personal worker.

Our greatest need: It is impossible, at nearly every destitute place, to secure an adequate place in which to hold a great meeting. The few isolated Disciples living in the place do not feel able to build a suitable tabernacle. A tent can be used in our territory the entire year. It is much cooler, and hundreds of good people will attend services at a tent who never attend church anywhere. I therefore plead with the brotherhood to furnish, through the American Christian Missionary Society, a gospel tent that will seat from 1,000 to 2,000 people for this Southern work. This will cost but little and will enable us to go into the larger destitute centers of the great and needy South when we please, and remain as long as the needs of the work demand. May the Disciples of Christ give liberally, plan wisely, and execute courageously.

W. J. Wright has continued his faithful work as Superintendent of Missions in the East. His report is:

Wm. J. Wright, Washington, D. C. Gen. Evangelist.

I move about in the territory north and east of the Potomac River. This five per cent. of our territory contains about 30 per cent. of the American population, and is the section in which the Disciples are weakest numerically and in percentages. In one of the States in this territory we still are without an organization, in two others we have but one church each, and two churches each in two others. In more than a thousand incorporated places, some of them great cities, we are as yet without organizations. With a view to organizing churches in them, I visited and considered the following large places in New Jersey: Newark, Jersey City, Atlantic City, Passaic, Paterson, Hoboken, Elizabeth, Camden and Trenton; in Delaware, Wilmington and Newark, besides smaller places and great cities in which we already have a footing. With reasonable effort, churches can be organized in all these places, some brethren being in nearly all.

We began work in the following new places during the year: Wilkesbarre, Harrisburg and Waynesboro, Pa.; Plainfield, N. J.; Flatbush, Brooklyn, N. Y.; H Street, Washington, D. C., and in Baltimore and Washington two more are about ready for men. Of missions not assisted by the American Christian Missionary Society, I visited and helped Dunmore and Berwick, Pa., and Dunkirk and Fredonia, N. Y.

Nine weeks of the year I spent in canvassing for funds for our work, most of this work being in Indiana. I attended twenty-nine conventions and represented the American Christian Missionary Society at all, and in the same interest addressed many local "rallies," held 5 meetings, organized 1 church, reorganized another, revived an almost dead one, conducted 3 dedications, spoke in 23 prominent churches aside from my canvass, located 20 preachers and brought one preacher into fellowship with our brotherhood. Of course, there is a vast amount of work which it is impossible to tabulate and report.

After eight years in this field I but begin to know it and its almost limitless possibilities. Opportunities are almost everywhere present, but we lack both money and men to accept them. O God! when will our brethren learn that the silver and gold are thine? and when will they understand the meaning of Christian stewardship? When will our young men come in the needed thousands to consecrate themselves to the ministry, the highest work on earth? When will they act out what they sing:

"My heart, my life, my all, I bring,
To thee, my Saviour and my King."

WORK OF STATE BOARDS OF MISSIONS.

Our various State Boards have reported concerning their work and condition as follows:

ALABAMA.

The past year has been a successful one. Many doors are open to us, but for want of men and money we can enter but few. We expect the best convention ever held in Alabama, at Oxford, in November, and will plan large things for 1905. We need as much as anything else a good school, Christian school, I mean, in Alabama, that our young men may be educated and trained for the ministry. We need more preachers.

E. E. LINTHICUM, Cor. Sec.

ARKANSAS.

Our missionaries have done work amounting to 4,047 days, a little over eleven years; preaching 1,906 sermons; baptizing 349 penitent believers; receiving 345 others by letter or otherwise, a total of 795 additions to our congregations. We have, by your help, assisted fourteen missionaries during the year. Seven new congregations have been organized.

We need increased help to do the growing work. The greater part of mission funds has been used, and must be used for some time to come to supplement the salaries of pastors in important centers. It may be noticed also that church organization and building keep pace with the work—are a part of the work.

Pray for us, and receive for yourselves and the cause so near our hearts, our prayers and our warmest love. E. C. BROWNING, Cor. Sec.

CALIFORNIA, NORTHERN.

We have grown in every good way; but we face larger opportunities than ever before. Everything points to unusual development on this coast. We must push the city work. Alameda, Berkeley and Richmond should become self-supporting by the end of 1905. We hope the two San Francisco missions will be self-supporting by the end of 1906. Both are now building, and we hope will be organized by the end of 1904. No other large city is growing as rapidly. We have no church in Nevada. About twenty members at Reno, the State Capital. We will send a missionary there October 1. With $600 for one year to back a good man there, we could have a church and have it housed.

We gained the last year in Northern California: In members, 13 per cent.; in baptisms, 47 per cent.; in offerings for State Missions, 60 per cent. This is a most profitable field.

Our needs for 1905 are: Alameda (on Bay), $200; Berkeley (on Bay), $250; Richmond (on Bay), $300; Tenth Avenue, San Francisco, $300; Twenty-fourth Street, San Francisco, $300; Reno, Nev., $600; total, $1,950. All but the last item is in Greater San Francisco.

J. P. DARGITZ, Cor. Sec.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA.

The membership in our churches increased about 1,500 last year, making now 8,220. During the year seven new churches were organized, making forty-eight on our roll. The energy of our State Missionary Society is largely expended in assisting weak congregations in maintaining pastors, and thus enabling churches to keep their work going all the time. We have employed for all or part time twenty-four men in as many places. These missionaries have developed the strength of these churches in many ways aside from 174 baptisms, and 241 additions otherwise.

It is the policy of the Board to decrease the amount appropriated gradually until the mission becomes self-sustaining. Four of these churches entered the list of self-supporting congregations this year. In doing this work, we have raised and expended $2,500 on the field, besides the $700 given by the American Christian Missionary Society and $200 by the C. W. B. M.

The rapid influx of people to Southern California and the consequent growth of our cities and communities; the reaching out of electric lines and the development of new sections of the country, call for considerable capital, and great enterprise on the part of the church in order to keep pace with the march of events. Our Southern metropolis is having a marvelous growth. There are no less than ten growing municipalities where our work should be planted this year. In some way men and means must be provided to get and keep this growing empire under the dominion of Christ.

GRANT K. LEWIS, Cor. Sec.

COLORADO.

We have forty-two congregations in Colorado, with forty-nine preachers in the State. We raised $1,500 for State Missions; organized 1 new congregation; assisted 10 missionaries, who baptized 84 persons and received 132 others into the churches, a total of 216. We greatly need the help of the brotherhood to reach the hundreds of places where the cause has not yet been planted.

LEONARD G. THOMPSON, Cor. Sec.

FLORIDA.

We are a feeble folk in Florida. We number only about 1,400 members, scattered through forty congregations. The American Christian Missionary Society has been helping us for a few years, and we hope for larger help that the cause may be firmly planted in this State.

In the winter we can preach to thousands from all parts of the country. It is a great opportunity.

We only had one evangelist the beginning of last year, then later added another. On July 1 of this year we added another, making three in all. This has largely been done by help from the American Christian Missionary Society, although we have raised more money than they gave us. Florida is a needy field, and is ripe for the harvest. Our men are now doing excellent work. The convention instructed me to get an increase to $1,000, and they expected me to get it! The cry comes from every section, "Come over and help us."

C. W. ZARING, Cor. Sec.

GEORGIA AS A MISSION FIELD.

Georgia is truly the "Empire State of the South." It has 2,325,000 inhabitants, 58,980 square miles, 138 counties. It has 167 towns of from 400 to 1,000 people; 47 towns with from 1,000 to 10,000 people; and 5 cities of from 18,000 to 100,000 inhabitants. Its tax values and lands are rapidly rising. Its products range from the "Northern Spy" to the banana, and within this we find cotton, corn and ribbon cane in rich abundance. Its public schools are fast coming to the standard.

But there are 60,000 homes without a Bible, 165 towns without a Church of Christ after the "ancient order," and sixty-eight counties minus the same. Here is the stronghold of denominationalism, the Baptists and Methodists leading. Thousands of her people never heard of the Disciples of Christ, and many thousands more never heard our matchless plea. Denominational prejudice, however, is melting away, and the people, so long bound by creeds, eagerly welcome spiritual freedom in Christ alone. Here the harvest is not only plenteous, but ripe. The soul-cry of Georgia to-day is, "No book but the Bible; no creed but the Christ; no name but Christian; no plea but the gospel; no ordinances but the Master's; no life but the divine. This is what we need. Bring them to us!!" The golden key is held by us. Shall we unlock and enter in? To meet these conditions, we have 13,000 members, not over 135 churches, seventy-five preachers, and neither wealth nor prestige.

The Georgia Christian Missionary Society, organized in 1849, has been, and is, struggling against great odds. But it is moving forward. It is employing two men for all their time and seven others for part time. It has in the field W. J. Cocke as regular State evangelist and W. B. Shaw as

Sunday-school evangelist. These are laboring unceasingly to send the gospel to all sections of the State. They are infusing the missionary spirit and placing the work upon a better educational and financial footing than ever before. Results this year will show this.

The policy of the State Board has been this year to build up the weak churches already organized rather than open up new points. This is rendered necessary because so many churches have been left shepherdless, and have died, or nearly so. Yet two or three new points have been opened up. The Board is assisting Monroe, Tallapoosa, Howell Station, Green Valley, the Franklin field, Middle, South Georgia and Savannah Districts. Already we have assurances that over 300 additions will be reported at the State Convention, which meets at Savannah in November, by the evangelists of the Board. We are doing the best work in our history. We could use twenty additional men with great success if we only had the means. The Home Board is standing by us liberally, and we heartily appreciate their assistance. Preaching the gospel, creating missionary enthusiasm and urging liberal giving are the watchwords of our evangelists. Things are moving!

W. J. COCKE, Cor. Sec.

ILLINOIS.

The Illinois State Mission Board organized seven congregations last year; employing forty-five missionaries whole or part time. These missionaries assisted seventy places in the State, and baptized 1,172 persons, with a total of 1,808 additions. The convention was enthusiastic, the outlook was bright, and the feeling is hopeful all over the State. Truly God is good to his Illinois Israel.

J. FRED JONES, Cor. Sec.

INDIANA.

In the spring conventions we had reports of meetings held since the fall series of 1903. We may not have received reports from all meetings held, but those reported in the fourteen districts aggregated 7,338 additions in revival meetings during the six months. Allowing half as many additions at regular services, we have an aggregate of 11,007 additions in the six months. An illustration of the amazing opportunities in the home field.

In my personal work I added 573; others added 779; total, 1,352. And this in organizing new churches on new fields, and baptizing the people—building up from first hand. To illustrate: Epsom—one member to begin with. Closed the meeting with fifty members, including every business man and his wife in town; bought a house with a seating capacity of 400, paid for it, finished it up, dedicated it, and secured a preacher on the field. Another: Found fifty-six drifting members, out of affiliation, in Evansville. Organized them into the Central Church. Bought house for $3,000; groound on which it stands, worth $4,000; spent $400 on building; hired M. W. Harkins for pastor, and he is on the field now. Plenty of others of the same character.

For five years we have had more than 300 calls before us, that we as a State Board have been utterly unable to answer. Our evangelistic department has demonstrated that Indiana is the ripest field in all the world. A dollar has done more here than anywhere else, because it is the easiest field. It is the most American State in the Union to-day. But all the new States will be purely American. Foreigners go into the great cities. This American plea of ours has a power in the new American States and Territories that nothing else has.

T. J. LEGG.

INDIAN TERRITORY.

The past year has been the most successful in the history of the work in the Indian Territory. We have advanced not along one or two lines, but along every line. More money has been raised, more men employed, more converts baptized, more churches organized, more additions to the churches, more prejudice removed, more friends made, more enthusiasm awakened, more missions aided, more mission meetings held, more preachers located, and more calls for help answered, than in any former year. We need $1,000 from you to enter the open doors. S. R. HAWKINS, Cor. Sec.

IOWA.

Last year the thirty-six missionaries of the Iowa State Board organized four new congregations and baptized 785 persons, with a total of 1,238 additions to the churches. Sixty-seven places were assisted. We feel grateful to the Home Board for coming to our help in the work of evangelization of this great State. The harvest is truly great. B. S. DENNY, Cor. Sec.

KANSAS.

The work of the past year was the most successful, in some respects, in our history. The amount of work done and results achieved were gratifying indeed. The receipts were not quite up to the expenditures for the year, the demands being so many and so urgent, yet the monthly receipts have more than doubled in the past five years, and the outlook is good for a large increase this year. The work is being carefully and systematically planned for the current year.

The cause of primitive Christianity is taking no backward steps in Kansas, but is gradually gaining ground. We have an intelligent and consecrated band of preachers, who love the State and her interests, and the number is constantly increasing. W. S. LOWE, Cor. Sec.

KENTUCKY.

Kentucky reports a splendid year's work: Sixty-seven missionaries employed, assisting 240 places, organizing 5 new congregations, baptizing 928 persons, with a total of 1,729 additions; $33,500 raised for State mission work. We mourn the loss of the beloved George Darsie. We are hopeful for the future. H. W. ELLIOTT.

SOUTH KENTUCKY.

We raised about $4,000 for Southwest Kentucky Missions last year. We assisted fourteen missionaries, who organized two new churches, received 275 persons into the churches, and helped twenty-five places. We hope for larger things. J. W. GANT, Cor. Sec.

LOUISIANA.

I am just entering upon the fourth year of my missionary labors in Louisiana, and I am more in love with the work, and more strongly impressed with the prospects, than at any time during that period.

While Louisiana has not had so much advertising as some of the Western States, I believe her advancement has kept pace with any of them. Capitalists have discovered that Louisiana has some of the most fertile soil in this country, and are pouring their wealth in here in vast quantities.

With the influx of a new people, and the almost unparalleled development of her natural resources, comes the opportunity of the Disciples of Christ to enter in and possess the land. Despite their declarations to the contrary, Catholicism is giving way before the determined advance of an enlightened civilization. The record made by the small band of simply Christians, aided by the Home and Extension Boards during the past three years, is ample proof of the fact that now is our golden opportunity. We point you to this record with great pride, and beg you to rejoice with us since it was made possible by the fidelity and liberality of the Board of Home Missions.

At our convention which met in Crowley in 1902, there were about twenty delegates present. At that time we had no State evangelist, and no State paper. Through the friendliness of the Home Board, however, we were enabled to secure an evangelist that fall, and we also started a State paper. The results, as shown at the next convention, which met in Baton Rouge, justified all our efforts and expenditures We had enrolled eighty-six delegates, not counting the resident Disciples. You well remember the spirituality and enthusiasm that marked this gathering. This handful of Disciples raised, at one of the sessions, about $1,900, and gave it as a present to the infant church of this city. Our next convention met at Alexandria, last June. Though there were some who thought that the high-water mark had been reached at Baton Rouge, the Alexandria Convention surpassed the expectations of the most sanguine. We had present there, approximately, the surprising number of 165! And this convention seemed determined to be a record-breaker in all things, for it presented the infant church there with about $3,500! Do you not think, Bro. Smith, that Louisiana has justified the assertion that she is one of the most fertile of our mission fields?

W. O. STEPHENS, Cor. Sec.

MARYLAND, DELAWARE AND DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.

In my work as Secretary I report that we have not had as many additions to the churches by our evangelists, at points assisted, as we had last year. There have been changes of preachers, and delay sometimes in securing them, and local difficulties that have been responsible, in part at least, for this falling off.

The opportunities are more than we are able to embrace. A lot has been secured by the brethren in southeast Washington for another church, and they propose to begin a building as soon as a little more money is raised. The corner-stone was laid October 2. At Mt. Ranier, just outside the District, what is known as the Thirty-fourth Street Church has been built and is self-supporting. This has been done through the efforts of Washington brethren, and members of the Washington churches living at this point.

There is a nucleus for another mission in East Baltimore, had we the money to put another man there. Bro. B. A. Abbott hopes to do something there this winter. At Cumberland, the largest city in western Maryland, we have no church, and none in Wilmington, Del., with over 76,000 people. There were nine baptisms at our Summer Assembly at Ocean View, Del., and some new cottages built. This bids fair to be a place of some influence for the work of the restoration of New Testament Christianity. A little band at Friendville, in Garrett County, Md., has come in touch with our missionary work within the year, through the efforts of Bro. E. L. Allen, of Duquesne, Pa.

The prospects in our field are encouraging for slow and steady gains. Could we but have more workers, much more could be done. Pray the Lord of the harvest to send forth laborers. J. A. HOPKINS, Cor. Sec.

MICHIGAN.

The past year has been one of great encouragement in Michigan. The gospel leaven is working as never before. Some great victories have been won for Christ. New and important fields have been entered and churches established. Belding, Battle Creek and St. Johns are illustrations of the wonderful possibilities in Michigan. One year ago the Church of Christ was not represented in these cities. To-day we have in Belding a church of 100 members and a $7,000 house of worship; in Battle Creek we have a church of 100 members and a $16,000 church property; in St. Johns we have a church of twenty-seven members and a $1,500 property. One year ago the Adrian Church was meeting in an upper room; to-day they have a splendid property worth $7,000. One year ago the Traverse City Church was meeting in a hall; to-day it has a beautiful $12,000 church home.

The outlook for great victories for "the faith once for all delivered unto the saints" was never brighter in Michigan than it is to-day. We are weak, and have many difficult problems to solve in Michigan, but we believe that a brighter day is dawning in the history of our work, and that before many years Michigan will take her place among the States that are marching in the front, leading the hosts of God to the world's conquest.

C. M. KEENE, Cor. Sec.

MINNESOTA.

Our work is taking on larger proportions. We organized two churches by our missionaries; we have done more than ever before, but we are planning larger things to come. We feel grateful for the help of the Home Board in the past; we are going to ask for much larger help in the future, because we want to do a much larger work in Minnesota.

M. R. WATERS, Cor. Sec.

MISSISSIPPI.

Ours is truly a mission field. But it is a field with great possibilities. About 150 churches are reported. Half of these are "struggling bands" with no regular services. Hundreds of other communities have small groups of disciples which could soon be made self-supporting churches with a little help from the outside. The State is rapidly developing. It is a great cotton State, and "cotton is king." It is also one of the greatest pine lumber regions in the world. Disciples are moving in here from everywhere. They find no church home and soon drift into the denominations—or something worse! We need men; to get them, we must have money. We must make it possible for a good man to come here, and stay.

Many villages of five years ago are now rapidly growing towns of 8,000 to 10,000. Other churches are planting congregations in these cities—some three and four at a place. We can't do it. We have not the money. Unless help comes from the outside, these places must be lost. Think of 300 miles of railroad traversing the richest of country on earth, and only two small churches in the 300 miles. There is not just one instance of this kind; there are several. Two of the largest cities of the State have no church that is Christian only. Why don't we enter these places? Let those who are strong help us, and you will not need to ask this question.

We entered a new place this year—a place of 10,000. In six weeks after the first sermon was preached we had a congregation of about fifty, including some of the best business men of the city; a live Sunday-school, literature paid for, a preacher on the ground for half time, salary provided for, and $1,000 secured to purchase a lot. Is not such a field as this worth cultivating?

W. W. PHARES, Cor. Sec.

MISSOURI.

Our Needs.—1. A deeper heart consecration on the part of our people.

2. A clearer recognition of the importance of State work.

3. Instruction from the pulpit as to what State work is, does, and the need for it.

4. A true-hearted, whole-hearted determination to emulate the example of "the Fathers," and go everywhere preaching the Word.

Great Work Done.—No State has a grander record of work done, of souls won, of battles fought, victories gained, than has "Imperial Missouri." No thinking man will deny—if he has been well informed—that our State work has been the main factor in all this great expansion.

Prospects never were brighter, we think, than now. The preachers are getting into line and bringing their churches into this blessed fellowship as never before.

T. A. ABBOTT, Cor. Sec.

MONTANA.

Montana—the mountain State—reports three churches organized during the year, with ninety persons baptized and a total of 202 additions by the work of her eleven home missionaries. The State is so large, the opportunities so many, and the calls so urgent, that Montana passes the cry on to our brotherhood in National Convention, "Come and help us."

EDWARD SCHARNIKOW, Cor. Sec.

NEBRASKA.

The figures for results in this State are 183 baptisms, 129 added otherwise to the churches; two new churches organized; two reorganized, one of them a resurrection in a fine county-seat. Seven churches have been given help to sustain pastor. The Secretary has visited churches in all parts of the State, advising, encouraging, raising money and helping to settle difficulties. In the main, the churches are growing stronger each year. There are a few exceptions. We need more good preachers. We need an increased willingness on the part of churches and preachers to push State Missions. We need an evangelist in western Nebraska. We could organize a dozen new churches in six months had we assurance of preachers to man them. We need more young men to enter the ministry. To meet this, Cotner University needs larger endowment. We need to work harder and pray more.

W. A. BALDWIN, Cor. Sec.

NEW YORK.

Our State work in the past year has been in many ways the most fruitful of any year yet. During the year ending June 30 we have organized two new churches, one the Rowland Street Church in Syracuse; the other, the Third Church, Brooklyn. The Secretary and evangelist has held nine meetings, resulting in 150 additions. There has been raised for State work alone about $2,000. Many churches have been strengthened and our plea given a wider publicity than before. We have organized a Building League for helping new mission churches, which will greatly enhance the power of establishing new churches in the future. Three of our mission points are beginning new houses of worship.

The great need of our work is for money to enter the many fine cities in New York still untouched by our people. We are received well wherever we go. We have the greatest population to be reached of any State in the Union. This is the gateway to the nation, and also its financial center. The need and opportunity is greater than we can express.

STEPHEN J. COREY, Cor. Sec.

NEW ENGLAND.

We are thankful for the aid received from the American Christian Missionary Society during the past year. The amount received was not large, but with it we were enabled to help in the support of six preachers in seven different fields, and of an evangelist for several months. The work done by each one of our men, in spite of many difficulties, was most excellent.

Perhaps the most promising work is that at Portland, Me. Last January Dr. J. H. Hardin entered this field. Here he met A. T. June, a young Congregational preacher, who was dissatisfied with the teachings of denominationalism, and who longed for the pure gospel of Jesus Christ. After a few interviews Bro. June decided to cast in his lot with us, and is now leader of the little band in Portland. Bro. June is deeply spiritual and wholly devoted to his work. He is greatly beloved by his people in particular and the citizens in Portland in general. With proper aid from the American Christian Missionary Society, Portland will develop into a strong work, but the help must be immediate.

Articles have been written and speeches made in regard to the New England field. Surely our brotherhood is familiar with the great needs of our work. Here is a field with 6,000,000 inhabitants, and in all the territory we have but 21 churches—9 in Massachusetts, 7 in Maine, 3 in Connecticut, 2 in Vermont, 1 in Rhode Island and none in New Hampshire. I am convinced, from my own experience and the experience of others in New England, that many laymen and ministers of the different denominations would welcome our plea if properly presented. The field is ripe—overripe. Now is our opportunity. To neglect us any longer would not only be unwise, but verily, I believe, sinful. We are grateful, Bro. Smith, both to you and the Board for the interest you are taking in our field. May our brotherhood rise in its might and give the money needed to carry on the work successfully here and elsewhere in our beautiful country!

G. A. REINL, Cor. Sec.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Our State Missionary Society was organized in 1844, five years before the American Christian Missionary Society. We have done a plain, good work during the years, broken sadly by the Civil War. Last year we employed six missionaries with the help of the Home Board. We feel grateful for help rendered, but we need much more help.

L. F. RIGHTSELL, Cor. Sec.

OHIO.

Ohio had a great convention at Lima, with a record of over $13,000 raised for State Missions; with fifty missionaries employed for whole or part time, assisting sixty-nine places in the State. These missionaries baptized 668 persons during the year, with a total of 1,231 additions. Our work is hopeful; it never had a warmer place in the hearts of God's people than to-day.

S. H. BARTLETT, Cor. Sec.

OKLAHOMA.

Oklahoma reports with pleasure that we had thirteen missionaries employed; these organized thirty-eight new churches, and baptized 202 converts, with over 1,000 added otherwise, sheep of other folds, our own brethren and sisters who had removed to the Territory. Our greatest work during the year has been the housing of the homeless churches. Forty church buildings were erected last year.

J. M. MONROE, Cor. Sec.

OREGON.

Nine points were regularly helped by the State Board last year. The reporas show splendid results and indicate a bright future. There were 374 were added in these fields and by the evangelists of the Board. The work has been of permanent nature, some becoming self-supporting churches. In some places the confidence of the community has been regained, in others the membership encouraged and obstacles overcome. Consecrated, self-sacrificing men have thus strengthened the foundations so that even better results may be expected.

Oregon fields are opening to the divine plea in no uncertain way. There are numerous small but important places where the right man can press the plea with great effectiveness. A few dollars from an outside source will bring forth churches of lasting power. Larger towns are growing rapidly and should be entered now. We have no church at Marshfield, on the coast in the southwestern part of the State. It will double in population in a few years, and is the key to that rich district. No more productive soil and no finer climate anywhere than in the Rogue River valley. Medford, one of our older churches and right in the heart of the valley, needs help only for a short time to become one of our best churches. Baker City, population 7,000, promises as good returns as other fields in eastern Oregon. The State's first Living Link Church is in that district. Our success there justifies quick action and large expenditures.

Portland, with one-fourth the population of the State, the metropolis of the great Northwest, presents an unlimited field for the plea we make. We are insignificant among the wealthy churches of that city. There are cities of 5,000 and 7,000 population in the immediate vicinity where we have no church. If we are to become a great religious factor in Oregon, we must become great in Portland. If the American Christian Missionary Society could help us as the denominational churches are being helped, we should soon be the foremost religious body, not only in Portland, but throughout the State. We covet the help and pray for larger and still larger appropriations. Our obligations demand help.

J. J. EVANS, Cor. Sec.

EASTERN PENNSYLVANIA.

Our State Missionary Society dates back to 1853. Last year we employed four missionaries for all or part time. These faithful men baptized fifty-one persons into Christ, with a total of seventy-eight additions. We have enlarged our plans and are hoping for greater results next year.

C. A. BRADY, Cor. Sec.

WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA.

The work has been conducted on three lines—evangelistic, support of missionary pastors and among the foreigners. Two evangelists have been in the field for the full year, and report as follows:

F. A. Bright, supported jointly by the American Christian Missionary Society and the Western Pennsylvania Christian Missionary Society, reports: Additions by baptism, 267; by letter, 22; otherwise, 23; total, 322; money raised on the field, $881.50.

J. A. Joyce, special evangelist under the T. W. Phillips Fund of the American Christian Missionary Society for Western Pennsylvania, reports: Additions by baptism, 42; by letter, 31; otherwise, 57; total, 130; organized two ney churches; raised on the field, $231.

Missionary pastors have been assisted at fourteen points and report additions by baptism, 204; by letter, 43; otherwise, 44; total, 291 additions. Total of additions in all mission work under the Western Pennsylvania Christian Missionary Society: By baptism, 513; by letter, 97; otherwise, 124; total, 743.

Work is being planned among the Polish population of McKeesport, and Miss Anna C. Vasicek is being supported as Bible reader and missionary. New buildings have been dedicated during the year at New Castle Third Church, Sharon, Herron Hill (Pittsburg), and New Kensington. More workers are needed in the field, which is white unto harvest.

J. A. JOYCE, Cor. Sec.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

South Carolina is one of the most needy mission fields in the United States. In this great State of ours, the doors of many opportunities hang wide open and invite our entrance. Shall we take advantage of this opportunity? Yes; we must do so.

We are very grateful to the Home Board for their help in the past. With this timely aid we have been able to keep a man in the field, and without it it would have been impossible. This year the Home Board contributed $200 to our State Board. We appreciate this help more than we can tell, but this appropriation should be doubled.

The work in South Carolina has taken on new life. Our needs are money and men. The conditions are hopeful, and the possibilities are great.

C. W. ERWIN, Cor. Sec.

SOUTH DAKOTA.

We employed six missionaries last year. We assisted eight places. Our missionaries baptized ninety persons and secured ninety-seven otherwise, a total of 187—a fine record. We have more money pledged for State Missions than ever before in our history. We count on the continuance of the support of the American Christian Missionary Society.

O. E. PALMER, Cor. Sec.

TENNESSEE.

Tennessee raised $4,800 for State Mission work. We organized two new congregations, and assisted thirteen missionaries whole or part time. They received about 600 persons into the churches. We are pressing forward.

A. I. MYHR, Cor. Sec.

TEXAS.

Texas gives the following summary for the year: Total number of men employed, 36; total number of days employed, 8,108; total number of sermons preached, 4,001; total number of additions, by baptism, 1,480; total number of additions, by relation, 1,044; total number of additions from denominations, 527; number of churches started, 36; Sunday-schools started, 44; C. W. B. M. Auxiliaries started, 4; Ladies' Aid societies started, 12; Christian Endeavor societies started, 8; total cash raised in field by and for missionaries, $17,137.79; total cash raised for mission work and property, $16,031.69; total cash in the year, $33,169.48; pledges taken during the year, $12,810.60; total cash and pledges for the year, $45,980.08; church houses built, 10.

J. C. MASON, Cor. Sec.

VIRGINIA.

The State Board of Missions of Virginia reports the work in good condition. Eleven missionaries have been engaged in the work. Forty places have been helped; 697 persons have been added to the churches, of whom 487 were by confession of faith and baptism into Christ. The sum of $7,309 was raised for State work.

H. C. COMBS, Cor. Sec.

WEST VIRGINIA.

The work in our mountain State has been very prosperous in the past year. Over 500 have come into the Christian Church as a result of the help received from the General Home Board. The pastors helped were J. J. Tisdall, M. H. H. Lee, D. M. Walker, J. D. Hull, G. Culberson, P. P. Hasselvander and B. L. Kershner. The sum of $1,350 was granted to help the pastoral work, and $300 to the evangelistic work. The General Board has done a noble thing in sending help to evangelize West Virginia. This will be a monument for years to come of the wisdom of the Board in doing work for the Lord. We hope to make the Boys' and Girls' Rally Day and the May Offering a grand success this coming year.

A. LINKLETTER, Cor. Sec.

WASHINGTON.

Last year Washington State Board received from our American Christian Missionary Society $800 for evangelistic work. Every dollar was instrumental in raising two dollars for State Missions, and four dollars for other work. Of hundreds of places that need work, we could help but seventeen. Of the scores of places where we should organize, we chose two.

The greatest problem is this, How to bridge the financial chasm between the ability of a weak church and the needs of a preacher and his family? We try to solve it by sending an evangelist to hold a meeting. Sometimes it is successful.

Washington needs more money to employ evangelists and to help sustain missionary pastors. Perhaps there is no field where relatively there are so many Disciples who need organization. J. M. MORRIS, Cor. Sec.

WISCONSIN.

Our efforts during the year just closed have placed most of our churches on a much better footing. These efforts have been directed to this end more than to evangelistic success, yet they have resulted in adding seventy-six to the nine places helped, as well as strengthening the churches.

The State Missionary Board had planned to enter one large place where we have no church, but no place opened to us. But now near the close of the year several smaller places where we have one or more Disciples, are asking us for a meeting. I interpret this to mean that we must do more evangelistic work, either by employing an evangelist or through a larger force of missionary pastors.

At the beginning of the year we had a surplus in our treasury of over $600, and we have about the same now. With this and the same help the American Christian Missionary Society and the Christian Woman's Board of Missions have given us, we can undertake a much larger work than ever before. There are three sections of the State where we have weak churches having houses of worship, and no preacher in reach of them, and if this help is continued to us, I feel sure that we can build the cause solid there as well as in the places we are fostering now. But if withdrawn from us, the work already begun will be partly lost. I pledge my influence to get the churches to observe "Boys' and Girls' Rally Day" and to take the offering for Home Missions.

The work among the Scandinavians promises to be a fruitful one, although the visible results have been small. They come in large numbers to hear our Norwegian evangelist. In 1900 there were more than 60,000 foreignborn Norwegians in Wisconsin. So it is a foreign as well as home field.

With gratitude to our Father and to the American Christian Missionary Society, and praying that he will guide all to his glory, I am

Your obedient servant, H. F. BARSTOW, Cor. Sec.

For statistics showing total results of the work of our various State Boards of Missions, see Appendix.

PERMANENT NAMED MEMORIAL FUNDS.

If any one will give us $5,000 as a Permanent Fund, your Board agrees to receive it as a special fund, and, keeping the principal intact, to use only the income in home missionary work, and further guarantees to keep a missionary preaching the gospel in the name of that fund through all the years.

We have eleven such funds. Five of them are on the Annuity Plan. The donors needing the income derived from them during their lifetime, at the death of the donor each will become a Named Memorial Fund.

The five on the Annuity Plan are: Nellie Eckert Fund, Mary and S. R. Ezzell Fund, Charles A. Mee Fund, John Reed Fund, "A Friend" Fund.

The remaining six Named Memorial Funds are at work as follows:

FRANCIS M. DRAKE MEMORIAL FUND.

The Francis M. Drake Memorial supported Milton H. H. Lee as missionary in Ronceverte, W. Va. He found the church weak and discouraged; ere the year had expired it was greatly revived and strengthened, and has announced that it will no longer need help, but will be henceforth self-supporting.

MARGARET OLIVER MEMORIAL FUND.

The Margaret Oliver Fund has been used to support the work in western Pennsylvania. F. A. Bright is their evangelist; during the year he held meetings in the following places, with results as indicated:

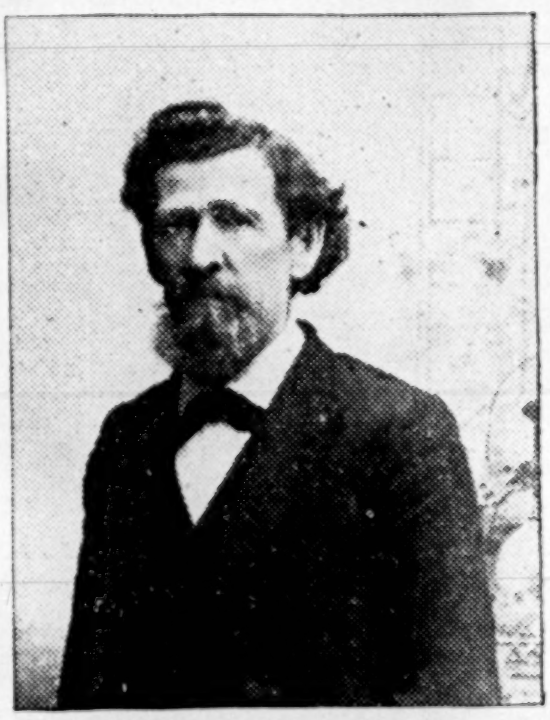
LATHROP COOLEY.



GEO. BATES.

THE GEORGE BATES MEMORIAL FUND.

The George Bates Memorial Fund has continued to assist the Grant Street Church, Omaha. H. J. Kirchstein is the missionary. During the year the church has purchased a new location and has had fifteen additions. It is expected that it will become self-supporting soon.

THE DR. HENRY GEROULD MEMORIAL FUND.

The Dr. Gerould Fund has continued its good work at Charleston, S. C. E. J. Fenstermacher was the missionary during the greater part of the year. Under his leadership and at a great sacrifice, the congregation built a new house of worship, which was greatly needed. They are now under the leadership of C. E. Smith, and are hopeful of the future.

DR. HENRY GEROULD.

THE LATHROP MEMORIAL FUND.

The Lathrop Cooley Fund supports our Sunset Mission in San Francisco, Cal. They have two missionaries under this fund. They are under the care of George Greenwell and are both building new houses of worship. It is expected that at least one of them will take its place as a self-supporting church soon.

A FRIEND TO HOME MISSIONS FUND.

This fund has continued to support the work in the West End of Atlanta, Ga. R. Lin Cave is the missionary. The work has prospered in his hands and the church will be self-supporting next year.

For further details of the work of these missionaries, see tabulated report.

BEQUESTS.

We have heard of a Presbyterian pastor who made it his duty to preach at least once a year on benevolences, telling of all the different benevolent boards of the church; urging his people to make bequests to these benevolences, and offering his personal assistance to any one who desired to write their wills. Under this kind of training the Presbyterian Board of Home Missions received $164,158.14 last year from bequests.

The Baptist Board of Home Missions received last year more money from bequests than from the churches; the legacies to Baptist Home Missions last year amounted to $127.991.09.

HAVE YOU MADE A WILL?

It will not shorten your life to make it! Nobody knows as well as yourself upon whom you would wish to settle your estate. Perhaps there are claims which your Lord and Redeemer has upon the final disposition of it.

There are souls in the darkness and shadow of death whom you should do something to lift into the light. Does not the great work of winning America to Christ and simple New Testament Christianity appeal to you?

We hope you are disposed to remember Home Missions in your will. If so, may the Lord bless you in that good purpose. Please use the following form of bequest:

FORM OF BEQUEST.

"I hereby give and bequeath to the AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY, whose headquarters are at Cincinnati, Ohio, the sum of ———— dollars, to be used for preaching the gospel in America."

If the bequest is real estate, it should be particularly described and the laws of the State in which you live particularly complied with.)

The following form of attestation by three witnesses, who should write against their names their places of residence, will answer for every State in the Union:

"Signed, sealed, published and declared by said [name of donor] as his last Will and Testament in the presence of us, who at the request of the said [donor's name], and in his presence and in the presen of each other, have hereunto subscribed our name as witnesses."

A codicil must be attested in the same manner. In some States it is required that a charitable bequest shall be made at least two months before the death of the testator. In Ohio the period is one year.

During the year we have received bequests as follows:

LIST OF BEQUESTS.

BEQUESTS RECEIVED FROM OCTOBER 1, 1903 TO OCTOBER 1, 1904.

Eunice T. Harrison, Painesville, O.	$ 50.00
Mrs. Sophie Blaisdell, Boston, Mass	1,000.00
Mrs. Ann Eliza Reno, Hiram O	63.51
Mary A. Wills, Versailles, Ky.	865.42
J. W. Haymaker, Drennon Springs, Ky	500.00
I. T. Phillips, New Castle, Pa.	100.00

DO YOU PREFER TO BE YOUR OWN EXECUTOR?

Many bequests carry lawsuits with them; frequently the heirs do not sympathize with the purpose of the testator and take legal steps to set aside the will. This is true of 50 per cent. of the wills which carry charitable bequests.

In the success of the Annuity Plan we show you a more excellent way. Many brethren and sisters have need of the income of their property during their lifetime, and yet desire that the principal shall go to Home Missions at their death. To these we earnestly commend the Annuity Plan.

WHAT IS THE ANNUITY PLAN?

If any one will give us any sum of money over $100 we will receive it for this great work and issue to the donor an Annuity Bond.

SAMPLE BOND.

AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY, CINCINNATI, O.

ANNUITY BOND.

WHEREAS, ...of .....has donated to and paid into the treasury of the AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY the sum of.....dollars.

NOW, THEREFORE, the said AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY, in consideration thereof, hereby agrees to pay to said..... during natural life..... an annuity of.....Dollars in semi-annual payments of.....dollars each, said payments to cease on the death of said.....and the said sum donated by..... as aforesaid, is to be considered as an executed gift to the AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY and belonging to said Society from this date, without any account or liability therefor.

Cincinnati, Ohio..... AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Attest:.....

Secretary. By.....

President.

A bond in full form, as above, is signed, sealed and delivered upon receipt of annuity funds.

If over fifty years of age, we will pay six per cent. interest during the natural life of the donor.

If husband and wife, we will give the bond so that the survivor (either husband or wife) shall receive the interest during life.

ADVANTAGES OF THE ANNUITY PLAN.

We received during the year the sum of $9,000 on the Annuity Plan.

This plan is growing in favor with our people. We earnestly commend it to all who wish to help the Lord's work with their money. It is better than a bequest, as experience shows that one-half the bequests made to religious purposes are made the subject of contest in the courts. We commend the Annuity Plan for the following reasons:

1. It yields a larger net income than any other form of investment.
2. You are free from anxiety about taxation; money so placed is free from taxation.
3. Its value is fixed through all the years of your life and can not decline.
4. You are free from anxiety in regard to your property; the investment is absolutely safe, no expenses for repairs or danger of bad investments. An Annuity Bond is issued by us, securing the prompt payment of semi-annual interest.
5. Your income from your Annuity Bond will not decrease.
6. You are free from anxiety about collecting your interest; it is sent you promptly without solicitation from you.
7. Your income from your Annuity will continue throughout your life-time; no change of fortune, no feebleness of age, no attacks of sickness, no panic in the business world will stop or reduce your income from this source.
8. It is free from risks that accompany other forms of investments. As long as the church does missionary work the American Christian Missionary Society will continue to receive money on the Annuity Plan and will meet all its obligations.
9. You are free from anxiety about the final disposition of your property. The Annuity Plan enables you, while in the full possession of your powers of mind, to decide upon the final disposition of the property of which you are steward. The money given to the Society will be used strictly in accordance with your wishes. The Society will either spend the principal when it comes into full possession of it, or, if so requested by the donors, will hold the principal as a permanent fund and spend only the income. If undesignated, the money, when released by the death of the donor, will be used for the general purposes of the Society, in accordance with the best judgment of the Acting Board.
10. You are free from anxiety about making a will; you have disposed of your own property and executed your own will.
11. Donors know that the money thus given to the Society will be used for the purposes for which it was intended, which is not always the case with money left to the Society by will, because wills are frequently overthrown by the courts, and even when established, it is not infrequently the case that a considerable portion of the legacy is wasted in legal contests.
12. Donors having decided upon the use which they will make of the Lord's money, by the Annuity Plan are removed from the temptation to spend it for their own comfort or luxury, or to distribute it under momentary impulse among less worthy objects.
13. Donors are relieved of the care and anxiety necessarily involved in caring for their own estate. Money, to be profitable, must not be idle; it is not always easy to find secure investments; losses by unfortunate ventures are almost inevitable; money often lies idle for a time for the want of suitable investment; it is sometimes well-nigh impossible to obtain investments that shall be safe, and at the same time remunerative; the burden of the care of property increases with age and infirmity; widows, unaccustomed to the care of property, find it especially burdensome.

14. You have the joy of advancing the kingdom of our Lord in your own land and in your own lifetime.

15. You have the joy of helping forward the great plea of the Disciples of Christ in this, our great day of opportunity, and helping the evangelization of America, the ripest harvest field in the world.

We commend this plan to you, and would be glad to correspond with you about Annuities.

Write to Benjamin L. Smith, Corresponding Secretary, Y. M. C. A. Bldg., Cincinnati, O.

We have prepared a booklet on the Annuity Plan, which we will be glad to send to those who will ask for it, free of cost.

During the year we have received the following Annuities:

OUR OWN HOME MISSIONARY CHURCHES.

There is no part of our work that has shown better growth than that of having churches select and support their "Own Home Missionaries" under this Board.

Three hundred dollars is the average appropriation from our treasury to support a home missionary. We only supplement the salary of the missionary, and bridge the chasm between failure and success. Sometimes the needed amount is only $100, sometimes $200, sometimes much more—especially in the cities; the average amount is $300. Therefore, if any congregation will contribute $300 to our treasury, we select with them their own field of Home Missions and their "Own Home Missionary." This makes the church a Living Link in Home Missions.

GRAPES OF ESCHOL.

During the year we have gathered many clusters of grapes from many an Eschol.

"FIGURES DO NOT LIE."

DEAR BRO. SMITH:—I have often seen in print the statement from you that "five dollars contributed to the American Christian Missionary Society would bring a soul to Christ." In looking over my reports to-day, I was led to make the following verification of that oft-repeated statement of what the American Christian Missionary Society could do with a limited amount of money. From the first of October last till March 1, I was engaged under this society in establishing a new church in East Dallas, and that splendid Living Link church, with 165 members, a $2,100 lot and $1,500 tabernacle, speak for themselves how well the American Board spent $125 of its money.

On the first day of March I was directed by the American Board to enter the evangelistic field proper, by first holding a meeting in the uptown section of New Orleans, La. From the first of March till this date (August 1), the baptisms under my work have cost the American Christian Missionary Society exactly $1.24 each.

During the time that these baptisms have been gained at such a small cost to the Board, there have been forty additions by statement and reclamation, for which no charge is made in this calculation. During this same time two new churches have been organized, one at New Orleans, La., and one at Collinsville, Tex., with still no extra charge. Added to this, two new houses have been gained, one at New Orleans and one at Cooper, Tex., at a cost of $7,000. So you can see at once that we have had baptisms at $1.24 apiece, with $7,000 in church property—two houses—two new organizations, and forty other additions thrown in for good measure. Of course, we don't mean that this is all it cost anybody, but we mean that one dollar of American Christian Missionary Society money will hunt up and turn loose a number of other dollars and cause these other dollars to be used for the Master, while otherwise they would not have been turned loose for this splendid work. That is what I mean by saying that baptisms have cost $1.24 each. This $1.24 each, from the Board, has hunted up the rest of the money that it took to carry on the work that reached and baptized them. This ought to inspire every soul in the brotherhood to open his or her pocketbook to this work, and especially so when it is remembered that money raised for pastors' salaries, etc., and the general wholesome effect on the churches, have not been figured in this account.

With the brightest possible prospect for future work, and praying the blessings of our God upon the American Christian Missionary Society.

I am yours in His service,

PILOT POINT, Tex., Aug. 1, 1904. JOHN A. STEVENS.

ED. NOTE.—It is to do this kind of work that we are pleading for your help.

SPECIAL MENTION OF CHURCHES REACHING SELF-SUPPORT.

On a special Roll of Honor we place the names of churches reaching self-support:

El Paso, Tex.—E. M. Waits.
Ronceverte, W. Va.—Milton H. H. Lee.
Pendleton, Ore.—N. H. Brooks
Seattle, Wash.—B. H. Lingenfelter.
Whatcom, Wash.—J. N. Smith.
Tyler, Tex.—J. C. Dickson.
Colliers, W. Va.—Bruce Kershner.
Parkersburg, W. Va.—J. D. Hull.
Perry, Okla.—C. H. White.
Spokane, Wash.—J. W. Allen.
Eureka Springs, Ark.—C. E. Freeman.
Hinton, W. Va.—M. N. Higginbotham.

North Topeka, Kan.—J. T. Purvis.
Lewiston, Ida.—J. A. Pine.
Crowley, La.—W. O.. Stephens.
Charlottetown, P. E. I.—R. W. Stevenson.
Lawrence, Kan.—A. L. Ward.
Boise, Ida.—A. K. Wright.
St. Paul, Minn. (First)—A. D. Harmon.

We ask to be entrusted with larger means for this great work. We have won some notable victories.

J. M. Monroe writes of Oklahoma: "The generosity of the Board toward Oklahoma has touched my heart. From the day the Territory was organized you have stood by us faithfully. I believe in two years more Oklahoma can declare herself self-supporting and become in turn a helper of others. Since we have so freely received, we should also freely give."

FROM SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA COMES THIS WORD.

"The Southern California Board closed the year with about $700 in the treasury; about $2,800 was pledged at our convention at Long Beach. I look forward to the early day when Southern California can release our Home Board from any further help. In my judgment the Atlantic Coast needs the help of our Board of Home Missions more than does this west coast."

God's providence has contributed to the success of Home Missions in the last few years. Any man or body of men who would claim credit for this work would be chargeable with presumption. God is in this work. He is giving his people the grace to see and opening our hearts to respond to the splendid opportunities, the wide-open doors.

We never faced larger opportunities than to-day; we were never in better position to do a magnificent work. Glorious fields remain to be cultivated.

UNGATHERED GRAPES.

America is an over-ripe vineyard, and, brethren, more grapes lost every year than we gather! The entire nation must be re-evangelized every thirty-five years. Each generation must accept the gospel for itself, and must live the Christ-life itself. Are we doing this needed work?

Of a million members of the church, not less than 50,000 die each year either spiritually or physically: their places must be filled. Forty millions of people in the United States have never had a clear presentation of our great plea for Christian union. Thousands upon thousands of these would accept the simple plea and platform if they had an opportunity.

Lift up your eyes to this great, over-ripe home mission field: the foreign population, the cities, New England, with six and a half millions—six millions of whom never heard the plea for a return to the simple New Testament faith; the great city and the greater State of New York, with three millions in the city and six millions in the State who have never heard this plea.

Look to the north—Canada, largely untouched by our preaching, virgin soil; northern Michigan, without a church that is simply Christian; Wisconsin, with only small churches; Minnesota, holding out pleading hands; North Dakota, with only four small congregations.

Lift up your eyes to the Northwest and the West, where a great nation is taking form, and molding its religious life and institutions. The religious life of this Northwest and the West will take on definitely and permanently its form within the next twenty-five years, and we have not a church in Nevada, only one in Utah, only two in Arizona, only seven in New Mexico, only four in Wyoming. Lift up, oh! lift up your eyes to the great home mission field.

And what shall we say of the South, where the largest returns come from a very small effort, where the expenditure of a small amount of money will produce more results than anywhere else on God's footstool? The South is the ripest of all ripe fields in the United States to-day. Listen to the appeals.

APPEALS.

The East.

Virginia.—Oh! if you could let us have a little help in this extremely important point. This place has doubled in population in the past ten years, and the prospects are that it will be more than doubled in the next ten. This is as important a point for missionary work as there is in the United States.

Having, as it does, the finest harbor on the coast, and being the terminus of nearly thirty thousand miles of railroad, it is brought into daily touch with every nation on the globe. It is the most rapidly growing city in the State. So far nothing has been done by your Board.

J. T. T. Hundley, Norfolk, Va.

New York.—I am writing you this in regard to the work at Dunkirk, N. Y. Dunkirk is a growing young city on the Lake Shore, about forty miles from Buffalo. It has a population of 15,000, and is the home of the great Brooks locomotive works employing 3,000 men. Last summer I spent a week there and gathered together a band of twelve loyal Disciples. These twelve rented a second-story hall and have gathered together a Sunday-school with nearly one hundred enrolled. They are as loyal and devoted a band of people as ever worked together for the primitive faith.

The opening is exceptional. The Protestant churches are very weak, having a combined membership of less than 700. There are hundreds of children apparently unreached by any Sunday-school influence.

The churches are cold and aristocratic, and are not appealing to the laboring class in the least. The great mass of fine mechanics at the locomotive works are simply not touched by any church. They do not attempt it. One of our men is president of the combined labor organization of the city, and another is at the head of the city lighting company.

Our State income and the number of points supported would not allow us to enter Dunkirk through the usual course—we have no funds for it. We recognized, however, that this was an exceptional field, so I determined, if possible, to raise the salary for a good man through individual pledges. I have secured $700 from business men of the State. We have called Perry McPherson, of Rossville, Ill., and he is on the field. He comes at a personal sacrifice, because he wants to do that kind of work. We are to pay him $1,000. We must get the extra $300 through some source. Would it be possible for the Home Society to put this amount in Dunkirk? It is a very promising field. I know you are pressed on every hand, but this is an exceptional and pressing opening. Can you not come to our rescue? We must have your help if possible. Stephen J. Corey, Rochester, N. Y.

Massachusetts.—We have suggested as places where large appropriations are desirable, and small ones almost useless at present, Portland, Me.; Providence, R. I.; Bridgeport, Conn.; Manchester, N. H., and Swampscott and Haverhill, Mass. Under the direction of the superintendent of evangelistic work, the work you have suggested (of sending strong men to preach in large halls) could be undertaken where conditions seemed to make it advisable. This was to our minds the best plan to get the larger work under way, but any other plan will be satisfactory which will accomplish the same purpose.

New England has eighty-two cities of over 10,000 inhabitants. We are doing work in only ten of them. R. H. BOLTON, Boston, Mass.

WEST.

WASHINGTON.—Our cause is worthy of help from the Home Board, we believe. We can't live and build. The field is far too promising in prospect to abandon. We will stay till success crowns our efforts, if we can live. The future for this year is bright and the field largely unoccupied by religious workers, hence peculiarly fitted for our plea.

The local official board ask me to write you praying most earnestly for aid. Can your Board send $250 per year to help plant the primitive plea in this great valley? With the aid of $250 per year to start with, we can live and do the work. In two or three years the cause here should be secure if we can have help now. If you can grant this small amount, we are sure we can find a way to get lots and build modestly yet this fall. Our hearts and hands are in the work and we must not turn back.

M. A. THOMPSON, Pastor, Prosser, Wash.

WASHINGTON.—We write to ask for an appropriation of $200 to support a minister here in Wenatchee. We are building a church here, and as the church here numbers only about forty members, they will need some assistance from the Board to support regular work. If the appropriation is made, we secure a minister subject to the approval of the Board. This is the only church in the county (of our people) except a little anti-missionary church in one corner of the county, and we believe by establishing a good church here much can be done toward straightening them out in missionary work. L. F. STEPHENS AND WIFE, Wenatchee, Wash.

OREGON.—Bro. Smith, I know there are many calls on the American Christian Missionary Society, but this is one of the most important towns of southern Oregon. It is a railroad terminal, county-seat of one of our largest counties. Population, 3,500 and growing rapidly. One hundred and fifty new dwellings (mostly good ones, too), put up last year. We have 100 members. Have a good church building paid for, and good, new parsonage all paid for but $850. The brethren can barely pay me $600 per year. As I said, we have 100 members and the M. E. Church about the same, and these two are the strongest churches of Roseburg, hence you see the work here is very hard. GEO. C. RITCHEY, Roseburg, Ore.

IDAHO.—I write to you to make an appeal for aid for the Church of Christ here in Weiser. This is a town of about 3,000 inhabitants, and one of the best in this part of Idaho, being also the county-seat for Washington County, Ida. We are a struggling band of workers, having commenced work to build us a church a little over a year ago. We are few in number, having now on our roll forty-eight and all poor. We have a nice little church house in a most desirable location in town, being on one of the principal streets and near the center of town. Our church property is worth about $2,500, and we are still in debt about $650, which we are struggling to pay.

We have employed Bro. M. H. Wood as pastor, and he has been here since January 1, and he is doing a great work for the church, having almost doubled our membership since coming, and we feel if we were only able to keep him here one year, our church will be self-supporting; but without help we can not do this. Will it be possible for your Board to assist us to the extent of $300 to keep him with us? So far we have had no help from the outside whatever and we have done all that can be done at present here, and $500 per year is all we can raise here.. He can not stay on this salary, and unless your Board can assist us we can not keep him. I hope that you can be able to come to our relief.

As to the importance of this field and its needs, we can refer you to W. E. Bobbitt and the church at Payette, Ida.

Hoping to hear from you soon, I remain,

Yours in His name,

MRS. OLLIE COAKLEY, Church Clerk,
Weiser, Ida.

WYOMING.—Our plea is the only thing that will work in the West. At Moorcroft the Baptists, Methodists and Presbyterians have each tried, and have failed owing to the denominational differences.

You will note that I have had forty-one additions in two months.

We have some fine cities in the Black Hills, and I am informed good prospects for organizing churches.

The denominations have men out here that are giving all their time to organizing churches and doing evangelistic work. It is very much to be regretted that we have not a man to devote his time to such work.

At Upton there was a boy sent in to attend school, fourteen years old, and had never heard a sermon preached. He bravely confessed Christ. People came over ten miles stormy nights to hear the gospel.

Fraternally, W. WALTER MOWER, New Castle, Wyo.

SHALL WE ENTER NEVADA?—Here I am in a city of good people and a great State without the Christian Church. Here we have Nevada State University, three railroads, center of immense mining interests of the State, State Insane Asylum, Packing House, Assay works, railroad shops of the Virginia & Carson Railroad.

Southern Pacific has just laid out a town two or three miles east, located its shops and built the largest round house west of Chicago, accommodating forty engines. A year ago only five little cabins, now nearly 1,000 people and scores of houses going up. The company moving from Wadsworth, and when work begins in the new shops, a great crowd of men will be there. The men expect their last pay-day in Wadsworth this (next) time. The company will own the town and control everything. The new town will be connected with Reno by electric cars. The new town is Sparks, named for the Governor.

In Reno there are several fine blocks going up and the city is bound to grow. Here we can get in touch with the great commercial interests west of Ogden, and as far south as the Mohave desert, and north into Oregon and Idaho. It is 200 miles to the Oregon line, and we have a railroad nearly that far going through California and will continue to build towards Portland.

The State University here will help us touch the educational interests, and there are too many other important things for me to write in my hurry.

The California State Board has sent me to Reno to plant our cause, and will stand at my back for $25 per month. I am to stay here until I can leave a pastor, and I want to get a lot and try to start a building.

Now, the sum of this letter is, can your Society back the new church? We are to have the tent next week and will begin the hardest battle in my ministry.

I want to say to the people that we will give them a spiritual home and that we can have help from the American Christian Missionary Society. This will be a great help to me. I propose to stay here until we get things in shape to be permanent. I don't want to stay long, for I am only insured $25 per month by the California State Board, and the expenses are great I can not hold on long. I wish you would write me quickly a letter to cheer the few members here. You can co-operate through the California State Board.

If we can plant our plea in Reno, we will be on the fighting-line for the western part of the State. Anyhow, let us have one church in the State. This new country will soon open up for us. There are several points where we can start our work if we can get a little backing.

But the first of all let us drive a peg in Reno. It is going to be a desperate pull, but by God's help we think we will get the flag up.

I would be much pleased to hear from you right away. I think there is an opening and a chance we might lose by delay.

ROBERT L. MCHATTON, Reno, Nev.

NORTH.

MICHIGAN.—If Michigan ever needed help, she needs it now. With a $2,000 debt standing against us, our last year's workers unpaid and our missions left without support, we are in need of every dollar that the American Christian Missionary Society can remit.

C. M. KEENE, Paw Paw, Mich.

SOUTH.

NEW MEXICO.—I write to you concerning the work in New Mexico. I understand you have made an appropriation for the work in Albuquerque, and I want to thank you for that too. Doubtless your calls are beyond what you can answer now, but I want to register one more for New Mexico, that it may come in its turn. So many people are flocking to this great sanitarium and so many of our people are being lost to our cause.

In many places we have a few, and I have had letters from some of our good preachers who need to come here for health, who would be willing to go and try it in some of these places with a little help. I wish the Board could help get these places and preachers together and stand behind the work for a time.

D. B. TITUS, Carlsbad, N. M.

TEXAS.—I wrote you sometime since about Bro. Martinez, a consecrated man who came to us from the M. E. Church. I wish it were possible for the Board to give some support. We are renting a good building through the generosity of a good friend to the work where Martinez lives and conducts the mission work, Sunday-school and prayer-meeting and preaching. It will be possible soon for us to organize a church of from ten to fifteen members. By reason of building our new church, a splendid property worth $25,000, we are straining every nerve, yet giving all we can to this work, and Martinez is giving all the time possible to it. If he were fully supported, we could expect a more numerous work and result.

I wish the Home Board would take the matter under advisement.

E. M. WAITS, El Paso, Tex.

MISSISSIPPI.—This is truly a mission field. If your Board deserts us, send a man to preach our funeral. Fact is, Bro. Smith, there is no place in the United States where help will count for more than in Mississippi for the next few years. W. W. PHARES, Jackson, Miss.

SOUTH CAROLINA.—Since Bro. Sale came we have had three additions, one every Lord's Day. I presume you know that the C. E. Societies jointly (Senior and Junior) have pledged to support a native helper in Porto Rico to the amount of $7.75 per month; first payment will be sent you on the 1st inst. The writer is endeavoring to make this church strictly missionary, although considerable opposition. My theory is that the Lord helps those who help others and not themselves. It would help us wonderfully if you could help us to the amount of $300 for the first year toward the pastor's salary, while we are building. If you possibly can do it, I pledge you that so long as I have any influence in this church Home Missions shall come to the front. You can't afford to let a work go down-hill in the conservative State. We are all looking forward to greater things. The reason why we ask this help from the Board is because two-thirds of the membership are unable to give, being very poor, and the burden is so hard on a few of us. I trust that you will give this appeal your careful and prayerful consideration, and help us to move forward in the cities of South Carolina.

JOSEPH W. HELMS, Sumter, S. C.

Wrote you a few days ago with an appeal for $300 for one year, or $25 a month, toward the support of a minister here, as three-fourths of our members can give very little, and now that we are undertaking to build it will be difficult for us to sustain a pastor, without which we will die. The money will be well spent here. I know that you will be unable to do this before the Convention, but if you would commence with the month of November we could manage to pull through, although the burden is on a very few of us now.

Hope you will not turn us down; if you can help us, the young people can give more to Porto Rico.

Yours fraternally,

JOSEPH W. HELMS, Sumter, S. C.

I asked Bro. Brooks if he would not evangelize in Alabama one year, beginning the middle of next November, in connection with Bro. Spiegel. Bro. Brooks and Bro. Spiegel agreed to attempt to take Alabama for Christ with the help of our State and General Boards. Bro. Brooks is already engaged far into the new year at $60 a week for many meetings, but is willing to meet us, ready for work, at Oxford in November, provided we can back the combination to the extent of $3,000. Of this amount, we hope to induce the General Board, through Benj. L. Smith, to appropriate $1,200. Brooks and Spiegel will take pledges and collections for State work in their meetings, rendering full accounts of all receipts to our treasurer. These collections to be made not less than once weekly, and oftener, as their judgment dictates.

This is the day of great things. We can, on this plan properly carried out, save a thousand souls in Alabama next year at the least calculation, and establish a dozen or more missionary churches, besides strengthening greatly all those already established.

Brooks will call in all appointments after November 15, or turn them over to some of the other general evangelists, and come with all the power he possesses, and I must tell you, it is great.

Now as to the scheme. We have discussed from all view-points, and we think that the first half of the year should be devoted to big meetings from four to eight weeks, at Anniston, Birmingham and suburbs, Selma and Mobile, in the order named. Why? In order to have a grand ingathering at our central points, and to reap the benefits that the newspapers and other notoriety of such meetings will give us. Then all the smaller places will be loudly calling for meetings, will be anxious for them, and the second half of the year can be devoted to them—such as Greenville, Talladega, Decatur, Athens, Huntsville, Jasper, Demopolis, etc., etc., in meetings of from two to three weeks. I believe the scheme is not only feasible, but it would not surprise me in the least were it self-sustaining.

J. W. HENRY, Anniston, Ala.

If the brethren would entrust us with adequate means, we would change the religious aspect in Northern California in ten years; we would do the same in Oregon and Washington; in the Dakotas, in Nebraska and Kansas; in ten years Indian Territory can be ours, if we really want it. It is possible for us to be the dominant religious force in Texas in a decade. Conditions were never so favorable as they are to-day.

If the brotherhood would entrust us with the means, we could double our present membership in the cities in ten years. Will we be permitted to do this work?

The demand for men—earnest, single-hearted, capable, consecrated—who can serve for a small compensation, continues far in excess of the supply. We need to continue to pray the Lord of the harvest to send forth laborers.

The Society is simply an agency to represent the united efforts of the brotherhood. As an agent, it pledges itself to loyalty to the work of Home Missions: loyalty to the simple New Testament faith and loyalty to the brotherhood which it represents. To do the work of Home Missions is the supreme thing.

THE NEEDS OF THE FUTURE.

There is no missionary need at the present time greater than a revival of the spirit of consecration of money to the service of the kingdom. Our brotherhood is growing in numbers and in wealth, but we are not growing fast enough in the grace of giving.

In 1873 our brethren gave $25,928.16 for missions, including gifts to State Boards of Missions. In 1883 the total reached $105,219.24; in 1893 the total was $229,709.13; in 1903 the total was $645,110.10; this includes Home Missions, Foreign Missions, C. W. B. M., Church Extension and State Missions.

In 1904 there was raised for Home Missions alone, by the Presbyterian Board of Home Missions, $820,606.20; by the Congregational Board of Home Missions, $675,486; by the Baptist Board of Home Missions, $517,213.37; by our State and National Boards, $312,389.63.

Let us thank God for growth; let us pray God for larger growth in this grace of helping Christ win his own in America, that through America he may win the world.

The second great need in missions is the ability to recognize that this is our day of visitation. Our spies—our home missionaries—have visited this good land; they have seen giants of entrenched evil; its walled cities of sin; but they have also gathered the grapes from many an Eshcol. We have organized churches, each one a ripe cluster of grapes; they bring you the ripe fruits of the land, and they say with the courage of Joshua and Caleb: "We are able to take it, if so be the Lord delight in us." And, indeed, brethren, with the strong sword of truth we are able to win America to Christ—if we will. There never was a greater opportunity before any people than before our people to-day; let us enter; let us not go back into any wilderness wandering; let us carry the winning plea from victory to victory; let us press the creed that needs no revision upon the hearts and faith of our fellow-men. Let us work while it is called to-day, firmly believing that God will answer the prayers of his Son and our Saviour, that all his people may be one as the Father and Son are one, and then the world will be taught to believe thatGod sent him.

Brethren, the conversion of the world awaits the united Church of Christ in America, and God has committed to us in trust the plea and platform of Christian union. May we be found faithful to this trust. Now is our day of visitation, our day of opportunities, our day of judgment. God help us to realize this solemn trust.

RECOMMENDED CHANGES IN CONSTITUTION.

We recommend that Article X. of the Constitution, reading as follows, "Article X. The Society shall elect annually persons to serve as a Board of Education, five of whom shall reside in or near Chicago. This Board shall appoint its own meetings, make rules for its government, and elect its own officers, who shall report annually to the Society. They shall perform the duties usually pertaining to educational boards, chief among which are the collection and dissemination of facts pertaining to the educational interests of the Disciples of Christ, and the creation and the administration of a fund for assistance of students preparing for Christian work," be stricken out of the Constitution, and the remaining articles be numbered consecutively. This matter has been met by the organization of the American Christian Missionary Society.

We recommend that Article XII. of the Constitution, reading as follows, "Article XII. All Life Directors and Life Members of the American Christion Missionary Society shall be members of this Society," be stricken out and the remaining articles be numbered consecutively. This was in the Constitution of the General Christian Missionary Convention, and is superfluous, as this is the American Christian Missionary Society.

EVANGELISM.

There is a rising tide in the matter of evangelism throughout the Protestant bodies of the country.

Our Presbyterian friends have organized an evangelistic movement under the leadership of a Committee of Evangelism, with J. Wilbur Chapman as its secretary.

The Baptist Board of Home Missions has undertaken to lead a movement for evangelism in that body of believers.

We rejoice in the prominent place given to evangelism in our church papers, and especially the great evangelistic campaign led by the Christian Standard.

Last year we organized at Detroit a Board of Evangelism, with headquarters at Des Moines, Ia., under the presidency of Bro. H. O. Breeden. After consultation, Bro. Breeden submitted the following to Bro. S. M. Cooper, the chairman of your Acting Board of Managers:

PROPOSED UNION BETWEEN THE BOARD OF EVANGELISM AND THE AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

To the Acting Board of Managers of the American Christian Missionary Society, Cincinnati, O.

DEAR BRETHREN:—Pursuant to the tentative agreement reached between S. M. Cooper, President of your Board, and H. O. Breeden, President of the National Board of Evangelism, in St. Louis, on June 2, 1904, and in obedience to the request of Bro. Cooper, that this Board formulate plans outlined in this conference, we respectfully submit the following basis of union of the two National Boards, subject to the approval of the National Convention to be held in St. Louis in October.

First—The National Board of Evangelism resigns all its functions as a distinct Board, and becomes a standing Committee of Evangelism of the American Christian Missionary Society. All collections for evangelism and moneys expended for same shall pass through the treasury of the American Christian Missionary Society. All reports shall be made to the Acting Board of the American Christian Missionary Society, according to the constitution of the American Christian Missionary Society.

The Evangelistic Committee shall be located at Des Moines, and its chief function shall be the promotion of evangelism. It will undertake the management of evangelistic rallies and the organization of campaigns in cities, etc., etc.

The selection of evangelists shall be made by the Standing Committee, subject to the approval of the Acting Board.

The Acting Board of the American Christian Missionary Society agrees to set apart a certain definite sum, not less than $5,000 the first year, to be increased, with the increased income of the American Christian Missionary Society for the promotion of evangelism through its standing committee, and, in addition, it will appropriate for this cause all special offerings made by the brotherhood for this department of evangelism.

It is understood that W. J. Wright, of Washington, D. C., shall be elected Superintendent of Evangelism, with headquarters at Cincinnati, and his salary and expenses shall be paid by the American Christian Missionary Society.

The present Evangelistic Board shall constitute the Evangelistic Committee until the next General Convention.

It is stipulated that $900. now in the treasury of the Evangelistic Board, the gift of General Drake, shall be turned over to the treasury of the American Christian Missionary Society, to be kept as the nucleus of a permanent Evangelistic Fund.

Respectfully submitted, with approval by the National Board of Evangelism.

H. O. BREEDEN.

The Acting Board of the American Christian Missionary Society endorse this agreement and hereby refer it to the National Convention for ratification.

In anticipation of the favorable action of the Convention upon this much-to-be-desired union of all our efforts for the evangelization of America, your Board has called Bro. W. J. Wright to this service, that he might have opportunity to plan his work and begin at once.

His duties are those of a Superintendent of Evangelism: (a) To quicken interest in evangelism through conferences and co-operation with pastors and others at central points; at State and district meetings, summer assemblies and ministerial associations..

(b) To plan evangelistic compaigns covering cities and districts, and render whatever services he can to make them successful.

(c) To secure the assistance of evangelists of recognized ability, and in every commendable way quicken the work of evangelism throughout our brotherhood.

(d) To discover and utilizez men of exceptional ability and adaptation for special features of work, as, for instance, work among our foreign populations, work in our great cities, work on the frontiers, mountain work.

(e) To visit our colleges and Bible schools, and hold conferences with the students on evangelism, with the concurrence, of course, of the heads of these institutions.

For the furtherance of these objects, the Society earnestly appeals to those who are able to give largely or but little, for liberal offerings in addition to the amount usually given for the work of Home Missions. This work can not be done without larger resources than are now at the command of the Society.

Because of what was done last year and what remains to be done, we ask for a full and careful study of this work of evangelism.

In conjunction with the proposed Standing Committee on Evangelism, we are going to urge upon our various State and district conventions, upon our congregations and ministers, a deepening of the spirit of evangelism and earnest co-operation in a mighty evangelistic campaign throughout our entire brotherhood.

We shall urge that pastors and churches unite in making the coming years years of earnest, aggressive, persistent evangelistic effort.

We ask that the month of November be marked by our churches as a season of special prayer, for the blessing of our God upon this special work of evangelism; that he may "revive us again, that thy people may rejoice in thee;" that he will give us souls for our hire in order that his name be honored; that his church may be built up and souls be saved by the gospel and grace of God, and that, wherever possible, this season of prayer be accompanied and followed by direct personal gifts and by efforts to win men to Christ.

We ask that churches release their pastors for brief periods for needed service in other fields, and that pastors be urged to assist each other in special evangelistic meetings.

Considerable difficulty is found in securing capable men, efficient and acceptable, to labor in this work for the modest compensation offered, it being freely admitted that evangelists who devote their time to the larger churches usually receive much larger compensations than the Society is able to offer them.

The Missionary Society desires to be simply a voice of encouragement, and "speak to the children of Israel that they move forward;" to be a pillar of cloud by day and of fire by night, to mark the direction of our going; and our hope is that God may use the Society and the Secretaries, the Standing Committee, and the beloved W. J. Wright, as His agents in this mighty work of soul-saving.

PROBLEMS IN HOME MISSIONS.

There are three problems before us in Home Missions—the financial problem, the problem of the foreigners among us, and the problem of evangelization.

The attempt toward the solution of the problem of evangelization is presented in the creation of a special department of evangelization and the calling of W. J. Wright—a specialist—to the oversight of that work.

The problem of our foreign population should have our most careful study and our earnest efforts; as yet we have not touched the edges of this great problem.

The financial problem is the problem of the removal of a mountain—it comes only by faith; by that faith which wrestles until the breaking of the day, saying, "'I will not let thee go until thou bless me." We must thus wrestle with 4,000 preachers who did not take the offering for Home Missions last year; we must remove the mountain of indifference from them and cast it into the sea of reformation.

CONCLUSION.

The outlook for the new year is full of hope and promise in proportion as the brotherhood shall realize our responsibility for the evangelization of the country. The doors are wide open. How fast and how far we may be permitted to enter depends on the responses which the churches shall make to our appeals; we can not burden the Society with a great debt.

We are ready to assume large responsibilities in all the various departments of Home Missions: in city evangelization; in frontier work; in going to the East with the plea; in laying foundations for a large work among the foreign populations, or in leading and organizing a mighty evangelistic movement throughout the whole land, just as rapidly as the brotherhood will sustain us by their offerings for these great purposes.

If you have deemed us faithful in the little things, we ask to be entrusted with larger gifts, that we may do more work for our King.

Respectfully submitted for the Acting Board,

S. M. COOPER, Chairman.

AMOS CLIFFORD, Treasurer.

EXPLANATORY.

We are glad to report a contribution of $500 from our esteemed Treasurer, Mr. Amos Clifford, of Indianapolis, Ind. Also from the estate of a good sister, Mrs. Susan D. Holmes, deceased, of Johnson County, Ind., the sum of $3,000 to this fund.

In explanation of our Permanent Fund Statement, which, after the additions of the present year, is less than the amount shown by the report of last year, it may be said that the Board holds warranty deeds for real estate, subject to the life interest of the donors, estimated at $14,500. Of this amount the report of last year included $3,375. It also included the $500 gift of Mr. Clifford, then held in note.

We received more money, paid out more money, and assisted more persons within the past year, than in any year of our previous history. The demands on this Board are continually increasing, and we are encouraged to believe that the general interest is growing. We ought to increase the amounts some of our people are receiving. If the preachers will interest themselves in the necessity and recognize the dignity of this work, the brotherhood will meet the demands. HOWARD CALE, President.

NOTE THIS CHANGE.—Send all communications, and make all moneys payable, to Board of Ministerial Relief, 120 E. Market St., Indianapolis, Ind.

LIST OF MISSIONARY PROTRACTED MEETINGS.

This shows a total of 372 meetings; with 6,225 sermons, 4,191 received on profession of faith and baptism and 2,291 received otherwise; unclassified, 183; a total of 6,665 additions and labor equal to fourteen years six months and twenty-seven days.

It is our purpose to continue this effort. We firmly believe that every minister should endeavor to hold at least one protracted meeting each year for his own sake as well as for the sake of the souls he might save.

The Convention then heard a solo by Miss Ida M. Hanna, of Cincinnati, O.

George H. Combs, of Kansas City, Mo., made an address on "The New Crusade."

The Corresponding Secretary introduced the following home missionaries, who each spoke two minutes in behalf of his particular field: S. R. Hawkins, Indian Territory; F. A. Bright, Western Pennsylvania; T. W. Pinkerton, Salt Lake City, Utah; C. E. Smith, Charleston, S. C.; W. O. Stephens, Louisiana; J. A. Joyce, Meadville, Pa.; E. S. Muckley, Portland, Ore.; E. C. COMMITTEE ON RECOMMENDATIONS.

The Committee on Recommendations, through its chairman, D. R. Dungan, brought in its report, which was amended by striking out a recommendation of the adoption of "The Church of Christ" as a uniform name for our congregations in deeds to property and "Christian" as a uniform appellation for our members. Other modifications being considered necessary, the report was referred back to the committee.

ON UNION WITH THE FREE BAPTISTS.

S. H. Bartlett, Corresponding Secretary of the Ohio Christian Missionary Society, read the following statement:

To the Convention of the American Christian Missionary Society, in St. Louis:

BRETHREN—On the fifth day of September of this year there was held in the city of Cleveland an informal meeting of ministers and members of the Churches of Christ in and about Cleveland, and ministers and members of the Free Baptist Church in and about Cleveland, and a number of other Free Baptists, who were en route to their General Conference about to assemble in Hillsdale, Mich., to consider matters relating to the union of the Free Baptists and the Disciples of Christ.

At this meeting a committee was appointed to attend the General Conference of the Free Baptists at Hillsdale, and bear fraternal greetings, and to request that both the General Conference of the Free Baptist Church and the Convention of the American Christian Missionary Society appoint committees of twelve representative brethren to act as a joint committee of twenty-four, to consider all questions relating to the union of the two bodies and report to the bodies they each represent.

The committee consisted of E. B. Wakefield, President of Hiram College; J. A. Lord, editor of the Christian Standard; L. M. Sniff, President of Angola Normal School; C. J. Tannar, pastor of the First Church of Christ, Detroit, Mich., and S. H. Bartlett, Cleveland, O. This committee was granted power to add to its number, and Z. T. Sweeney, of Columbus, Ind., and W. B. Taylor, of Ionia, Mich., were added. All of the members of the committee attended the meeting at Hillsdale.

The reception of the committee at Hillsdale was most cordial, and the committee of twelve was appointed by the General Conference of the Free Baptist Church. This Convention is therefore requested to take like action.

S. H. BARTLETT, Sec. of the Committee.

Bro. George H. Ball, of Keuka, N. Y., offered credentials from the General Conference of Free Will Baptist churches as follows:

"This is to certify that Rev. Geo. H. Ball, D. D., of Keuka, N. Y., has been elected delegate and Rev. G. A. Gordon, of Illinois, alternate, to represent the General Conference of Free Baptists to the Church of Christ body, and as such we commend them to your confidence and fellowship."

The following is the action taken by our General Conference held at Hillsdale, Mich., on September 6-14, 1904:

The Committee on Denomination respectfully recommends—As to union with other bodies, that so much of the action of the Twenty-sixth General Conference, held at Marion, O., in 1886, be reaffirmed as follows:

1. We believe in the spiritual unity of all the followers of our divine Lord, and desire so to manifest his spirit as to evince our unity with him and with all who love him.

2. We are ready to form such alliances with other Christian bodies as may promise larger results in advancing our Lord's kingdom.

3. We regard loyalty to Christ and the Bible, and the independence of the local church as a basis on which closer relationship with other Christian bodies may be obtained.

Further, we recommend the following statements:

1. Inasmuch, as our denomination consists of a membership widely scattered, stands for a standard of truth conscientiously held and dearly loved, and possesses a sacred trust inherited in part from the past, we welcome no overtures for union, deem no discussions of union and no movements for union wise, or honorable to all the interests involved which do not contemplate and do not promote the union of the whole denomination as a body, and not the union or consolidation of local churches and associations which would be denominational disintegration. We, therefore, commend the brethren, who in the spirit of denominational loyalty have referred questions of union, which have arisen in their own localities to the denominational head, the General Conference, and commend this policy of action to all our brethren everywhere, viz.: to refer all proposals and plans of union to General Conference, that action, when taken, if at all, may be the action of the whole, and not of a part.

We further recommend the following statements:

1. No union can promise peace and efficiency which does not allow liberty of conscience, and hence the independence of the local church in the observance of the holy communion, and in the settling other questions of difference which may exist between us and other bodies.

2. No union can be safely and rightfully contemplated which does not conserve the moral and legal responsibilities, which have been entered into by the denomination in accepting gifts, donations and bequests specified for definite purposes. We are a corporation, as well as an ecclesiastical body: we have vested interests, some in the name of General Conference, some in the name of lesser incorporations, all aggregating many thousands of dollars, all to be safeguarded and preserved for the interests of the kingdom of God, and for the purposes for which they were received.

We recommend that to our brethren of the Church of Christ, or Disciples, we express our cordial regards and fraternal greetings, and in the overtures of the committee of the Cleveland Ministerial Association of the Disciples of Christ recognize the spirit of union for which our Master prayed. In view of these overtures, and advances of a similar character, made by other bodies:

We recommend that twelve members of the denomination be appointed, as a standing committee on Conference with other Christian people, to meet similar committees, which may be appointed by other bodies, and consult respecting doctrinal and other grounds of union; this committee to report to the next session of General Conference.

Meantime, while our relations with other Christian people may be examined, we recommend to the brethren of our denomination the faithful and hopeful cultivation of our field, ours by the good providence of God, ours by the very tasks imposed and burdens and sacrifices entailed, ours by the successes and blessings already won, ours by the cheer and encouragement so abundantly manifest in this session of General Conference.

Dated at West Bowdoin, Me., the thirtieth day of September, A. D. 1904.

N. S. PURINTON,
Clerk of General Conference of Free Baptists.

COMMITTEE ON UNION WITH FREE BAPTISTS.

Dr. G. W. Ball, of the Free Baptist Church, was then introduced, and made an address upon the desirability of the union of the two bodies, stating the great doctrines on which we are united with such clearness and force that he was frequently interrupted by enthusiastic applause. The feeling was general as we rose to sing "Blest Be the Tie that Binds," that this morning marks an unusual stride toward the fulfillment of our Saviour's prayer. The President was instructed to appoint the committee of twelve, as recommended by the former committee.

President Sweeney appointed the following committee of twelve to confer with a like committee of Free Baptists:

E. B. Wakefield	Ohio.	J. S. Sweeney	Kentucky.
Robt. Moffett		M. E. Harlan	New York.
D. R. Dungan	Missouri.	J. S. Gray	Michigan.
J. H. Hardin		N. S. Haynes	Nebraska.
L. M. Sniff	Indiana.	J. M. Van Horn	Massachusetts.
I. L. Carpenter		W. F. Cowden	Washington.

The session was adjourned with prayer by T. P. Haley.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 18TH—AFTERNOON.

The afternoon session was opened by George Darsie, of Massillon, O., F. H. Kappa, of Louisville, Ky., leading the singing, and President Z. T. Sweeney occupying the chair.

W. M. White, of San Francisco, led in prayer.

Mrs. Princess Long sang a gospel patriotic melody that was warmly received.

The President, with felicitous words, presented to the Convention C. L. Loos, James Leslie and John Augustus Williams, veterans of the first Convention of 1849.

Then followed an evangelistic hour in charge of W. J. Wright, of Washington, D. C.

Brief addresses were made as follows:

Evangelism, The Work of the Church—Allen Wilson, Independent Evangelist.

Evangelism, The Source of Our Growth and Power—W. E. Harlow, Independent Evangelist.

Evangelism, The Old Message for the New Century—W. J. Cocke, State Evangelist, Ga.

What Evangelism Has Done for Christ and the Church—F. A. Bright, Evangelist, Western Pennsylvania.

Evangelistic Problems Past and Present—Charles Reign Scoville, Chicago.

What Evangelism Ought to Do for Christ and the Church—O. P. Spiegel, Southern Evangelist.

The Future of Evangelism—W. T. Brooks, Independent Evangelist.

REPORT OF THE NATIONAL BOARD OF EVANGELISM.

Immediately following the Detroit Convention which created this Board, and committed to it the grave trust of taking the initial steps of organizing evangelism among the Disciples of Christ, the Board met in Des Moines for action.

The departure from Iowa of J. P. McKnight and his resignation from the Board, made a vacancy which was filled by the election of D. F. Givens, a wise and consecrated business man of Des Moines.

H. O. Breeden was elected President, D. F. Givens, Secretary, and Edwin A. Nye, Treasurer. The Board found itself fronting great issues and most difficult problems. It was utterly without forces and resources. Its task was to call from chaos into systematic order and efficient service and organization for the promotion and direction of evangelism among the Churches of Christ.

Our first problem was to secure a competent, consecrated and commanding superintendent. To aid us in this matter, the judgment of the leading brethren of the brotherhood was invoked. When we finally decided upon the man for the work, we discovered that he was the servant of another organization which refused to release him to our Board.

In the meantime, we proceeded to organize a Bureau of Evangelism—a clearing-house of information, which will soon, we trust, be of untold value to the brotherhood in securing evangelists fitted to various fields and needs.

2. The selection and creation of valuable literature of evangelism also engaged the attention and energies of the Board. The Board hopes soon to be able to publish a catalogue of helpful books and tracts of our own, and from other religious bodies, which we trust will serve the double purpose of stimulating an evangelistic campaign and revealing approved and resultful methods.

3. The Board planned and took initial steps toward the holding of evangelistic rallies in strategic centers for the inspiration of pastors to engage in this work and the exploitation of methods, but postponed its effort because of the lateness of the season and the delay in securing the superintendent. The organization of simultaneous campaigns for the cities is a most inviting work for this Board. We have planned such campaigns for various cities, and expect to begin their execution in the city of Chicago in the near future, as an aid to the Chicago Christian Missionary Society.

The removal to the church triumphant of the greatest benefactor of the church militant, and the wisest member of this Board, soon after it was created, was a serious blow to our plans and prospects. He was our chief—indeed, our only—dependence for financial resources to carry on this work the first year. Indeed, Gen. F. M. Drake had indicated his intention of starting a permanent fund for evangelism with a gift of $5,000; just before his death he made us a verbal promise of $1,000 as an immediate gift, and this amount was paid by his family after his death. Only $100 of this gift has been used, and this Board asks the Convention to keep the whole amount intact as the nucleus of a permanent fund.

Your Board of Evangelism, after a year's serious study of our problems and conditions, and the relation of this work to other great organizations of the brotherhood, as well as the operations of similar movements in other religious bodies, is thoroughly convinced of the wisdom of merging this Board with the American Christian Missionary Society, and its continued operation by a standing committee on evangelism as a department of that body, and have so recommended to the Convention as you have been advised by the Corresponding Secretary's report.

We surrender our trust to the Convention, pained and grieved that we have not been able to do more, but conscious that we have done the best possible under the conditions we have had to meet, and more than ever convinced that the supreme need of the church is the mobilization of its forces for the active propaganda of evangelism.

H. O. BREEDEN, President.

Continuing and completing the consideration of this general theme, J. H. O. Smith gave an address on "Seeing the Multitudes."

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM.

The report of the Committee on Evangelism was read by S. M. Martin and unanimously adopted, as follows:

Your committee to whom was referred that part of the report of the American Christian Missionary Society, concerning the union of the National Board of Evangelism with the American Christian Missionary Society, hereby recommend:

1. A ratification of the tentative agreement made between the two Boards and reported on pages 77 and 78 of the Report of the Acting Board.

2. We also recommend the present Board of Evangelism as the standing committee for the next year, substituting the name of C. S. Medbury for that of Gen. F. M. Drake, deceased.

3. We also recommend that the American Christian Missionary Society set apart $1,000, representing the gift of Gen. F. M. Drake, as a permanent fund in his name, as recommended by the retiring Board of Evangelism.

J. H. O. SMITH, S. M. MARTIN,
W. J. WRIGHT, H. O. BREEDEN, Committee.

REPORT OF BOARD OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

The report of the Board of Ministerial Relief was presented by the Secretary, A. L. Orcutt, who announced that the free-will offering made for this fund at the Sunday afternoon communion service amounted to one thousand dollars. The report was adopted. (A copy of this report can be had by addressing A. L. Orcutt, 120 E. Market St., Indianapolis, Ind.)

The address in behalf of this ministry was then made by W. F. Richardson, who characterized it "Our Unacknowledged Debt."

O. A. Bartholomew pronounced the benediction.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 18TH.—EVENING.

At 7:45 P. M. the Convention gathered in the Coliseum, Exposition Building, for the evening session.

The song service was led by W. Daviess Pittman, with the Century Chorus Choir. Vice-President E. B. Bagby was in the chair.

Dr. W. A. Alton led in prayer.

The address for Church Extension, on "Sermons in Stone," was made by E. L. Powell, of Louisville, Ky.

The Convention then heard the President's address, "Our Country and Our Cause," by Z. T. Sweeney, of Columbus, Ind.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 19TH.—MORNING.

Wednesday morning, October 19, the Convention reassembled at 9 o'clock. E. B. Bagby, of Washington, D. C., occupied the chair.

Percy M. Kendall, of Irvington, Ind., led the singing in the praise service conducted by J. H. Wright, of Woodbine, Ia.

The Committee on Recommendations, through its chairman, D. R. Dungan, presented its report, which was adopted as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RECOMMENDATIONS.

We, your Committee on Recommendations, beg leave to submit the following report:

1. That we accept the greetings of the Free Baptist Church with proper acknowledgments. And that we appoint a committee of twelve representative brethren, to confer with a like committee already chosen by their Conference respecting a union of the two bodies. Said committee of twelve to be appointed by the President.

2. That we extend like invitations to other religious bodies, especially the Baptists and Congregationalists and Christian Connection of the United States.

3. As we are greatly in need of preachers and missionaries, we recommend that the third Lord's Day in January in each year shall be a day of consecration; that, in all our churches, that shall be the subject of sermons and prayers, and that it be regarded the duty of our preachers and churches to urge their best young men and young women to thus devote themselves to the work of the Lord.

We further recommend that they prepare themselves for the ministry and missionary work, by taking a thorough course in our own schools.

4. We recommend that the Convention be held in Buffalo, N. Y., in 1906.

5. We recommend that the amendments to the Constitution, as presented in the report of the Acting Board, be adopted.

Respectfully submitted,

D. R. DUNGAN, M. M. GOODE,
W. J. RUSSELL, F. F. BULLARD,
S. L. DARSIE, Committee.

H. H. Harmon read the report of the Committee on Resolutions, which was adopted as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

Be it Resolved:

1. That we express our gratitude to God for the progress achieved in all our missionary, educational and benevolent organizations for the past year, and that we rejoice in the continuous enlargement in both the Home and Foreign Fields.

We recognize with approval the earnest and untiring efforts of the Secretaries of our Boards, and of all who have united with them in achieving great victories for our Lord.

2. That we owe it to the church of the future to enlist the boys and girls in the great work of Home Missions. Resolved, that we urge upon the Sunday-schools a more general observance of Boys' and Girls' Rally Day.

3. That we acknowledge gratefully the provisions made by the brethren of St. Louis, under the leadership of Bro. W. H. McClain, for the holding of this Convention. That we appreciate the helpful service rendered by the Century Chorus Choir. That we are grateful for the kind hospitality shown by the citizens of St. Louis, in opening their homes for our entertainment.

4. Thanks are due and tendered to the Hon. D. R. Francis, President, and the Directorate of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition Co., for courtesies extended to the local committees and this Convention.

Also we thank Mr. Frank R. Tate, President of the Coliseum Musical Co., for co-operation with the local committee, in the arrangement of the hall for the convenience and accommodation of our Convention, and its affiliated interests.

We wish to extend thanks to Colonel Kenny, Commander of the First Regiment of Missouri Volunteers, for the use of the Armory for Convention purposes and the officers' quarters for a rest-room.

5. That we appreciate the spirit of brotherly love shown by the churches of this city in opening their pulpits to our ministers.

6. That we are thankful for the space given by the press of St. Louis in their reports of this Convention.

7. We recognize in the liquor traffic an enemy of the home, the church and the state, and record our unceasing opposition to it, and our unalterable determination to use all honorable means to secure its complete destruction. Further, that we deplore the present rage of the gambling spirit that is now sweeping over our country, and we recommend that our ministers declare themselves from the pulpits against this evil.

8. That we rejoice in the growing spirit of Christian fellowship among all the followers of Christ. Especially do we rejoice in the presence of the fraternal delegates representing the Free Baptist Association in this Convention, and in the prospect that the barriers which have stood in the way of the complete unity between these two religious bodies will soon be removed.

9. In view of the fact that our Convention has grown to be so large that it becomes necessary in most cases for churches to know far in advance of its coming, and inasmuch as an invitation has come to the Convention to meet with the church in Buffalo, N. Y., be it resolved that it is the sense of this Convention that we should accept the invitation from Buffalo for the Convention in 1906.

10. In view of the awful struggle which has been in progress during the sitting of this Convention between Russia and Japan, in the bloody battles in Manchuria, it is the sense of this Convention that the time has come when Christians, at least, should speak upon the subject of war with a loud voice. The carnage of the recent battles has simply been appalling, and certainly this is a propitious time for a great Convention like this to exert its influence against the continuance of this outrage upon the Christianity of Christ.

Be it therefore resolved: 1. That we recommend to our Government the great importance of taking such steps as will bring about peaceful arbitration, by which all national difficulties may be settled without a resort to arms. 2. That this resolution be forwarded to the President of the United States, signed by the President and the Secretary of this Convention.

Respectfully submitted,

The Standing Committee on the Centennial Celebration of 1909 reported through its chairman, J. H. Garrison. The report, as follows, was adopted:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CENTENNIAL.

Your Committee on Centennial, appointed three years ago by the Minneapolis Convention, to consider and report upon some suitable method of celebrating the completion of the first century of our religious movement, submitted its report a year thereafter, at the Omaha Convention. The report was approved and the committee was made a standing committee to promote the carrying out of its recommendations, and was instructed to make annual reports to this Convention of the progress which has been made. This your committee did last year at Detroit, showing most encouraging progress along all the lines of our work.

We need not recapitulate here the special features of the proposed celebration, further than to say that it embraces a large increase in college endowments, in missionary offerings, Home and Foreign, in our benevolent work, in church erection and liquidation of church debts in the circulation of our religious journals, in more systematic efforts to evangelize our own country, and, in addition to all this and as essential to it, the deepening of the spiritual life of our churches and the practical exemplification, in our individual and church life, of the principles which we advocate.

In pursuance of the instruction of the Convention, we submit our annual report of progress, together with some recommendations. In all departments of our mission work, Home and Foreign, State and District, the total amount last year was $681,065. This year the amount is $770,717, showing a gain of $89,652.

In education and benevolence the total amount given last year was $339,000. This year the amount is $548,826, showing a gain of $209,826, and $205,286 of this gain has been in college endowments and buildings.

We have no figures on hand showing the amount of money paid for church erection, aside from the loans of the Church Extension Board, nor the amount of church debts liquidated during the past year. We know, however, that there has been the usual activity in both these directions.

On the whole, therefore, it would appear that we are making reasonable progress in the increase of our liberality toward the general enterprises of the church. We have not reached yet, however, the limit of our ability or our responsibility in this direction, and probably will not until the brethren generally have adopted some systematic and conscientious method of giving of their substance to the Lord's work. We trust this matter will receive the prayerful consideration of all who recognize themselves as stewards of the manifold grace of God.

We believe, too, there is a constant and steady growth in spiritual mindedness, and an increasing desire on the part of both preachers and people for a deeper spiritual life and a closer walk with God. This is manifested in our increasing liberality, in our evangelistic zeal, in our greater exemption from hurtful controversies, in the growing peace and unity of the churches, and in our more orderly and spiritual worship.

Your committee, with the view of carrying out more effectively their purpose of celebrating in a worthy manner the centennial of our movement, would recommend as follows:

1. That the brethren everywhere adopt the practice of giving a definite per cent. of their income—not less than one-tenth of their net income—for the advancement of the kingdom of God.

2. That we recommend to our missionary, educational and benevolent boards the plan of co-operating in supporting a strong man who shall devote himself from now until our centennial to stimulating special gifts for our centennial offering in behalf of these various general enterprises, provided they can find the man and can agree upon some equitable basis for his support.

3. That your committee be authorized to prepare, or have prepared by some suitable person, a history of our religious reformation during its first century, to be completed by the time of our Centennial Convention in 1909, without involving any of our societies in any financial obligations.

4. That the ministers be requested to call the attention of their congregations to this centennial movement, and seek to awaken a general interest among the churches in behalf of the proposed centennial celebration.

5. Your committee believes that with the freshly awakened zeal in New Testament evangelism, and with the more systematic plan of promoting and carrying on the work of evangelization, we ought to double our membership within the next five years, or by the time of our Centennial.

6. No less zeal should be manifested in training these converts, "teaching them to observe all things whatsoever" Christ has commanded. To this end Bible study should be encouraged, and a special effort be made to have every member read the New Testament through carefully.

7. An attempt should be made to circulate a million copies of "The Declaration and Address," that the present generation may understand the genesis and genius of our religious reformation.

8. That in order to secure the co-operation of a local committee to aid in the necessary preparation for our centennial celebration, we hereby and now designate Pittsburg, Pa., as the city where we will hold our National Convention in 1909.

9. Finally, we renew and urge our former recommendation, that we seek to give a worthier exemplification in our lives and characters of the pure Christianity for which we plead, as the best possible preparation for marking with suitable gifts and achievements the first century of our history as a religious movement.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE NATIONAL SUPERINTENDENT OF CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR AMONG THE DISCIPLES OF CHRIST,

ST. LOUIS, MO., OCTOBER 15, 1904.

Dear Brethren and Sisters of the Convention:—I present to you my second annual report as National Superintendent of our Christian Endeavor.

In some respects this has been the most peculiar year in the history of our work. To the casual observer, in many places, it would seem that but little has been done, when in reality many societies have done the best real work in their history.

We have come to a period in the work when not so many are attracted to it who are not really ready and willing for service.

The records of the U. S. C. E. show that in 1903 more than two thousand new societies were organized, and this year that number will be nearly doubled. The last year has broken all former records in the organization of classes for Bible study, bands for missionary study, and money given for church support and for missions.

In the Presbyterian Church last year, the Young People's Department is the only one that did not show a deficit. Last year more societies engaged actively in evangelistic work than ever before. More ministers bore testimony to the loyalty of their Endeavorers than ever before. More missionaries wrote to their Boards of their indebtedness to Christian Endeavor than ever before.

The work of the Endeavorers for prisoners in State prisons and among the soldiers, was the best and most effective in the history of the movement.

Will you notice what our Endeavorers did last year for our work in Damoh, India, alone, giving in money about $10,000? Bro. Rambo in his address will give you facts and figures.

The more I know of the work, the more I see in it, as one of the most important and fruitful departments in all our work as a people. There are some features about it which, to me, are peculiarly fitted to us as a people and to our plea.

Not many people become very efficient Christian workers, and especially preachers, until they have learned the Book, how to use it and have learned to pray and speak in public.

The legitimate beginning work of the Endeavor Society aims to do these very things, and delivers the young man or young woman over to the Bible College or the Mission Board, well trained in these essentials.

In the selection of officers for our churches and Bible-schools and missionaries for the field and teachers for our schools, the Endeavorer has the first chance. This is as it should be. All of our missionaries in the field, both Home and Foreign, are enthusiastic Endeavorers. The last one selected for the foreign field is Miss Nellie J. Clark, of Salem, Ore., State Secretary.

The Endeavor Society is the only organization in the church in which the young people are developed in a practical way for these different works.

During the last year, the U. S. C. E. has made a strong effort to organize new societies, and our people have led in this work in a goodly number of States. In all of the U. S. C. E. work our young people stand well to the front. Our report shows an increase of 1,586 societies over last year. This increase, as indicated in this report, is partly due to our ability to get more and fuller reports than last year. Our actual net gain of new societies is about 500.

In a letter received a few days ago, from our World's President, Dr. Clark pays a high compliment to our own Endeavorers and ministers, placing us among the very first in growth, efficiency and hearty co-operation in the U. S. C. E. work.

This year I have pressed the claims of our work in Porto Rico, our colleges and all of our organized interests upon the hearts of our young people. I have laid special emphasis upon the selection of young men to be sent to our Bible Colleges, to prepare to preach the gospel. The selection to be made by the young people themselves, and the young man, when necessary, to be supported, wholly or in part, by the society. I am greatly pleased at the result. Wherever this feature of the work has been presented to a Convention, or a meeting, by myself or another, it has been enthusiastically received. With the spirit of evangelism sweeping over our people and country, as it is to-day, I believe an opportunity is ours such as we have never had before.

With the co-operation of our press and pulpit, it does seem to your superintendent that within the next two years we should easily have five hundred splendid young men in our Bible Colleges, preparing for the ministry and the mission fields. This would be less than one to each twelve societies.

I believe the work of the National Superintendent should be along these lines, rather than the getting of money from the Endeavorers, as our Missionary Boards will press the matter of money as hard as I think is wise.

Much of my time, this year, has been spent on the Pacific Coast and in the Northwest, and, to my very great delight, I found out there some of the finest working societies I have ever seen. A large number of new societies have been organized on the Coast this year.

The work of Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Black, of Ardmore, I. T., in the jails and penitentiaries, has been blest with wonderful results.

The work of our Endeavorers in Portland, Ore., San Francisco and Los Angeles, Cal., in Dallas, Tex., and other places, among the Japanese, the Chinese, and our soldiers and sailors, has been peculiarly blessed.

During the year we have used $190.80 of the $200 set aside for the work of Christian Endeavor. This has been used, as directed, for stamps, stationery and stenography, and we believe has done much good.

Everywhere in my travels, this year, of more than twenty-five thousand miles, I have worked and talked Endeavor, held rallies, delivered addresses in Conventions, etc., etc., and all at no expense whatever to our National Board.

The number of societies supporting missionaries and orphans has increased the last year, and our National Boards are planning for larger and even larger things from our Endeavorers. And, brethren, if wisely and lovingly handled, our army of Endeavorers will not disappoint us.

Cash contributed by the Endeavor Societies to our different departments of organized work:

Received by	Board of Church Extension, about	$ 2,000.00
"	" American Christian Missionary Society, about	1,800.00
"	" National Benevolent Association, about	120.00
"	" Foreign Christian Missionary Society, about	10,000.00
"	" Christian Woman's Board of Missions (813 societies)	12,146.00
"	" Ministerial Relief	150.00
	Total	$26,216.00

All who have had experience in gathering statistics will readily understand how difficult it is to get satisfactory reports. Please note that reports of amounts given to our different Boards is $26,216, while the amount indicated in the tabulated statement by States is $63,058. This latter is from the State officers, and includes money given by our Endeavorers, much of it passing into the treasury of the church, and is sent in as the regular church offering.

We have been more successful this year in getting reports. Last year, the report from Ohio (one of our very best States) did not reach me in time to be included in the report.

All who are in close touch with the Endeavor work to-day, those who are posted and who are helping to lead, bear testimony of its value and power in all departments of our work.

The young people are willing to be led—are anxious for leaders. They should and do look to the pastor of the church more than to any one else for leadership. As it has always been, so it is to-day, very largely with the pastor of the church as to what the Endeavorers shall do, and what the society shall be.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

I would recommend:

First—That the interests of Christian Endeavor be provided for on County, District and State Convention programs.

Second—That a stronger effort be made to have a larger number of our young people attend our Conventions.

Third—That the American Christian Missionary Society continue the appropriation of not less than $200 to be placed at the disposal of the National Superintendent for the coming year, to be used in pushing the work.

Fourth—That our pastors be urged to organize the "Mission Study Class," and the reading of the books in the "Bethany Reading Course."

Fifth—That the ministers and societies be urged to select young men of good ability and promise from the membership, and urge them to enter some of our Bible Colleges, and prepare to become preachers of the gospel, missionaries, etc. To us, this is the most promising and most fruitful field open to our Endeavorers to-day. If properly presented, many societies will select and support a young man, and many will join with one or more other societies and together support a young man.

Sixth—That the work be encouraged and kept up in all of our Bible Colleges.

Seventh—At best, a busy business man can do but little as compared to what should and could be done were it possible for a strong man to give all of his time to this special work, and this seeming to be impractical at this time, I would urge our ministers and our County, District, State and National Secretaries to give special attention to this department of our work

Eighth—That we continue to urge the systematic study of the Scriptures and emphasize the spiritual side of Christian Endeavor.

I plead with you, my brother ministers, to give to my successor the same hearty support you have given me.

I submit this report with a fuller appreciation than ever before of the value of the work of Christian Endeavor to the church in all departments.

Fully appreciating the sympathy and co-operation of my brethren for the work, and grateful to our heavenly Father for his blessing, I am,

Very fraternally yours,

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

We, your Committee on Christian Endeavor, beg leave to submit the following report:

1. We most heartily endorse the report of our National Superintendent as a whole and in part.

2. We especially recommend the pushing of the evangelistic feature of our Superintendent's report, the purpose of which is to induce more of our young men to enter the ministry, and that the first Lord's Day of February be set aside and sermons preached to this end.

3. We recommend that $200.00 be appropriated to the work of the National Superintendent of Christian Endeavor.

Respectfully submitted,

J. S. MCCALLUM, WALTER M. WHITE,
J. W. HOLSAPPLE, WALTER SCOTT PRIEST,
E. H. KELLAR, Committee.

PRAYER-MEETING COMMITTEE FOR 1906.

The president appointed the following brethren as a committee to prepare the Prayer-Meeting Topics for 1906.

B. A. Abbott, Maryland; F. D. Power, District of Columbia; E. B. Bagby, District of Columbia; Peter Ainslee, Maryland; E. L. Powell, Kentucky; S. Lloyd Darsie, Illinois; Frank G. Tyrrell, Missouri.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON WORLD'S FAIR PAVILION.

The undersigned were appointed a committee by the Detroit Convention to secure funds and to erect a suitable building on the World's Fair Grounds in which to make an exhibit of our missionary, educational, benevolent, and publishing interests, such as would give to visitors, who are strangers, some conception of our strength, our principles and purposes, and what we are doing in the various fields of Christian activity. In pursuance of this instruction your committee at once secured from the authorities of the World's Fair a grant of a suitable lot and proceeded as rapidly as possible with the work of erecting the building. It was decided to erect a hexagonal structure as best adapted for our purposes and this general plan was submitted to a competent architect, Mr. Guy M. Mariner, of this city, who drew the plans and specifications for the building, and superintended its erection without any charge for his services. The thanks of this Convention are due to him for this generosity. The building has cost more than was anticipated, because of the high price of labor and material prevailing during the time of its erection; but the committee has done all it could to keep down the cost to the lowest figures.

As soon as the building was completed a call was made to our missionary organizations, colleges and publishing-houses, for their exhibits, and their co-operation with us has been very hearty. Indeed, had it not been for the generous help of the American Christian Missionary Society, the Foreign Christian Missionary Society, the Christian Woman's Board of Missions, the Board of Church Extension, and our National Benevolent Association, it would have been impossible for us to have succeeded with any credit in the undertaking. Our colleges, too, have aided, both by their contributions and otherwise, in making a very creditable display. Our appeal to the public for funds has not met with the prompt and generous response which we had hoped for, but we are glad to report that there is only a comparatively small deficit in the funds necessary to meet the entire cost of the building, together with the cost of maintenance. The financial report is as follows:

Total cost of building	$4,108.64
Cost of maintenance up to the end of November.....
Total amount of receipts from all sources up to date.....	3,762.10
Balance needed, to complete payment on the building and maintenance, about	450.00

As to the value of the building as a rallying center for our members during the progress of the World's Fair, with its accommodations, and the opportunity it has afforded for disseminating among the people at large a knowledge of our movement, there is but one opinion among those who have been in a position to judge of its influence. The stream of visitors has been constant from the time it was opened and hundreds of thousands of people have passed through the building, looked at the exhibits, and many have remained to ask questions and to receive tracts giving statements of our principles and aims. Miss Mary E. Gowans, who was appointed hostess of the building, and who has served efficiently in that capacity, and Miss Jessie D. Nesbitt, who has had charge of the missionary exhibits, have been constant in their attention to the visitors and in giving all needed information. From expressions which we have heard from so many individuals, and which have come to us in letters, we believe that the building and the exhibits it contains, have done an immeasurable amount of good to our cause.

It only remains for the committee to thank the brethren who have cooperated with us in this enterprise, and to recommend that an offering be taken at once to provide for the remaining obligations.

W. F. RICHARDSON,
S. M. COOPER,
J. H. ALLEN,
Z. T. SWEENEY.

J. H. GARRISON,
Chairman Committee on World's Fair Pavilion.

The Business Men's Session was conducted by R. S. Latimer, of Pittsburg, Pa., who introduced the following men to make brief addresses: Howard C. Rash, Salina, Kan., "The American People;" Judge S. B. Dawes, Indian Territory, "Materialism and the Religious Life of the Nation;" E. M. Bowman, Chicago, "Save the Cities;" A. R. Teachout, Cleveland, O., "To Save the Cities We Must Give;" J. H. Fillmore, Cincinnati, O., "The Business Man and His Pastor;" J. H. Allen and W. D. Pittman, St., Louis, "The Business Men's Association."

Then followed an address by S. Lloyd Darsie, of Chicago, Ill., on "The Conquest of the City," and one by E. V. Zollars, of Waco, Tex., on "The Plea and Prospects of the Disciples."

Dr. G. D. French, of the American Bible Society, spoke in behalf of that organization.

J. H. Garrison pronounced the benediction, and President Z. T. Sweeney declared the Convention adjourned, sine die.

W. R. WARREN,
Recording Secretary.

ST. LOUIS, MO., OCTOBER 19, 1904.

Receipts from Sept. 30th, 1903, to Sept. 30th, 1904.

The (*) indicates that the church reached the full apportionment.
